Seventeenth-Century Music Tim Carter, John Butt, 2005-12-22 The Cambridge History of Seventeenth Century Music seeks to provide the most up to date knowledge on seventeenth century music together with a vital questioning of the way in which such a history can be told or put together for our present purposes Written by a distinguished team of experts in the field the chapters not only address traditional areas of knowledge such as opera and church music but also look at the way this extremely diverse and dynamic musical world has been categorised in the past and how its products are viewed from various cultural points of view While this history does not depart entirely from the traditional study of musical works and their composers there is a strong emphasis on the institutions cultures and politics of the age together with an interrogation of the ways in which music related to contemporary arts sciences and beliefs Catalogue Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, 1890

Book-prices Current , 1901 French Visual Culture and the Making of Medieval Theater Laura Weigert, 2015-12-30 This book revives what was unique strange and exciting about the variety of performances that took place in the realms of the French kings and Burgundian dukes Laura Weigert brings together a wealth of visual artifacts and practices to explore this tradition of late medieval performance located not in theaters but in churches courts and city streets and squares By stressing the theatricality rather than the realism of fifteenth century visual culture and the spectacular rather than the devotional nature of its effects she offers a new way of thinking about late medieval representation and spectatorship She shows how images that ostensibly document medieval performance instead revise its characteristic features to conform to a playgoing experience that was associated with classical antiquity This retrospective vision of the late medieval performance tradition contributed to its demise in sixteenth century France and promoted assumptions about medieval theater that continue to inform the contemporary disciplines of art and theater history The Monthly Literary Advertiser , 1815 The American Bookseller , 1889 Bent's Literary Advertiser, Register of Books, Engravings, &c. ... , 1836 The London catalogue of books ... corrected to September MDCCXCIX [compiled by W.
