French Existentialist Fiction Terry Keefe, 1986-01-01 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Iris Murdoch: Philosophical Novelist Miles Leeson, 2011-10-27 A reassessment of Murdoch's fictional work regarding her links with her own philosophy and the philosophy of Plato Sartre Nietzsche Heidegger and Freud The Novels of Simone De-Beauvoir Elizabeth Fallaize, 2024-11-01 First published in 1988 The Novels of Simone de Beauvoir concentrates specifically on the novels of the famous 20th Century French writer Simone de Beauvoir Her novels are popular with both the students and general readers of literature and philosophy and they will welcome this authoritative introduction to Beauvoir's fiction The author examines Beauvoir's choice of narrative strategies and interprets them both in relation to the sexual politics of writing and in relation to the place which the constraints of history class and gender increasingly play in the texts All quotations are translated The Cambridge Companion to Existentialism Steven Crowell, 2012-02-16 Existentialism exerts a continuing fascination on students of philosophy and general readers As a philosophical phenomenon though it is often poorly understood as a form of radical subjectivism that turns its back on reason and argumentation and possesses all the liabilities of philosophical idealism but without any idealistic conceptual clarity In this volume of original essays the first to be devoted exclusively to existentialism in over forty years a team of distinguished commentators discuss the ideas of Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger Sartre Merleau Ponty and Beauvoir and show how their focus on existence provides a compelling perspective on contemporary issues in moral psychology and philosophy of mind language and history A further sequence of chapters examines the influence of existential ideas beyond philosophy in literature religion politics and psychiatry The volume offers a rich and comprehensive assessment of the continuing vitality of existentialism as a philosophical movement and a cultural phenomenon Visconti Henry Bacon, 1998-03-28 The first thorough study of the Italian filmmaker Luchino Visconti Writing against Death Susan Bainbrigge, 2005-01-01 Much has been written on Simone de Beauvoir one of France's leading intellectual figures of the 20th century The sheer volume of her autobiographical writings testifies to her indefatigable questioning of the nature of existence and her personal and public engagement in the world over the best part of a century This study aims to re-evaluate her extensive autobiographical work exploring its place in relation to the French autobiographical canon and in the light of recent theorisations of autobiography It presents readings which engage critically with existentialism feminist theory and autobiography studies generally in particular focusing on the question of autothanatography a term developed by theorists such as Jacques Derrida and Louis Marin A new reading of the autobiographies via the lens of thanatos is presented with questions of gender in mind and the nature of autobiography as genre is also explored more fully with particular attention paid to narrative voice Close readings of the autobiographical work combine with contextual details critical overviews and links to recent developments in critiques of Beauvoir's fiction and philosophy The study would be of particular interest to
