French Novelists, Manners and Ideas Frederick Charles Green, 1964 A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C, The Booklist, 1929 Seductive Forms Ros Ballaster, 1992-07-02 Historicism and feminist accounts of the rise of the novel have neglected the phenomenon of the professional woman writer in England prior to the advent of the sentimental novel in the 1740s Seductive Forms explores the means by which the three leading Tory women novelists of the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries challenged and reworked both contemporary gender ideologies and generic convention The seduction plot provided Aphra Behn Delarivier Manley and Eliza Haywood with a vehicle for dramatizing their own appropriation of the masculine power of fiction making Seduction is employed in these fictions as a metaphor for both novelistic production the seduction of the reader by the writer and party political machination the seduction of the public by the politician This challenging and lively book also explores the debts early prose fiction owed to French seventeenth century models of fiction writing and argues that Behn Manley and Haywood succeed in producing a distinctively English and female form for the amatory novel The Maxims in the Novels of Duclos B.G. Silverblatt, 2012-12-06 The Eighteenth-century French Novel Vivienne Mylne, 1970 French Novelists, Manners and Ideas, from the Renaissance to the Revolution Frederick Charles Green, 1928 The Contemporary Review, 1929

Sociology of the Contemporary Arpad Szakolczai,2016-04-14 This book substantiates two claims First the modern world was not simply produced by objective factors rooted in geographical discoveries and scientific inventions to be traced to economic technological or political factors but is the outcome of social cultural and spiritual processes Among such factors beyond the Protestant ethic Max Weber the rise of the absolutist state and its disciplinary network Michel Foucault or court society Norbert Elias a prime role is played by theatre The modern reality is deeply theatricalized Second a special access for studying this theatricalized world is offered by novels The best classical novels not simply can be interpreted as describing a world like the theatre but they capture and present a world that has become thoroughly transformed into a global theatre The theatre effectively transformed the world and classical novels effectively analyze this theatricalized reality much better than the main instruments supposedly destined to study reality philosophy and sociology Thus instead of using the technique of sociology to analyze novels the book will treat novels as a royal road to analyze a theatricalized reality in order to find our way back to a genuine and meaningful life Virtue, Happiness and Duclos' Histoire de Madame de Luz L.R.
 Free,2013-04-17 Charles Pinot Duclos biography dramatizes the evolution from the rigid separation of the aristocratic and plebeian classes in the seventeenth century to the gradual social democratization in the eighteenth This son of a Brittany merchant from the little village of Dinan rose to social prominence in the aristocratic salon circles of Paris and to literary pre eminence as attest contemporary memoirs the success of his novels histories and moral writings as well as his official positions a member of two academies Royal Historiographer Perpetual Secretary of the French Academy a feat nearly impossible in the stratified society of seventeenth century France Moreover not only was Duclos the exceptional conversationalist a persona grata among the Parisian social elite but he was also aligned with the progressive philosophical forces a friend or ally of the foremost mid century men of letters Indeed as Karl Toth has so ably demonstrated Duclos perhaps more than any other important writer 1 of his day can be considered the true representative of his Age 1 Karl Toth Woman and Rococo in France London 1931 p 29 For amplified documentation on the character and life of Duclos consult the following sources Louis Simon Auger Notice sur Duclos Oeuvres completes de Duclos Paris 1806 Emile Henriot Un honnête homme au XVIIIe siècle Duclos La Nouvelle Revue oct nov 1910 XVII pp 553 64 nov dec 1910 XVIII pp 124 33 Leo Le Bourgo Un homme de lettres au XVIIIe siècle Duclos sa vie et ses ouvrages Bordeaux 1902 Books and Notes Los Angeles County Public Library, 1926 The Encyclopedia Britannica, 1922 Bad Books Amy S. Wyngaard, 2013 Bad Books reconstructs how the eighteenth century French author Nicolas Edme R tif de la Bretonne and his writings were at the forefront of the development of modern conceptions of sexuality and pornography Although certain details are well known for example that R tif s 1769 treatise on prostitution Le Pornographe is the work from which the term pornography is derived or that he was an avid foot and shoe fetishist much of this story has been obscured and even forgotten including how the author actively worked to define the category of obscenity and the modern pornographic genre and how he coined the psycho sexual term fetish and played a central role in the formation of theories of sexual fetishism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Thus this book is also about literary history and how it is written it explores how R tif perceived as a bad author in both senses of the term and his contributions were glossed over or condemned such that the originality of his texts has still not been fully established Placing R tif s novels and short stories in dialogue with his autobiographical writings as well as with contemporary and modern critical commentaries the various chapters of the book examine the author s repeated testing of the limits of censorship to define and redefine the boundaries of obscenity his advancement of the modern form and definition of pornography through a focus on intimacy and female pleasure his detailed narrative explorations of foot and shoe fetishisms that were later appropriated by the sexologists and his development of theories of eugenics and reproduction in his utopian science fiction The history of R tif s texts and their reception reveals an evolution in the criteria of what is considered to be good or worthy literature a category once defined purely on moral grounds that is increasingly seen in cultural terms Bad Books corroborates the recent resurgence of interest in the author by showing the import of his texts which not only designate a number of firsts in the histories of sexuality and pornography but which also illuminate some of the defining moments in the history of French literary studies Literature, 1898 The Idea of Civilization and the Making of the Global Order Linklater, Andrew, 2020-11-18 The idea of civilization recurs frequently in reflections on international politics However International Relations academic writings on civilization have failed to acknowledge the major 20th century analysis that examined the processes through which Europeans came to regard themselves as uniquely civilized Norbert Elias's On the Process of Civilization This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the significance of Elias's reflections on civilization for International Relations It explains the working principles of an Eliasian or process sociological approach to civilization and the global order and demonstrates how the interdependencies between state formation colonialism and an emergent international society shaped the European civilizing process
