The French Empire Between the Wars Martin Thomas, 2005

The French Right Between the Wars Samuel Kalman, Sean Kennedy, 2014-01-01 During the interwar years France experienced severe political polarization At the time many observers particularly on the left feared that the French right had embraced fascism generating a fierce debate that has engaged scholars for decades but has also obscured critical changes in French society and culture during the 1920s and 1930s This collection of essays shifts the focus away from long standing controversies in order to examine various elements of the French right from writers to politicians social workers to street fighters in their broader social cultural and political contexts It offers a wide ranging reassessment of the structures mentalities and significance of various conservative and extremist organizations deepening our understanding of French and European history in a troubled yet fascinating era

Fight Or Flight Martin Thomas, 2014-03 The story of the dramatic collapse of the British and French colonial empires in the aftermath of the Second World War now told for the first time as part of one global process

Empires of Intelligence Martin Thomas, 2008 Empires of Intelligence argues that colonial control in British and French empires depended on an elaborate security apparatus Thomas shows the crucial role of intelligence gathering in maintaining imperial control in the years before decolonization

Planning for War at Sea Evan Wilson, Paul M. Kennedy, 2025-02-04 How have navies contemplated possible enemies How did they learn or fail to learn once operations began How does this analysis inform today's planning for future conflict These questions guide the noted historians and naval strategists who contributed to Planning for War at Sea A central theme is the regular failure of navies best laid plans Covering four centuries of naval warfare the chapters illustrate the challenges all navies faced when considering possible enemies Even during the Age of Sail ships were among the most expensive and long term national endeavors Navies therefore planned well in advance for future wars usually without knowing their adversaries or how they would fight them at sea Building a capable navy requires sustained investment in naval infrastructure long before the fighting starts In the final chapters naval strategists expand on this historical analysis to address how effectively or ineffectively today's three leading navies Russia China and the United States have configured themselves during the post Cold War era in preparing for future great power conflict This collection is an important work for strategists scholars and policymakers

Replacing France Kathryn Statler, 2007-06-22 Using recently released archival materials from the United States and Europe Replacing France: The Origins of American Intervention in Vietnam explains how and why the United States came to assume control as the dominant western power in Vietnam during the 1950s Acting on their conviction that American methods had a better chance of building a stable noncommunist South Vietnamese nation Eisenhower administration officials systematically ejected French military economic political bureaucratic and cultural institutions from Vietnam Kathryn C Statler examines diplomatic maneuvers in Paris Washington London and Saigon to detail how Western alliance members sought to transform South Vietnam into a modern westernized and democratic ally but ultimately failed to counter the Communist threat Abetted by South Vietnamese prime minister Ngo Dinh Diem Americans in Washington D C and Saigon undermined their French counterparts at every turn resulting in the disappearance of a French presence by the time Kennedy assumed office Although the United States ultimately replaced France in South Vietnam efforts to build South Vietnam into a nation failed Instead it became a dependent client state that was unable to withstand increasing Communist aggression from the North Replacing France is a fundamental reassessment of the origins of U S involvement in Vietnam that explains how Franco American conflict led the United States to pursue a unilateral and ultimately imperialist policy in Vietnam

Interlopers of Empire Andrew Arsan, 2014-01-06 This work is the first comprehensive history of the Lebanese migrant communities of colonial French West Africa a vast expanse that covered present day Senegal Cote d'Ivoire Mali Guinea Benin and Mauritania Where others have concentrated on the commercial activities of these migrants casting them as archetypal middlemen this work reconstructs not just their economic strategies but also their social and political lives Moreover it examines the fraught responses of colonial Frenchmen to the unsettling presence of these interlopers of empire responses which with their echoes of metropolitan racism helped to shape the ways in which Lebanese migrants represented themselves and justified their place in West Africa This is a work which attempts not just to reshape broader understandings of diasporic life of Janus like existences lived in transit between distant locales and dependent on the constant to and fro of people news and goods but also to challenge the way we think about empires and the relations between their constituent territories and diverse inhabitants

French Indochina War Huston, Simon, 2021-07-01 Military mistakes impel strategic reflection The French Indochina War FIW from 1946 1954 furnishes useful insights with some resonance for current challenges A combination of pre existing conditions catalysts and operational drivers caused the cathartic 1954 French defeat Pre conditions included the illegitimacy of the colonial regime repression that polarised nationalist sentiment Economically pernicious terms of trade suppressed industrialisation but oiled speculation until suddenly reversed by devaluation in 1953 that reflected financial disengagement by France but increased American involvement Vacillating metropolitan and the dubious colonial regime of the night club Emperor B o i fuelled political instability Militarily after the disastrous evacuation of the RC4 in 1950 Vi t Minh men and supplies poured across the Chinese frontier In 1954 financial constraints and the looming international peace conference catalysed Navarre the new French commander to gamble on a battle of attrition He bet that the Vi t Minh would be unable drag artillery to the remote jungle outpost of Di n Bi n Ph but he underestimated their determination strength and adaptability In early December partisans resented the bungled evacuation of Lai Ch u The entrenched camp s defences were inadequate and neither infantry sorties nor napalm suppressed VM artillery in the surrounding hills The French aero logistical sub system was overstretched and significant parachute supplies fell into enemy hands Navarre scattered his reserves on a futile and remote side show Operation Atlante The Americans prevaricated and refused to unleash their B29 fleet Iacta alea est the die was cast Black Europe and the African Diaspora Darlene Clark Hine,Trica Danielle Keaton,Stephen Small,2009-09-10 Multifaceted analyses of the African diaspora in Europe Anglo-French Relations since the Late Eighteenth Century Glyn Stone,Thomas G. Otte,2013-09-13 This work intended to commemorate the centenary of the Entente Cordiale in 2004 examines aspects of Anglo French relations since the late eighteenth century when both Britain and France were pre eminent great powers at war with one another through to the post Second World War period when both had become rival second class powers in the face of American and Soviet dominance The chapters in this book examine and illuminate the nature of the Anglo French relationship at certain periods during the last two hundred years both in peacetime and in war and include political economic diplomatic military and strategic considerations and influences While the impact of Anglo French relations is centred essentially on the European context other areas are also considered including the Middle East Africa and the North Atlantic The elements of conflict rivalry and cooperation in Anglo French relations are also highlighted whether in peace or war This book was previously published as a special issue of Diplomacy and Statecraft Black Cosmopolitanism and Anticolonialism Babacar M'Baye,2017-03-31 This book examines the cosmopolitanism and anticolonialism that black intellectuals such as the African American W E B Du Bois the Caribbeans Marcus Garvey and George Padmore and the Francophone West Africans Kojo Touvalou Hou nou Lamine Senghor and L opold S dar Senghor developed during the two world wars by fighting for freedom equality and justice for Senegalese and other West African colonial soldiers known as tirailleurs who made enormous sacrifices to liberate France from German oppression Focusing on the solidarity between this special group of African American Caribbean and Francophone West African intellectuals against French colonialism this book uncovers pivotal moments of black Anglophone and Francophone cosmopolitanism and traces them to published and archived writings produced between 1914 and the middle of the twentieth century Pasteur's Empire Aro Velmet,2020 Why did microbe hunters at the Pasteur Institute become the most important health experts in the French empire in the early twentieth century Pasteur s Empire illustrates how French microbiologists transformed life in the colonies in the name of humanitarian public health which often had grave consequences for those living under French rule

Resurrecting the Past Sarah Griswold, 2025-09-15 In Resurrecting the Past Sarah Griswold shows how the Levant became a crucial front in a post 1918 fight over the French past a contingent and contradictory but always hard charging struggle over a forgotten heritage mandate Many scholars clergy pundits politicians and investors perceived the moment Allied forces entered Jerusalem in December 1917 to be a once in a lifetime opportunity to expand French influence evoking the vision of a new colony in the territory a French Levant But what transpired for the French state in the Levant after World War I and why does that ill conceived venture still matter today Resurrecting the Past investigates how heritage politics led to a new form of empire a French mandate for Syria and Lebanon and with it a tide of regional and international critique Against such opposition the heritage mandate leaned heavily on spectacle and science generating a sprawling set of sites and objects Ottoman mansions crusader castles Umayyad mosques Roman arches buried synagogues and Sumerian ziggurats As Griswold traces how French heritage efforts cycled through multiple ideal pasts in the Levant from 1918 to 1946 she reveals how each one though grounded in realities also complicated those constructs and the work of French heritage makers Resurrecting the Past offers a parable of how efforts in heritage politics aimed to construct a union of ideologies and objects deemed the best past for France s uncertain future but struggled as much as they succeeded Eventually those same heritage politics ironically helped officials justify the end of the French Levant

Wine, Sugar, and the Making of Modern France Elizabeth

Heath, 2014-10-09 This is an innovative study of how race and empire transformed French republican citizenship in the early Third Republic Elizabeth Heath integrates the histories of the wine producing department of Aude and the sugar producing colony of Guadeloupe to reveal the ways in which empire was integral to the Third Republic s ability to stabilize a republican regime that began to unravel in an age of economic globalization She shows how global economic factors shaped negotiations between local citizens and the Third Republic over the responsibilities of the Republic to its citizens leading to the creation of two different and unequal forms of citizenship that became constitutive of the interwar imperial nation state and the French welfare state Her findings shed important new light on the tensions within republicanism between ideals of liberty and equality and on the construction of race as a meaningful social category at a foundational moment in French history

Counterterrorism Between the Wars Mary S. Barton, 2020 Mary S Barton explores the global war on terror that Great Britain the United States and France waged during the interwar years between World War I and World War II

Building a Republican Nation in Vietnam, 1920-1963 Nu-Anh Tran, Tuong Vu, 2022-12-31 Western observers have long considered communism to be synonymous with Vietnam s modern historical experience Eager to make sense of the North Vietnamese victory in the Vietnam War scholars and journalists have spilled much ink on the history of Vietnamese communists But this preoccupation has obscured the diversity of ideas and experiences that defined Vietnam in the twentieth century in which communism represented just one of many tendencies Building a Republican Nation in Vietnam 1920 1963

posits that republicanism shaped modern Vietnam no less profoundly than communism Republicans championed representative government the universal rights of man civil liberties and the primacy of the nation These ideas infused the thinking of Vietnamese reformers dissidents and revolutionaries from the 1900s onward including many men and women who went on to lead the struggle for independence Republicanism was also one of the chief inspirations for the establishment of the Republic of Vietnam also known as South Vietnam in 1955 This interdisciplinary volume brings together eleven essays by historians political scientists literary scholars and sociologists who make use of fresh sources to study the development of republicanism from the colonial period to the First Republic of Vietnam 1955-1963 The introduction by coeditors Nu Anh Tran and Tuong Vu critically analyzes the existing scholarship on the First Republic explains how the concept of republicanism can illuminate developments in the Saigon based state and situates the regime in a comparative context with South Korea Peter Zinoman's chapter reviews the historiography on republicanism and modern Vietnam and heralds the arrival of the republican moment in the field of Vietnam studies Several chapters by Nguyen L ng H i Kh i Martina Thucnhi Nguyen and Yen Vu examine the transformation of republican ideas Nu Anh Tran and Duy Lap Nguyen explore competing concepts of democracy and the factional politics of the First Republic The essays by Jason Picard Cindy Nguyen Ho ng Phong Tu n Nguy n Th Minh and Y Thien Nguyen analyze nation and state building efforts in the 1950s and 1960s Collectively the essays give voice to Vietnamese republicans from the ideas they espoused to the institutions they built and the legacies they left behind

Emigrant homecomings Marjory Harper, 2017-03-01 Emigrant Homecomings addresses the significant but neglected issue of return migration to Britain and Europe since 1600 While emigration studies have become prominent in both scholarly and popular circles in recent years return migration has remained comparatively under researched despite evidence that in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries between a quarter and a third of all emigrants from many parts of Britain and Europe ultimately returned to their countries of origin Emigrant Homecomings analyses the motives experiences and impact of these returning migrants in a wide range of locations over four hundred years as well as examining the mechanisms and technologies which enabled their return The book examines the multiple identities that migrants adopted and the huge range and complexity of homecomers motives and experiences It also dissects migrants perception of home and the social economic cultural and political change that their return engendered

Colonial connections, 1815-45 Zoë Laidlaw, 2013-07-19 This groundbreaking book challenges standard interpretations of metropolitan strategies of rule in the early nineteenth century After the Napoleonic wars the British government ruled a more diverse empire than ever before and the Colonial Office responded by cultivating strong personal links with governors and colonial officials through which influence patronage and information could flow By the 1830s the conviction that personal connections were the best way of exerting influence within the imperial sphere went well beyond the metropolitan government as lobbyists settlers and missionaries also developed personal connections to advance their causes However the successive crises in the 1830s exposed these complicated networks of connection to hostile metropolitan scrutiny This book challenges traditional notions of a radical revolution in government identifying a more profound and general transition from a metropolitan reliance on gossip and personal information to the embrace of new statistical forms of knowledge The analysis moves between London New South Wales and the Cape Colony encompassing both government insiders and those who struggled against colonial and imperial governments
