French Film:

French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, Rémi Fournier-Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present

French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era Surrealist influences the Nazi Occupation the glories of the New Wave the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present Rémi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films Building upon his 2004 best selling edition the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema

French Cinema Phil Powrie, Keith Reader, 2002 The study of French cinema has greatly expanded in recent years as it is increasingly taught alongside literature in modern language departments This book written by two leading scholars of French film offers students an introduction to the history and theory of French cinema

French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bête Humaine and Carne s Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema

French Film in Britain Lucy Mazdon, Catherine Wheatley, 2013-03-01 In a market long dominated by Hollywood French films are consistently the most widely distributed non English language works French cinema however appears to undergo a transformation as it reaches Britain becoming something quite different to that experienced by audiences at home Drawing on extensive archival research the authors examine in detail the discourses debates and decisions which have determined the place accorded to French cinema in British film culture In so doing they provide a fascinating account of this particular instance of transnational cinematic traffic while simultaneously shedding new light on British film history From the early days of the Film Society via the advent of the X certificate to the new possibilities of video and DVD this book reveals the complex and detailed history of the distribution exhibition marketing and reception of French cinema in Britain

The French Film Musical Phil Powrie, Marie Cadalanu, 2020-09-17 Like many national cinemas the French cinema has a rich tradition of film musicals beginning with the advent of sound to the present This is the first book to chart the development of the French film musical The French film musical is remarkable for its breadth and variety since the 1930s although it flirts with the Hollywood musical in the 1930s and again in the 1950s it has very distinctive forms rooted in the traditions of French chanson Defining it broadly as films attracting audiences principally because of musical performances often by well known singers Phil Powrie and Marie Cadalanu show how the genre absorbs two very different traditions with the advent of sound European operetta and French chanson inflected by American jazz 1930 1950 As the genre matures operetta develops into big budget spectacles with popular tenors and revue films also showcase major singers in this period 1940 1960 Both sub genres collapse with the advent of rock n roll leading to a period of experimentation during the New Wave 1960 1990 The contemporary period since 1995 renews the genre returning nostalgically both to the genre s origins in the 1930s and to the musicals of Jacques Demy but also hybridising with other genres such as the biopic and the documentary

Unraveling French Cinema T. Jefferson Kline, 2011-09-22 Unraveling French Cinema provides a much needed introduction to the complexities of French film for students cineastes and the movie loving public Looks at the differences between French and American national cinema Explores how French directors shape their films around two potentially divergent goals the narration of a story and an elaboration of some theory about film itself Demystifies the difficulty of French cinema allowing the American movie goer to enjoy films that are too often perplexing at a first viewing Offers extended analyses of classic New Wave and contemporary French films including L'Atalante Adele H The Rules of the Game and Cache

Cultural Diversity in the French Film Industry Sarah Walkley, 2018-09-22 This is the first book to examine whether France s ongoing defence of the cultural exception as a means to maintain cultural policies and defend cultural diversity is justifiable in the digital age It questions whether the arrival of new players such as Apple and Netflix makes defence impossible and whether an explosion in the number of films available makes policies for cultural promotion increasingly unnecessary The book takes a critical look at French film policy to establish whether it promotes cultural diversity across cinema and video on demand and the implications for ongoing defence of the cultural exception Sarah Walkley ultimately makes the case for a more disciplined approach to discussion of the cultural exception and cultural diversity in France supporting ideological arguments about competition freedom of expression consumer choice and national identity with concrete evidence of the success of French policies in countering US film market dominance

French Film Theory and Criticism, Volume 1 Richard Abel, 2020-12-08 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation

Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English French Film Theory and Criticism, Volume 2 Richard Abel, 2021-05-11 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English French Cinema in the 1980s Phil Powrie, 1997 French film in the 1980s might have lacked the invention of the New Wave but gritty police thrillers and nostalgic costume dramas such as Jean de Florette and Manon des Sources brought French cinema to a wider audience than ever before This landmark study is not merely a history of French film in the 1980s but offers a set of critical essays on the crisis of masculinity in contemporary French culture and its interrelationship with nostalgia After a brief overview both of the crisis in the French film industry during the 1980s and of the socio political crisis of masculinity in the wake of 1970s feminism the book is divided into three sections the retro nostalgic film the Polar or police thriller and the comic film Films studied in detail include Diva Subway Coup de foudre Vivement dimanche La Vie est un long fleuve tranquille and Tenue de soir e while the volume covers actors from Gerard Depardieu Daniel Auteuil and Yves Montand to Isabelle Adjani Isabelle Huppert and Emmanuelle B art The Classic French Cinema, 1930-1960 C. G. Crisp, 1993 Colin Crisp re evaluates the stylistic evolution of the classic French cinema and represents the New Wave film makers as its natural heirs rather than the mould breakers they perceived themselves to be Genre, Myth, and Convention in the French Cinema, 1929-1939 C. G. Crisp, 2002 This work identifies patterns in the fields of character narrative and setting in the French cinema of the early sound period

Contemporary French Cinema Guy Austin, 1996-11-15 Examines popular French film of the last 25 years Charts recent developments in all genres since the New Wave including the heritage film the thriller the war film cinema du look Other topics include representations of sexuality the work of women film makers Includes a filmography Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period

Alphaville Chris Darke,2005-10-04 First book in any language to focus on Alphaville published on the 40th anniversary of its release Uses new interviews with Godard's main collaborators on the film to reveal new aspects Explores its multiple influences on Blade Runner for example or Code 46 2005 is the fortieth anniversary of Alphaville's release and there's also a major reassessment of Godard under way So this is an ideal moment to publish this the first ever full appraisal of Godard's highly influential classic of sci fi noir Chris Darke writes about how working without sets special effects or even a script Godard made a dystopian vision of a technocratic future city He explores the film's unique combination of genres and styles its remarkable creation the secret agent Lemmy Caution and uses his new interviews with the director's collaborators to chronicle the film's production He also relates Alphaville to Godard's later work setting it in the context of his wider career and of its influence on other filmmakers and artists

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen

Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinématographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinématographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike
