The Roman Noir in Post-war French Culture Claire Gorrara, 2003 The Roman Noir in Post War French Culture offers a lively introduction to the post war French roman noir from a cultural studies perspective A populist and widely disseminated genre the French roman noir has suffered from a reputation as a minor genre with its roots in American popular culture In this study Claire Gorrara challenges such preconceptions and examines how selected writers have appropriated the roman noir as a critical response to formative concerns and debates in post war French society Starting with the first truly French roman noir L o Malet's 120 rue de la gare 1943 and concluding with Maud Tabachnik's feminist thriller Un t pourri 1994 Gorrara analyses both texts and film in relation to their specific historical and cultural context From the heritage of the Second World War and France's wars of decolonisation to the rise of consumer culture and questions of gender and sexual equality the roman noir operates in dialogue with its times mediating social change and transformation with stories of crime transgression and marginality All the novelists studied were published initially in popular collections such as the S rie noire but they have been chosen for the innovation of their work and the exciting ways in which they resist tired conventions and offer new ways of representing social reality One of the first English language studies of this popular genre The Roman Noir in Post War French Culture offers much more than close readings of these fascinating texts it demonstrates the important contribution of the roman noir to the cultural histories of post war France

French Fiction into the Twenty-First Century Simon Kemp, 2010-07-15 Explores the state of French fiction through an examination of the work of five major French writers Annie Ernaux Pascal Quignard Marie Darrieussecq Jean Echenoz and Patrick Modiano This book deals with some of the writers on British and American university French courses

The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory H. Meretoja, 2014-10-06 The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory explores the philosophical and historical underpinnings of the postwar crisis and return of storytelling and shows their relevance for the ongoing debate on the significance of narrative for human existence

Fin de Millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank, 2009-10-08 In this closely analytical study Cruickshank reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet in the context of the turn of the millennium in France which coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market

Defective Inspectors: Crime-fiction Pastiche in Late Twentieth-century French Literature Simon Kemp, 2017-07-05 Crime fiction is a popular target for literary pastiche in France From the nouveau roman and the Oulipo group to the current avant garde writers have seized on the genre to exploit it for their own ends toying with its traditional plots and characters and exploring its preoccupations with perception reason and truth In the first full length study of the phenomenon Simon Kemp s investigation centres on four major writers of the twentieth century Alain Robbe Grillet b 1922 Michel Butor b 1926 Georges Perec 193682 and Jean Echenoz b 1947 Out of their varied encounters with the genre from deconstruction of the classic detective story to homage to the roman noir Kemp elucidates the complex relationship between the pasticheur and his target which demands an entirely new assessment of pastiche as a literary form

French Literature Alison Finch,2013-04-23 This book is the first to offer a cultural history of French literature from its very beginnings analysing the relationship between French literature and France s evolving power structures from the Middle Ages through to the present day It shows the political connections between the elite literature of France and other aspects of its culture from racism misogyny tolerance and liberal reform to song street performance advertising and cinema The nation s literature contributed to these and was shaped by them The book highlights the continuities and the unique fault lines in the society that over a millennium has produced French culture It looks at France s early and continuing struggle for a national identity through both its language and its literature and it shows that this struggle co exists with openness to other cultures and a bawdy or subtle rebelliousness against the Church and other forms of authority En route it takes in cuisine gardens and the French tradition in mathematics The survey provides an accessible approach to key issues in the history of French culture as well as a wide context for specialists

A Short History of French Literature Sarah Kay,Terence Cave,Malcolm Bowie,2003 This book traces the history of French literature from its beginnings to the present Within its remarkably brief compass it offers a wide ranging personal and detailed though selective account of major writers and movements Developments in French literature are presented in an innovative way not as an even sequence of literary events but as a series of stories told at varying pace and with different kinds of focus Readers can thus take in the broad sweep of historical change grasp the main characteristics of major periods or enjoy a close appraisal of individual works and their contexts The book is written in an accessible and non technical style that will make it attractive both to students of French and to non specialist readers

The Cambridge Introduction to French Literature Brian Nelson,2015-06-05 In this highly accessible introduction Brian Nelson provides an overview of French literature its themes and forms traditions and transformations from the Middle Ages to the present Major writers including Francophone authors writing from areas other than France are discussed chronologically in the context of their times to provide a sense of the development of the French literary tradition and the strengths of some of the most influential writers within it Nelson offers close readings of exemplary passages from key works presented in English translation and with the original French The exploration of the work of important writers including Villon Racine Moli re Voltaire Balzac Flaubert Zola Proust Sartre and Beckett highlights the richness and diversity of French literature

Fiction Now Warren

F. Motte, 2008 Fiction Now reports on the current states of the novel in France taking a series of soundings within the compass of innovative French writing since 2001. Chapters focus closely upon Jean Echenoz, Marie Redonnet, Christian Gailly, Lydie Salvayre, Gérard Gavarry, Hélène Lenoir, Patrick Lapeyre and Christine Montalbetti. Each of the authors invoked exemplified in his or her work a different set of strategies, concerns and approaches; one of them transposes the Book of Judith to the Parisian suburbs, another imagines the most taciturn of cowboys in the American West, still another goes well beyond death into the afterlife of a concert pianist. Despite their diversity of theme and technique, these writers share a will to make French fiction new and demonstrate compellingly that the novel as it is practiced in France today is an extremely vigorous, deeply enthralling and richly plural cultural form.

The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture

Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11. France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation. In the course of the century, her role changed dramatically: in the first fifty years, two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power, whilst the immediate post-war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies. Yet at the same time, in the second half of the century, France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation. Throughout the century and into the new millennium, France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation, and its culture, together with that of the Francophone world, reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period. This 2003 Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history, language, literature, thought, theatre, architecture, visual culture, film and music, and discusses the contributions of popular culture, Francophone culture, minorities and women.

The Cambridge History of French Literature

William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24. The most comprehensive history of literature written in French ever produced in English.

The

Travelling Concepts of Narrative. Mari Hataavara, Lars-Christer Hydén, Matti Hyvärinen, 2013-06-15. Narrative is a pioneer concept in our transdisciplinary age. For decades it has been one of the most successful catchwords in literature, history, cultural studies, philosophy and health studies. While the expansion of narrative studies has led to significant advances across a number of fields, the travels for the concept itself have been a somewhat more complex. Has the concept of narrative passed intact from literature to sociology, from structuralism to therapeutic practice, or to the study of everyday storytelling? In this volume, philosophers, psychologists, literary theorists, sociolinguists and sociologists use methodologically challenging test cases to scrutinize the types, transformations and trajectories of the concept and theory of narrative. The book powerfully argues that narrative concepts are profoundly relevant in the understanding of life experience and literary texts. Nonetheless, it emphasizes the vast contextual differences and contradictions in the use of the concept.

Engagement in 21st Century

French and Francophone Culture. Helena Chadderton, Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-08. In the face of the contested legacy of engagement in the Francophone context, this interdisciplinary collection demonstrates that French and Francophone writers, artists, intellectuals and film makers are using their work to confront unforeseen and unprecedented challenges, campaigns, and causes in a politically uncertain post 9 11 world Composed of eleven essays and a contextualising introduction this volume is interdisciplinary in its treatment of engagement in a variety of forms as it reassesses the relationship between different types of cultural production and society as it is played out in the twenty first century With a focus on both the development of different cultural forms Part 1 and on the particular crises that have attracted the attention of cultural practitioners Part 2 this volume maps and analyses some of the ways in which cultural texts of all kinds are being used to respond to engage with and challenge crises in the contemporary Francophone world A Critical Companion to Jorge Semprún O. Ferrán,G. Herrmann,2014-09-17 Presenting the first English language collection of essays on Jorge Semprún this volume explores the life and work of the Spanish Holocaust survivor author and political activist Essays explore his cultural production in all its manifestations including the role of testimony and fiction in representations of the Holocaust Popular Ghosts Maria del Pilar Blanco,Esther Peeren,2010-04-01 Located in the ambivalent realm between life and death ghosts have always inspired cultural fascination as well as theoretical consideration Culture and Customs of France W. Scott Haine Ph.D.,2006-10-30 The French are of perennial interest for among other things their style their cuisine and wine and their cultural output Culture and Customs of France is a thoroughly jam packed narrative through the glories that France continues to offer the world The volume is a boon for preparing country reports a must read for travelers and perfect for culture studies Chapters on the land people and history religion social customs gender family and marriage cinema and media literature food and fashion architecture and art and performing arts are current and pleasurable to read Women Genre and Circumstance Diana Holmes,2017-12-02 Women Genre and Circumstance brings together a series of challenging essays which explore the complex intersections of feminism narrative and genre Drawing on a wide range of 19th and 20th century texts novels short stories and films they interrogate the relationship between womens situation and writing practice and representations of history memory love old age they pursue questions of narrative form and its meanings particularly the distinctive features of the short story The politics of feminist criticism and careful attention to the operations of narrative combine in a sustained exploration of the aesthetics and ethics of fictional practices and their role in the negotiation of gender and circumstance The essays were written as tributes to the leading feminist scholar Elizabeth Fallaize The contributors are Margaret Atack Colin Davis Suzanne Dow Alison Finch Diana Holmes Diana Knight Michele Le Doeuff Toril Moi Gill Rye Judith Still and Ursula Tidd In Proximity Melvyn New,Robert Bernasconi,Richard A. Cohen,2001 In a world in which everything is reduced to the play of signs detached from what is signified Levinas asks a deceptively simple question Whence then comes the urge to question injustice By seeing the demand for justice for the other the homeless the destitute as a return to morality Levinas escapes the suspect finality of any ideology Levinas s question is one starting point for In Proximity a collection of seventeen essays by scholars in eighteenth century literature philosophy history and religion and their readings of Spinoza Kant Goethe Wordsworth Behn Defoe Fielding Sterne Diderot Laclos and Mendelssohn The title In

Proximity alone speaks volumes about Levinas's philosophy and its relevance today. If it is true that we are through technology moving closer and closer to one another, writes editor Melvyn New, then the importance of proximity and our response to it cannot be overstated. For the contributors to this volume, the question of whether we may ethically appropriate the object of study for our own causes has become vital. Levinas asks us to see ourselves, our own reading, in proximity to what is not ourselves, not our understanding of the world. The dialogue created among the essays themselves establishes an enormous diversity of texts and ideologies to which Levinas can contribute something of significant value. At a time when the secondary literature on Levinas and his work is expanding explosively, the cross-disciplinary voices gathered together in In Proximity come at precisely the right time.
