French Immersion:

The Sociolinguistic Competence of Immersion Students Raymond Mougeon, Terry Nadasdi, Katherine Rehner, 2010-01-28

This book reports the findings of an extensive research project on the acquisition of the native norms of spoken French variation by French immersion students who have learnt their second language primarily in an educational context. The project focused on a range of phonetic, lexical and grammatical sociolinguistic variants documented in studies of contemporary first language varieties of spoken French and assessed the extent to which the students master the linguistic and extra linguistic factors which govern variant choice. The book also discusses pedagogical strategies to improve the students' mastery of spoken French variation. The book represents an important contribution to an under-researched aspect of advanced Second Language Acquisition in an institutional setting.

Bilingual and Multicultural Education Stan Shapson, Vincent D'Oyley, 1984. This book provides a conceptualisation of bilingual French-English and multicultural education. Its main purposes are to synthesise recent responses to bilingual and multicultural education, to identify the issues arising out of the schools' responses to these new challenges and to examine future directions for educational policy.

Understanding School Choice in Canada Lynn Bosetti, Dianne Gereluk, 2016-08-04. Understanding School Choice in Canada provides a nuanced and theoretical overview of the formation and rise of school choice policies in Canada. Drawing on twenty years of work, Lynn Bosetti and Dianne Gereluk analyze the philosophical, historical, political and social principles that underpin the formation and implementation of school choice policies in the provinces and territories. Bosetti and Gereluk offer theoretical frameworks for considering the parameters of school choice policies that are aligned and attentive to Canadian educational contexts. This robust overview successfully shifts the debate away from ideology in order to facilitate an understanding that the spectrum of school choice policy in Canada is a response to the varying political challenges in society at large. This book is essential reading for those who desire a deeper understanding of school choice policies in Canada.

Making Sense of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Jonathan L. Black-Branch, Canadian Education Association, 1995. The purpose of this guide is to provide a user-friendly handbook to inform school administrators and teachers about the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, highlighting some of its more prevalent implications for educational practice. The guide begins with a brief introduction to the Charter, followed by a synopsis of the pertinent rights and freedoms. The text then focuses on ten main concerns under the Charter and how they relate to both denominational and non-denominational schools and school systems throughout Canada. The sections of the guide cover legal, religious equality and minority language rights, plus rights relating to special education and school attendance. Where applicable, each section presents true-to-life case scenarios which highlight suggestions for dealing with those and similar situations.

Teachers as Mediators in Language Immersion Education Kelle L. Marshall, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2025-09-04. This book explores the role of teachers as intercultural mediators within language immersion education programs. The authors draw on research conducted in the context of a one way French immersion program in New Brunswick Canada an officially bilingual province and country Their discussion is anchored on the landmark Douglas Fir Group framework of second language acquisition examining the implications of macro level ideologies for language education curriculum and intercultural instruction The book considers educators placement within the framework and their potential role as intercultural mediators between macro level ideologies meso level curricular implementation and their students at the micro level They even provide an amendment to the framework that models this mediating role Through interview data with entry point early French immersion teachers and principals of their schools the authors emphasise the importance of theoretically situating teachers positions as mediators of ideology and culture Through this we can fully understand what it means to incorporate intercultural competence into language learning They argue that teachers receive little support either through curriculum or through training on how to engage with inter cultural instruction in their practice They then describe their own course for training pre and in service teachers on intercultural mediation in their language education practice applicable to a variety of language learning models and contexts

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Language Teaching Patsy M. Lightbown, 2014-04-10 Examines the challenges of learning both language and content in the same class and reviews classroom based research on instructional practices that can meet those challenges in primary and secondary schools Social Identities and Multiple Selves in Foreign Language Education Damian J.

Rivers, Stephanie Ann Houghton, 2013-07-18 Within foreign language education contexts across the globe inadequate attention has been paid to documenting the dynamics of identity development negotiation and management This book looks at these dynamics in specific relation to otherness in addition to attitudinal and behavioural overtones created through use of the term foreign despite its position as an integral marker in language acquisition discourse This book argues that individual identities are multidimensional constructs that gravitate around a hub of intricate social networks of multimodal intergroup interaction The chapters pursue a collective desire to move the notion of identity away from theoretical abstraction and toward the lived experiences of foreign language teachers and students While the identities entangled with these interactions owe a significant measure of their existence to the immediate social context they can also be actively developed by their holders The collection of chapters within this book demonstrate how foreign language education environments traditional and non traditional are ideal locations for the development of a sophisticated repertoire of discursive strategies used in the formulation navigation expression and management of social identities and multiple selves The Routledge Handbook of

Instructed Second Language Acquisition Shawn Loewen, Masatoshi Sato, 2017-02-17 The Routledge Handbook of Instructed Second Language Acquisition is the first collection of state of the art papers pertaining to Instructed Second Language Acquisition ISLA Written by 45 world renowned experts the entries are full length articles detailing pertinent issues with up to date references Each chapter serves three purposes 1 provide a review of current literature and discussions of cutting edge issues 2 share the authors understanding of and approaches to the issues and 3 provide direct links between research and practice In short based on the chapters in this handbook ISLA has attained a level of theoretical and methodological maturity that provides a solid foundation for future empirical and pedagogical discovery This handbook is the ideal resource for researchers graduate students upper level undergraduate students teachers and teacher educators who are interested in second language learning and teaching First Language Use in Second and Foreign Language Learning Miles

Turnbull, Jennifer Dailey-O'Cain, 2009-08-24 This volume offers fresh perspectives on a controversial issue in applied linguistics and language teaching by focusing on the use of the first language in communicative or immersion type classrooms It includes new work by both new and established scholars in educational scholarship second language acquisition and sociolinguistics as well as in a variety of languages countries and educational contexts Through its focus at the intersection of theory practice curriculum and policy the book demands a reconceptualization of code switching as something that both proficient and aspiring bilinguals do naturally and as a practice that is inherently linked with bilingual code switching
