French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2000 This excellent book analyzes key French films in their cultural context and explores their relation to literary texts and popular ideas of national history French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bête Humaine and Carne's Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema Louis Malle (French Film Directors). Hugo Frey, 2004-11-27 This critical analysis of the work of Louis Malle director of Au Revoir les Enfants and My Dinner with André focuses on the most challenging aspects of his oeuvre such as his portrayals of Nazi occupied France The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinematographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinematographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike Japanese Cinema Alastair Phillips, Julian Stringer, 2007-12-18 From the Seven Samurai and Godzilla to the Ring this is an outstanding collection of twenty four articles on key films of Japanese cinema from the silent era to the present day that presents a full introduction to Japanese cinema history culture and society The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda

Colleen Kennedy-Karpat, Feride Çiçekoglu, 2022-03-24 Drawing especially on the encounters and relationships that defined her exceptional career The Sustainable Legacy of Agnès Varda outlines a sustainable legacy for the celebrated director and visual artist Over nine chapters it unpacks how creation connection and environment form the core of Varda's artistry which centers foremost on relationships with her family with other artists even with passersby she would meet in her travels around the world Also celebrating her feminist legacy the chapters cover a wide range from the classic Cléo from 5 to 7 1962 to documentaries The Beaches of Agnès 2008 and Faces Places 2017 as well as selected art installations The book's final section is dedicated to teaching Varda's work here ten scholars from around the world consider how Varda's art and feminist pedagogies offer unique ways to bring crucial concepts into the classroom By seeking a sustainable praxis to discuss and teach Varda's work and by making pedagogical concerns an explicit part of this approach this book argues that Varda's insights about the nature of creative work will inspire new generations of viewers and audiences Simone Signoret Susan Hayward, 2004-06-22 In what may be the most in depth study yet published of a film star's body of work Susan Hayward charts the career of Simone Signoret one of the great French actresses of the 20th Century Signoret who won an Oscar in 1960 for her performance in Room at the Top was a key figure in French cinema for 40 years But it is not so much her longevity that impresses as it is the quality of work she produced as her career progressed She started out as a stunningly beautiful woman winning major international awards five times for her roles and yet was only moderately in demand during those years From the 1960s onwards when her looks began to decline significantly Signoret was in greater demand and produced most of her output She insisted on playing roles consonant with her real age and often chose to play roles that portrayed her as even more ugly than she had become Simone Signoret The Star as Cultural Sign is a remarkable achievement a labor of love from one of the world's leading scholars of French cinema French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era Surrealist influences the Nazi Occupation the glories of the New Wave the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present Rémi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films Building upon his 2004 best selling edition the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema French National Cinema Susan Hayward, 2006-09-07 This examination of France's national cinema takes its primary artefact the feature film and discusses both popular cinema and the avant garde cinema that contests it Susan Hayward argues that writing on French national cinema has tended to focus on either great film makers or on specific movements addressing moments of exception rather than the global picture Her work offers a thorough and much needed historical textualisation of those moments and relocates them in their wider political and cultural context Beginning with an ecohistory of the French film industry she then traces the various movements in French cinema and the directors associated with them including the avant garde Poetic Realist New Wave and today's postmodern cinema Her analysis includes amongst other considerations the social and political concerns these cinemas reflect New Approaches to Crime in French Literature, Culture and Film Louise Hardwick, 2009

The notion of crime crosses generic disciplinary and cultural frontiers In an era of identity fraud eco crime and global terrorism this collection moves towards a reconsideration of crime in the French and Francophone literary and cultural imagination How have our conceptions of criminal behaviour developed How has the French genre of crime fiction encompassing but not limited to the polar the roman policier and film noir evolved and reinvented itself The volume adopts a number of theoretical approaches which range from sociological and criminological discourse to literary criticism and postcolonial theory by Chamoiseau Durkheim Deleuze Foucault Glissant Krafft Ebing and Todorov In a wide ranging series of innovative and challenging readings it examines ideas which include the evolving concept of crime in literature from Voltaire and censorship through to scientific constructions of criminality in the nineteenth century and in the postcolonial era both within and outside metropolitan France The volume also explores textual crimes in contemporary Martinican women's writing crime as a genre in Andr   H  na Serge Arcout and Jean Meckert Sbastien Japrisot and Dominique Manotti and visual responses to crime by artist Jacques Monory and filmmaker Didier Bivel Contemporary French cinema Guy

Marzia Caporale, Claire Mouflard, Habib Zanzana, 2024-07-23 This edited volume investigates the reconfiguration of gender in French banlieue cinema interrogating whether the films produced over the last two decades provide new and viable models of resistance to dominant modes of power Contributors take a critical approach which identifies gender as a marker of both body and identity politics to highlight the need to overcome a binary approach to banlieue aesthetics which limits inquiry into the basis of conflict Given that a feminization and to some extent queering of the once exclusively masculine space is underway contributors ultimately conclude that the banlieue and its on screen representations cannot be properly understood unless intersectionality as a systematic approach is applied as an interpretive lens Scholars of film gender studies and sociology will find this book particularly useful The French Screen Goddess Jonathan
