French Connections Of Jacques Derrida:

The French Connections of Jacques Derrida Julian Wolfreys, John Brannigan, Ruth Robbins, 1999-01-01 The French Connections of Jacques Derrida offers stimulating and accessible essays that address for the first time the issue of Derrida's relation to French poetics writing thought and culture In addition to offering considerations of Derrida through studies of such significant French authors as Mallarmé Baudelaire Valéry Laporte Ponge Perec Blanchot and Barthes the book also reassesses the development of Derrida's work in the context of structuralism biology and linguistics in the 1960s and looks at the possible relationships between Derrida's writing and that of the Surrealist and Oulipa groups Derrida is introduced as one whose work is as much poetic as it is philosophical and who is strikingly French and yet not unproblematically so

The French Connection in Criminology Bruce A. Arrigo, Dragan Milovanovic, Robert Carl Schehr, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2005 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Crime and Juvenile Delinquency Division of the Society for the Study of Social Problems This is the first comprehensive accessible and integrative overview of postmodernism's contribution to law criminology and social justice The book begins by reviewing the major contributions of eleven prominent figures responsible for the development of French postmodern social theory This first wave includes Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard Hélène Cixous Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Félix Guattari Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Jacques Lacan and Jean-François Lyotard Their respective insights are then linked to second wave scholars who have appropriated their conceptualizations and applied them to pressing issues in law crime and social justice research Compelling and concrete examples are provided for how affirmative and integrative postmodern inquiry can function meaningfully in the world of criminal justice Topics explored include confinement law and prison resistance critical race theory and a jurisprudence of color media literary studies and feminism restorative justice and victim offender mediation processes and the emergence of social movements including innocence projects and intentional communities Derrida and the Writing of the Body Jones Irwin, 2016-04-22 Michel Foucault refers to 1965-1970 as in philosophical terms the five brief impassioned jubilant enigmatic years This book reinterprets Jacques Derrida's work from this period most especially in L'écriture et la Différence Writing and Difference and argues that a transformation takes place here which has been marginalized in readings of his work to date Irwin follows with a look at how the grammatological opening becomes crucial for Derrida's work in the 1970s and beyond incorporating one of his last readings of embodiment from 2000 By drawing our attention to the politics of desire and sexuality this groundbreaking book engages with the work of key continental theorists including Artaud Bataille Nietzsche Heidegger Habermas and Cixous whilst also examining Derrida's relationship with Plato and feminist theory It will appeal to a wide range of readers within the social sciences and philosophy particularly those with interests in gender and sexuality social theory continental thought queer studies and literary theory Jacques Derrida's Aporetic Ethics Marko Zlomislić, 2007-01-01 Derrida has been interpreted as a nihilist and relativist This study demonstrates that he has an ethics and a concern for religion that goes beyond the structures of the philosophical tradition Apparitions--of Derrida's Other Kas Saghafi, 2010 How does Derrida write of and on the other Apparitions examines exemplary instances of the relation to the other the relation of Moses to God Derrida's friendship with Jean Luc Nancy Derrida's relation to a recently departed actress caught on video to demonstrate how Derrida forces us to reconceive who or what the other may be For Derrida the singularity of the other includes not only the formal or logical sense of alterity the otherness of the human other but also the otherness of the nonliving the no longer living or the not yet alive Addressing Derrida's readings of Husserl Levinas Barthes Blanchot and Nancy this book explores the apparitions of the other by attending to the mode of appearing the phenomenality and visibility of the other The book also demonstrates that video and photography display an intimate relation to spectrality as well as a structural relation to the absolute singularity of the other Applying: To Derrida J. Brannigan, Ruth Robbins, Julian Wolfreys, 1997-01-12 Striking out from a number of new headings and in a number of new directions each of the essays in this collection pushes at the borders of their topics disciplines and ways of thinking providing innovative and inventive insights into the work and application of Jacques Derrida on a diverse range of themes including Irish identity communication ethics love tele technology Victorian studies the limits of philosophy translation otherness and literature demonstrating that today despite repeated accusations over recent years that the work of Derrida has become passe there is more vitality and spirit in engaging with the writings of Derrida than ever before Ethical Encounters Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2020-06-12 The essays on dimensions of theatre ethics at the heart of contributions to this volume demonstrate how individual academics and theatre artists have thought about the ethical implications of theatre and present the concepts and paradigms that have guided and influenced their thinking They raise relevant issues and debate these in clearly defined but not uniform ways ways that have helped them to come to terms with the issues they raise The reader may agree or disagree with individual authors or individual arguments If such agreement or disagreement supports them to form and develop their own opinions and resultant actions this book has served its purpose This volume arises from the 2007 and 2008 TaPRA conferences and all of its essays at one level or another reflect upon what is possible within the environment of theatre Possibility is one form of ethical engagement with the boundaries of philosophy and performance and reminds us of the inherently political aspect of any ethical question So whilst the most obviously ethically oriented papers appear towards the end of the volume in a separate section let us bear in mind that throughout certain limits of representation will always be in question for any understanding of theatre Artmaking in the Age of Global Capitalism Bryant Jan Bryant, 2019-09-11 Jan Bryant looks at the strategies visual artists and filmmakers are using to criticise the social and economic conditions shaping our historical moment She then assesses how the world is being positively re imagined through their work today Located at the intersection of practice and theory Bryant argues that an effective contemporary political aesthetics encompasses more than just analysis of a work's conceptual or aesthetic reality It should also consider the impact the artwork has at the point of reception the methods adopted by the artists and the relationships they engender with communities Subjectivity

In-Between Times Chenyang Wang, 2019-09-19 This book is the first to systematically investigate how the notion of time is conceptualised in Jacques Lacan's work Through a careful examination of Lacan's various presentations of time Chenyang Wang argues that this notion is key to a comprehension of Lacan's psychoanalytic thinking and in particular to the way in which he theorises subjectivity This book demonstrates that time is approached by Lacan not only as consciously experienced but also as pre-reflectively embodied and symbolically generated In an analysis that begins with Lacan's Logical Time essay Chenyang Wang articulates three temporal registers that correspond to Lacan's Real Symbolic Imaginary triad and also demonstrates how Lacan's elaboration of other major themes including consciousness body language desire and sexuality is informed by his original perspectives on time Filling a significant gap in contemporary Lacanian studies this book will provide essential reading for students and scholars of psychoanalytic theory continental philosophy and critical theory

Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self-consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned In the first book-length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground-breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post-war authors Nathalie Sarraute Georges Perec Jean Genet and Helene Cixous She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self The Derrida Reader Jacques Derrida, 1998-01-01 In the English-speaking world Jacques Derrida's writings have most influenced the discipline of literary studies Yet what has emerged since the initial phase of Derrida's influence on the study of English literature classed under the rubric of deconstruction has often been disowned by Derrida What then can Derrida teach us about literary language about the rhetoric of literature and about questions concerning style form and structure The Derrida Reader draws together a number of Derrida's most interesting and idiosyncratic essays that treat literary language the idea of the literary and questions of poetics and poetry The essays discuss single tropes or concepts a figure such as metaphor the ideas of titles and signatures proper names and Derrida's thinking on such subjects as undecidability or aporia The editor's introduction is a demonstration in practice of how Derrida reads and how he adapts the act of reading to the text or figure in question The introduction also outlines each essay's main points its usefulness for reading literary texts and its particular area of interest The Derrida Reader thus provides students of literature with a focused contextualized and readily understandable volume

Reflets Réciproques Pamela Marie Hoffer, 2006 Reflets r ciproques A Prismatic Reading of St phane Mallarm and H l ne Cixous evokes the refractory aspect of a prism that bends and deflects light in order to produce a spectrum of twentieth century thought emanating from the late nineteenth century French literary avant garde Because the works of Mallarm and Cixous are often described as hermetic and illisible Jacques Derrida intervenes to play the role of intermediary through his separate writings on these poets Important questions arise How does the elliptical writing of Mallarm relate to the hyperbolic writing of Cixous What common strategies emerge and how do these strategies address the critical areas of sexual difference and political testimony for each writer Literary Memory, Consciousness, and the Group Oulipo Peter

Consenstein, 2021-11-08 The question of memory intrigues us more and more as industrialized societies move further and further away from the written word In the past the role of memory was integral to literary history precise mnemonics served as the support systems for erudition and Mnemosyne was mother of the Muses The group Oulipo born in reaction to the Surrealists proposes invents and applies novel literary constraints Using memory and best of all conscious memory as a theoretical starting point the implications of writing under constraint are analyzed First writing under constraint is viewed as a new mnemonics second the spiritual component of such a practice is shown to redefine a notion of inspiration third constraints and their relationship with games and society is highlighted finally the manner in which they build a literary consciousness is studied through the lenspiece of contemporary neurobiological research For the first time the work of the group Oulipo and the member s emphasis on the function of literature is placed in historical cultural and philosophical context Race and Racism in Continental Philosophy Robert Bernasconi, 2003-06-18 The 15 original essays in Race and Racism in Continental Philosophy explore the resources that continental philosophy brings to debates about contemporary race theory and investigate the racism of some of Europe s most important thinkers Attention is devoted to the influence of the work of W E B Du Bois Jean Paul Sartre Richard Wright and Frantz Fanon Questions about race in European philosophy especially in the work of Nietzsche Heidegger L vi Strauss and Arendt are also considered This volume provides an indispensable critical introduction to new perspectives on thinking about race and racism Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris Maria C. Scott, 2017-09-29 Maria Scott s study of the operation of irony in Baudelaire s Le Spleen de Paris contends that the principal target of the collection s spleen is its own readership Baudelaire as one of the most perceptive cultural commentators of the nineteenth century was naturally very keenly aware of the growing dominance of the bourgeoisie in France not least as a market for art and literature Despite being dependent on this market for his own writing the poet was highly critical of bourgeois values and attitudes Scott builds on existing criticism of the collection to argue that these are indirectly mocked in Le Spleen de Paris often in the person of the poet s supposed textual alter ego The contention is that the prose poems betray the trust of readers by way of an apparent transparency of meaning that functions to blind us to their embedded irony Though focused on Le Spleen de Paris Scott s study engages with the full range of Baudelaire s writings including his art and literary criticism Her book will be of interest not only to Baudelaire scholars but also to those engaged more generally with nineteenth century French culture Rootedness Christy Wampole, 2016-04-06 People have long imagined themselves as rooted creatures bound to the earth and nations from which they came In Rootedness Christy Wampole looks toward philosophy ecology literature history and politics to demonstrate how the metaphor of the root surfacing often in an unexpected variety of places from the family tree to folk etymology to the language of exile developed in twentieth century Europe Wampole examines both the philosophical implications of this metaphor and its political evolution From the root as home to the root as genealogical origin to the root as the past itself rootedness has survived in part through its ability to subsume other compelling metaphors such as the foundation the source and the seed With a focus on this concept s history in France and Germany Wampole traces its influence in diverse areas such as the search for the mystical origins of words land worship and nationalist rhetoric including the disturbing portrayal of the Jews as an unrooted and thus unrighteous people Exploring the works of Martin Heidegger Simone Weil Jean Paul Sartre Paul Celan and many more Rootedness is a groundbreaking study of a figure of speech that has had wide reaching and at times dire political and social consequences The Extreme In-between (politics and Literature) Anna-Louise Milne, 2017-12-02 Frequently referred to as the eminence grise of French literature in the interwar years Jean Paulhan 1884 1968 was not just the editor responsible for giving writers as varied as Francis Ponge and Jean Paul Sartre their first start in the pages of the renowned Nouvelle Revue Française He also produced a substantial body of work of astonishing eclecticism From dense quasi scientific texts on poetic language where his critical expertise in contemporary linguistics and psychology is abundantly apparent to enigmatic recits which often seem closer to prose poems than anything else he explored and exploited a vast range of discourses and artistic practices from the Marquis de Sade s early works to Picasso s still lives Yet all his explorations were governed by a primary and unflinching concern to understand what literature owes society In a series of tightly orchestrated readings Anna Louise Milne brings to light the space he sought to carve out between the art for arts sake ethos and the subordination of art to political ends thereby establishing more clearly Jean Paulhan s place in the twentieth century

Roger Laporte: The Orphic Text Ian MacLachlan, 2017-12-02 This is the first full length study devoted to Roger Laporte whose lifelong exploration of the stakes of writing has produced a body of work on the borderline of literature and philosophy Charting the development of Laporte s writing in relation to the work of Heidegger Levinas Blanchot and Derrida this study offers both a comprehensive reading of Laporte s oeuvre and a new perspective on an important strand of recent thinking about literature In particular it is claimed here that the imperfect reflexivity of Laporte s Orphic texts effects a singular opening to reading and that in doing so it illuminates the ethical dimension of literature which has been the subject of much recent discussion Peter Ackroyd J. Gibson, J. Wolfreys, 2000-04-07 Peter Ackroyd The Ludic and Labyrinthine Text offers the reader the first major critical study in English of one of Britain s most inventive playful and significant writers of the twentieth century This study playfully yet rigorously engages with these aspects of literary stylistics and personal and national identity so important in Ackroyd's work Rejecting the postmodern label previously attached to the author Gibson and Wolfreys provide a consideration of all Ackroyd's writing to date from his poetry and critical thought to his novels and biographies offering an indispensable account to anyone interested in Ackroyd and the condition of the novel at the end of the twentieth century

Architectural Involutions Mimi Yiu, 2015-11-15 Winner of the MLA Prize for Independent Scholars

Taking the reader on an inward journey from faades to closets from physical to psychic space Architectural Involutions offers an alternative genealogy of theater by revealing how innovations in architectural writing and practice transformed an early modern sense of interiority The book launches from a matrix of related platforms a term that in early modern usage denoted scaffolds stages and draftsmen's sketches to situate Alberti Shakespeare Jonson and others within a landscape of spatial and visual change As the English house underwent a process of inward folding replacing a logic of central assembly with one of dissemination the subject who negotiated this new scenography became a flashpoint of conflict in both domestic and theatrical arenas Combining theory with archival findings Mimi Yiu reveals an emergent desire to perform subjectivity to unfold an interior face to an admiring public Highly praised for its lucid writing comprehensive supplementary material and engaging tone Architectural Involutions was the winner of the 2016 MLA Prize for Independent Scholars
