Cultural History of Color in the Age of Industry Alexandra Loske, 2022-08-31 A Cultural History of Color in the Age of Industry covers the period 1800 to 1920 when the world embraced color like never before. Inventions such as steam power, lithography, photography, electricity, motor cars, aviation, and cheaper color printing all contributed to a new exuberance about color. Available pigments and colored products made possible by new technologies, industrial manufacturing, commercialization, and urbanization also greatly increased as did illustrated printed literature for the mass market. Color both literally and metaphorically was splashed around and became an expressive tool for artists, designers, and writers. Color shapes an individual's experience of the world and also how society gives particular spaces, objects, and moments meaning. The 6 volume set of the Cultural History of Color examines how color has been created, traded, used, and interpreted over the last 5000 years. The themes covered in each volume are color philosophy and science, color technology and trade, power and identity, religion and ritual, body and clothing, language and psychology, literature and the performing arts, art, architecture, and interiors, and artefacts. Alexandra Loske is Curator at the Royal Pavilion and Museums, Brighton, UK. Volume 5 in the Cultural History of Color set. General Editors: Carole P. Biggam and Kirsten Wolf.

Historical Truth and Lies About the Past Alan B. Spitzer, 2000-11-09 Historians have long struggled with the questions of historical relativism objectivity and standards of proof and evidence Intellectual historian Alan Spitzer focuses on the contradiction between theory and practice by presenting case studies of four politically charged debates about the past the response to the report of the commission chaired by John Dewey that evaluated the accusations made against Leon Trotsky in the Moscow Purge Trials of 1937 the Dreyfus Affair in turn of the century France the allegations about the extent and meaning of literary critic Paul de Man s complicity with the German occupation forces in wartime Belgium and Ronald Reagan s justification for his 1987 visit to a German cemetery where Nazi SS officers are buried Spitzer s argument centers on the ways in which the authority of objective criteria for historical judgment are introduced in politicized disputes about the past regardless of the theoretical qualification or repudiation of such standards The higher the political stakes the more likely the antagonists are to appeal to generally warranted standards of relevant evidence and rational inference

Spitzer s commentary speaks to issues that transcend the specific content of the four cases he discusses Food Cultures of France Maryann Tebben,2021-03-29 As a comprehensive overview of French food from fine dining to street food and from Roman Gaul to current trends this book offers anyone with an interest in French cuisine a readable guide to the country and its customs In France food is integral to the culture From the Revolutionary cry for good bread at a fair price to the current embrace of American bagels and French tacos this book tells the full story of French food Food Cultures of France Recipes Customs and Issues explores the highs and lows of French cuisine with examples taken from every historical era and all corners of France Readers can discover cr pes from Brittany fish dumplings from Lyon the gastronomic heights of Parisian restaurant cuisine glimpses of the cuisines of France s overseas territories in Africa and the Caribbean and the impact of immigrant communities on the future of French food Learn how the geography of France shaped the diet of its people and which dishes have withstood the test of time Whether the reader knows all about French cuisine or has never tasted a croissant this book will offer new insights and delicious details about French food in all its forms Children's Books in

This book is the first of its kind to significantly concentrate on trans nation transnationalism and its dialogue with various nationalisms in South Asia Taking the absence of discussion on transnationalism in South Asia as a conspicuous lacuna as well as a point of intervention this book pushes the boundaries of scholarship further by organizing a dialogue between the nation state and many nationalisms and the emergent method of transnationalism It opens itself up for many cross border movements formulating the trans South Asian discursive exchange necessitated by contemporary theoretical upheavals It looks at such exchanges through the prisms of literature and cinema and traces the many modes of engagement that exist between some of the globally dominant literary and cinematic forms trying to locate these engagements and negotiations across three geopolitical formations and locations of culture namely region nation and trans nation
