French Country Diary 2006:

Fighting for Darfur Rebecca Hamilton, 2024-09-04 Around the world millions of people have added their voices to protest marches and demonstrations because they believe that together they can make a difference When we failed to stop the genocide in Rwanda in 1994 we promised to never let such a thing happen again But nine years later as news began to trickle out of killings in western Sudan an area known as Darfur the international community again faced the problem of how the United Nations and the United States government could respond to mass atrocity Rebecca Hamilton passionately narrates the six year grassroots campaign to draw global attention to the plight of Darfur's people From college students who galvanized entire university campuses in the belief that their outcry could save millions of Darfuris still at risk to celebrities such as Mia Farrow who spurred politicians to act to Steven Spielberg who boycotted the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing Hamilton details how advocacy for Darfur was an exuberant multibillion dollar effort She then does what no one has done to date she takes us into the corridors of power and the camps of Darfur and reveals the impact of ordinary people's fierce determination to uphold the mantra of never again Fighting for Darfur weaves a gripping story that both dramatizes our moral dilemma and shows the promise and perils of citizen engagement in a new era of global compassion Llewellyn's

Burnett, 2016-12-19 Challenging the prevailing notion among cinephiles that the auteur is an isolated genius interested primarily in individualism Colin Burnett positions Robert Bresson as one whose life's work confronts the cultural forces that helped shape it Regarded as one of film history's most elusive figures Bresson 1901-1999 carried himself as an auteur long before cultural magazines like the famed Cahiers du cin ma advanced the term to describe such directors as Jacques Tati Alfred Hitchcock and Jean Luc Godard In this groundbreaking study Burnett combines biography with cultural history to uncover the roots of the auteur in the alternative cultural marketplace of midcentury France The Ashgate Research

Companion to the Politics of Democratization in Europe Tuija Pulkkinen, 2016-03-23 Democratization is a concept often used in academic book titles yet not many of them deal with the initial breakthrough of democratization This research companion presents an alternative view to the widespread assumption that Western democracies should be the normative reference for the study of democratization elsewhere Rather it questions the universal validity of such an assumption by searching the history of European politics and by paying specific attention to the struggles of democratization accomplished outside Western Europe The authors apply a comparative approach to analyzing debates in the primary sources in a number of countries and languages and situate the results into a broader European context Focusing on European democratization from different historical and analytical perspectives they discuss the politics concepts and histories involved in democratization as a complex of changes that has altered the conditions of political action and debate in the continent for the past two centuries

Je T'Aime... Moi Non Plus Lucy Mazdon, Catherine Wheatley, 2010-11-01 A series of limiting definitions have tended to delineate the Franco British cinematic relationship As this collection of essays reveals there is much more to it than simple oppositions between British critical esteem for the films of France and French dismissal of le cin ma British or the success of Ken Loach et al at the French box office and the relative dearth of French movies on British screens In fact there has long been a rich and productive dialogue between these two cultures in which both their clear differences and their shared concerns have played a vital role This book provides an overview of the history of these relations from the early days of sound cinema to the present day The chapters written by leading experts in the history of French British and European cinema provide insights into relations between French and British cinematic cultures at the level of production exhibition and distribution reception representation and personnel The book features a diverse range of studies including the exhibition of French cinema in Britain in the 1930s contemporary extreme French cinema stars such as Annabella David Niven and Jane Birkin and the French Resistance on British screens

Comfort in the Eighteenth-Century Country House Jon Stobart, 2021-09-21 Country houses were grand statements of power and status but they were also places where people lived This book traces the changes in layout the new technologies and the innovations in furniture that made them more convenient and comfortable It argues that these material changes were just one aspect of comfort in the country house feeling comfortable was just as important as being comfortable Achieving this involved the comfort and solace to be found in daily routines religious faith and above all relationships with family and friends Such emotional comforts and the attachment to things and places that embodied and memorialized them made country houses into homes in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading Social Practices of Rule-Making in World Politics Mark Raymond,2019-02-18 This book seeks to explain how political actors know how to change interpret and apply the rules that comprise rule based global order It argues that actors in world politics are simultaneously engaged in an ongoing social practice of rule making interpretation and application Angela Carter and Folk Music Polly Paulusma,2022-12-01 From her unique standpoint as singer songwriter scholar Polly Paulusma examines the influences of Carter s 1960s folk singing unknown until now on her prose writing Recent critical attention has focused on Carter s relationship with folk fairy tales but this book uses a newly available archive containing Carter s folk song notes books LPs and recordings to change the debate proving Carter performed folk songs Placing this archive alongside the album sleeve notes Carter wrote and her diaries and essays it reimagines Carter s prose as a vehicle for the singing voice and reveals a writing style imbued with songfulness informed by her singing praxis Reading Carter s texts through songs she knew and sang this book shows from influences of rhythm melodic shape thematic focus imagery voice and breath how Carter steeped her writing with folk song s features to produce canorography song infused prose Concluding with a discussion of Carter s profound influence on songwriters focusing on the author s interview with Emily Portman this book invites us to reimagine Carter s prose as audial event dissolving boundaries between prose and song between text and reader between word and sound in an ever renewing act of sympathetic resonance

The Snares Rav Grewal-Kök,2025-04-01 A Punjabi American lawyer at a mysterious federal intelligence agency fights to keep his career marriage and morality intact in this gripping post 9 11 drama from a thrilling new voice Here is at long last our immigrant John le Carr Rav Grewal K k is a fearless and visionary writer Xuan Juliana Wang author of Home Remedies Are you happy where you are Toiling in the trenches of the Justice Department In the waning months of George W Bush s presidency Neel Chima a former naval officer and federal prosecutor is recruited to join a new federal intelligence agency one with greater than usual powers and fewer than usual restrictions Neel soon finds himself intimately involved in the surveillance of domestic terrorism suspects and the selection of foreigners for drone assassination men who often look just like his Sikh family members As both his ambitions and his moral qualms mount he is drawn farther and farther away from his wife and two young daughters When he makes a critical mistake at work he is left vulnerable to shadowy figures in the intelligence world who seek to use him in their own still more radical counterterrorism missions If he agrees the world of power will open up even wider to him If he doesn t Is Neel an insider or an outsider The hunter or the hunted An idealist or a mercenary What truths and whose lives is he willing to sacrifice The novel plunges readers into the human turmoil behind the faceless operations the torture secret assassinations and drone strikes of the American security state creating an eye opening meditation on morality violence and the price of a human soul Aesthetic evaluation and film Andrew Klevan,2018-08-08 This book provides an in depth holistic examination of evaluative aesthetics and criticism as they apply to film Organised around the explanation of key concepts it illuminates connections between the work of philosophers theorists and critics and demonstrates the evaluation of form through the close analysis of film sequences The book advocates that aesthetic evaluation should be flexibly informed by a cluster of concerns including medium convention prominence pattern and relation and rather than privileging a particular theory or film style it models a type of approach attention process and discourse Suitable for students of film studies and philosophical aesthetics at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels Aesthetic evaluation and film also provides a framework for academics researching or teaching in the area At the same time the crisp and lucid style will make the book accessible to a wider readership Unburdened by Conscience Anthony W. Neal,2009 In Unburdened by Conscience Anthony W Neal forcefully argues that influential historians have been unable to offer a complete account of ante bellum era American slavery because of their preoccupation with humanizing the slaveholders He charges them with concealing the full horrors of slavery in order to present the slaveholders in a more positive light By skillfully weaving together candid first hand accounts of courageous ex slaves Neal then permits us to see slavery in the United States from their point of view Former slaves talk openly about the break up of their marital unions and families and about matters rarely examined in most American slavery history books Those issues include the slaveholders legally sanctioned acts of violence their practice of slave breeding and their rape of black women Through this work Neal gives a voice to black people who endured American slavery and they present a sobering record of it that is not found in most books on the topic BOOK JACKET Going to War P. Towle,2009-04-30 Going to War overturns conventional views of the role of public opinion the armed forces parliamentarians NGOs and writers in the formation of British debates about impending wars It shows the pressures and the reasons which have led to Britain s involvement in so many conflicts Food, National Identity and Nationalism Atsuko Ichijo,Ronald Ranta,2016-01-26 Exploring a much neglected area the relationship between food and nationalism this book examines a number of case studies at various levels of political analysis to show how useful the food and nationalism axis can be in the study of politics
