Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century European Drawings Richard R. Brettell, 2002      French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001

Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations

Counter Modernities in Nineteenth Century French Literature explores a counterview of modernity in late nineteenth century French literature 1848 1891 The principal claim of this book is that what we find in the works of Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert is a form of writing against the grain of history not the elegant lyricism of history's victors but a use of literature against the erasures of past injustices and for those lost futurities upon which the order of the present is founded What we find in other words is a critical literary archive of the powerless that persists in contesting the legitimacy of the powerful which persists in haunting the nineteenth century every bit as much as it does our own achingly out of joint present The story Counter Modernities seeks to tell is in other words about the meaning of loss and the significance of losers as possible figures of opposition to the dominant order in nineteenth century French literature that is also a story about modernity as an aesthetic politics What brings together the authors in this study however cannot be reduced to the biographical that is to the uneven successes financial hardships and in one case outright failure i.e. Rimbaud shared by the authors in the literary market of their lifetime At stake in this study is not an account of the ironies of literary history wherein to gloss Walter Benjamin's take on Baudelaire a prior and benighted era sees little of interest in an artist in which a later epoch recognizes the genius of modernity Rather Constellations of Loss in Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert demonstrates how each author in this critical corpus insists on tarrying with history as an experience of irrevocable loss each lingers with history as a force of negations and thereby insists on the significance of historical setbacks and political defeats that seem to affect if not more dramatically wipe out the collective hopes of entire generations Each one gives us losers as subjects who matter in the nineteenth century Baudelaire Flaubert Rimbaud narratives of historical defeat that are as negative as they are meaningful Baudelaire Flaubert or the contours of events whose meanings and narratives are themselves lost Baudelaire Rimbaud whose meanings remain in other words perhaps less absent than open ended a possible grammar for what may come next when hope seems lost and dreams dashed Indeed as this book shows it is precisely in its representation of history as a dilemma or undoing of meaningfulness a problem of legibility and not knowingness that we can most fully recognize the formal calling cards of literary modernity ironic undecidabilities and difficulties infinite interpretability and the death of the author the dissolution of previously stable cultural and historical narratives or forms of subjectivity formal breaks with semantically oriented modes of representation and so on      French 19th Century Drawings in the Whitworth Art Gallery Whitworth Art Gallery, 1981      European Sculpture, 1400-1900, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Ian Wardropper, 2011 This beautiful book features masterpieces of sculpture in the collection of the Metropolitan Museum dating from the Renaissance through the nineteenth century Celebrated works by the great European sculptors including Luca and Andrea della Robbia Juan Martinez Montañés Gianlorenzo Bernini Jean Antoine Houdon Bertel Thorvaldsen Antoine Louis Barye Jean Baptiste Carpeaux Edgar Degas and Auguste Rodin are joined by striking new additions to the collection notably Franz Xaver Messerschmidt's remarkable bust of a troubled and introspective man. The ninety-two selected examples are diverse in media: marble, bronze, wood, terracotta, and ivory, and size ranging from a tiny oil lamp fantastically conceived and decorated by the Renaissance bronze sculptor Riccio to Antonio Canova's eight-foot high Perseus with the Head of Medusa executed in the heroic Neoclassical style. Incorporating information from the latest scholarly research and recent conservation studies, sculpture specialist Ian Wardropper discusses the history and significance of the highlighted works, each of which is reproduced with glorious new photography.

The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting René Brimo, 2016-12-13. The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting is a new critical translation of René Brimo's classic study of eighteenth and nineteenth-century patronage and art collecting in the United States. Originally published in French in 1938, Brimo's foundational text is a detailed examination of collecting in America from colonial times to the end of World War I, when American collectors came to dominate the European art market. This work helped shape the then fledgling field of American art history by explaining larger cultural transformations as manifested in the collecting habits of American elites. It remains the most substantive account of the history of collecting in the United States. In his introduction, Kenneth Haltman provides a biographical study of the author and his social and intellectual milieu in France and the United States. He also explores how Brimo's work formed a turning point and initiated a new area of academic study: the history of art collecting. Making accessible a text that has until now only been available in French, Haltman's elegant translation of The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting sheds new critical light on the essential work of this extraordinary but overlooked scholar.

French Art from Watteau to Prud'hon Joshua James Foster, 1905. Art, Medicine, and Femininity Hannah Halliwell, 2023-12-15. Paris is the centre of the cult, wrote Robert Hichens in Felix's 1902 novel on the rising number of morphine addictions in Europe. In Paris, artists depicted the morphine addict numerous times, yet they disregarded the reality of France's addiction problem: male medical professionals made up the highest proportion of people who used morphine habitually. In oil paintings, caricatures, and lithographs, artists such as Pablo Picasso, Eugène Grasset, and Théophile Steinlen almost always depicted the morphine addict as a deviant female figure. Artists sensationalized addiction to elicit shock and stand out in the crowded Parisian art market. Their artworks show influences from contemporary medical texts on addiction and artistic depictions of sex workers, lesbians, and other women deemed socially deviant. These images proliferated in French society, creating false narratives about who was or could become addicted to drugs and setting a precedent for the visualization of drug addiction Hannah Halliwell links the feminization of addiction to broader anxieties in late nineteenth century France the defeat by Prussia in 1871 concerns about social decadence a declining population and a rising feminist movement Art Medicine and Femininity presents a new understanding of the history of addiction and substance use and its intersection with art and gender French Dramatists of the 19th Century Brander Matthews,1901 A Paris Life, A Baltimore Treasure Stanley Mazaroff,2018-04-16 Cover Half Title Title Copyright Contents List of Illustrations Acknowledgments Prologue CHAPTER ONE The Cultivation of Lucas CHAPTER TWO The Wandering Road to Paris CHAPTER THREE Lucas and Paris in a Time of Transition CHAPTER FOUR Lucas and Whistler CHAPTER FIVE The Links to Lucas CHAPTER SIX From Ecouen to Barbizon CHAPTER SEVEN M Eug ne and Maud CHAPTER EIGHT When Money Is No Object CHAPTER NINE The Lucas Collection CHAPTER TEN The Final Years CHAPTER ELEVEN The Terms of Lucas s Will CHAPTER TWELVE A Collection in Search of a Home CHAPTER THIRTEEN The Shot across the Bow CHAPTER FOURTEEN The Glorification of Lucas CHAPTER FIFTEEN In Judge Kaplan s Court CHAPTER SIXTEEN Lucas Saved Postscript Appendix Notes Bibliography Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P R S T U V W Z Impressionism: A Feminist Reading Norma Broude,2019-08-16 An original interpretation of Impressionism and nineteenth century art and culture by a noted feminist art historian This book is a pioneering reading of Impressionism from a feminist perspective by a noted art historian Norma Broude analyzes the philosophical underpinnings of landscape painting in the late nineteenth century discussing the crit Maternal Breast-Feeding and Its Substitutes in Nineteenth-Century French Art Gal Ventura,2018-10-02 In Maternal Breast Feeding and Its Substitutes in Nineteenth Century French Art Gal Ventura investigates the ideological concepts behind the endorsement of maternal breast feeding in modern Western society Using diverse visual and textual sources and surveying hundreds of artworks produced from the time of the French Revolution to the beginning of the twentieth century Ventura reveals the historical political religious and economic factors that shaped the representations of breast feeding and its substitutes in French art She thus sheds light on the changing attitudes toward maternal breast feeding in nineteenth century France which have had a considerable impact on the glorification of breast feeding in the Western world to this very day *Masters in Art: French school.
