French Primitive Photography. Introd. by Minor White. Commentaries by Andre Jammes and Robert Sobieszek Philadelphia Museum of Art, Andre Jammes, Minor White, 1970 French Primitive Photography Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1969 After Daguerre: Masterworks of French Photography (1848-1900) from the Bibliothèque Nationale Bernard Marbot, 1980 French Primitive Photography, 1969 Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians

American Photo - ND, 1993-03 Nadar: Collection Michel Et Michèle Auer Maria Morris Hambourg, Françoise Heilbrun, Philippe Néagu, 1995 Nadar whose real name was Felix Tournachon 1820 1910 was a conspicuous even astonishing presence in nineteenth century France Engaging and quick witted he invented himself over and over as a bohemian writer a

Culture and Record University of New Mexico. Art Museum, Kevin A. Donovan, Elvehjem Museum of Art, 1984 Seizing the Light Robert Hirsch, 2017-04-07 The definitive history of photography book Seizing the Light: A Social Aesthetic History of Photography delivers the fascinating story of how photography as an art form came into being and its continued development maturity and transformation Covering the major events practitioners works and social effects of photographic practice Robert Hirsch provides a concise and discerning chronological account of Western photography This fundamental starting place shows the diversity of makers inventors issues and applications exploring the artistic critical and social aspects of the creative process The third edition includes up to date information about contemporary photographers like Cindy Sherman and Yang Yongliang and comprehensive coverage of the digital revolution including the rise of mobile photography the citizen as journalist and the role of social media Highly illustrated with full color images and contributions from hundreds of artists around the world Seizing the Light serves as a gateway to the history of photography Written in an accessible style it is perfect for students newly engaging with the practice of photography and for experienced photographers wanting to contextualize their own work Disappearing Witness Gretchen Garner, 2003-07-25 In documenting this transformation in American photography Disappearing Witness forcefully rethinks the history of photography itself Parisian Views Shelley Rice, 1999 Each of the book's essays is in itself a Parisian view The fragmented layered quality of the text allows the author to avoid making a linear narrative out of a subject that is enriched by multiple perspectives Yet all of the essays revolve around a central theme the creation of modern urban space in both two and three dimensions and the impact of this space on the lives of those who walked the streets of Paris of the nineteenth century
