French Impressionism Jens Peter Munk, Kirsten Olesen, Ny Carlsberg glyptotek, 1993 Cézanne to Van Gogh Anne Distel, Susan Alyson Stein, Grand Palais (Paris, France), Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, 1999 The fascinating story of Dr Paul Gachet's collection of works of art by artists such as Cézanne Van Gogh and Monet French Impressionism Jens Peter Munk, 1993 Impressionism John I. Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush. Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet Cézanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh. Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods. The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history. In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards. This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles. Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art. Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world. This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history's most revered painters. Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1960 Catalogue Post-impressionism Jens Peter Munk, Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek, Kirsten Olesen, 1993 Impressionist Gardens Clare A. P. Willsdon, 2010 Post Impressionism The Annenberg Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Colin B. Bailey, 2009 The Walter and Leonore Annenberg Collection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist paintings watercolors and drawings constitutes one of the most remarkable groupings of avant garde works of art from the mid 19th to the early 20th century ever given to The Metropolitan Museum of Art. A revised and expanded edition of the 1989 publication Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post Impressionism The Annenberg Collection this volume presents more than fifty masterworks by such luminaries as Manet Degas Morisot Renoir Monet Cézanne Gauguin Van Gogh Picasso and Matisse accompanied by elucidating texts and a wealth of comparative illustrations. From publisher Catalogue of the Paintings in the J. Paul Getty Museum Burton B. Fredericksen, 1972-01-01 The Poster Ruth E. Iskin, 2014-10-07 The Poster Art Advertising Design and Collecting 1860s 1900s is a cultural history that situates the poster at the crossroads of art design advertising and collecting. Though international in scope the book focuses especially on France and England. Ruth E. Iskin argues that the avant garde poster and the original art print played an important role in the development of a modernist language of art in the 1890s as well as in the adaptation of art to an era of mass media. She moreover contends that this new form of visual communication fundamentally redefined relations between word and image. Poster designers embedded words within the graphic rather than

using images to illustrate a text Posters had to function as effective advertising in the hectic environment of the urban street Even though initially commissioned as advertisements they were soon coveted by collectors Iskin introduces readers to the late nineteenth century iconophile a new type of collector curator archivist who discovered in poster collecting an ephemeral archaeology of modernity Bridging the separation between the fields of art design advertising and collecting Iskin s insightful study proposes that the poster played a constitutive role in the modern culture of spectacle This stunningly illustrated book will appeal to art historians and students of visual culture as well as social and cultural history media design and advertising
