French Tragedy Scenes Of Civil War Summer 1944:

A French Tragedy Tzvetan Todorov, 1996 An internationally renowned scholar examines an episode in the chaotic retributive strife that engulfed France during the liberation at the end of World War II Rethinking Antifascism Hugo García, Mercedes Yusta, Xavier Tabet, Cristina Clímaco, 2016-06-01 Bringing together leading scholars from a range of nations Rethinking Antifascism provides a fascinating exploration of one of the most vibrant sub disciplines within recent historiography Through case studies that exemplify the field's breadth and sophistication it examines antifascism in two distinct realms after surveying the movement's remarkable diversity across nations and political cultures up to 1945 the volume assesses its postwar political and ideological salience from its incorporation into Soviet state doctrine to its radical questioning by historians and politicians Avoiding both heroic narratives and reflexive revisionism these contributions offer nuanced perspectives on a movement that helped to shape the postwar world Europe's Postwar Periods - 1989, 1945, 1918 Martin Conway, Pieter Lagrou, Henry Rousso, 2018-12-13 This book brings together world renowned scholars from all over Europe to analyse how successive Europes have been constructed in the wake of the key conflicts of the period the Cold War and the two World Wars By regressively tracing Europe's path back to these pivotal moments as part of a unique methodology Europe's Postwar Periods 1989 1945 1918 reveals the defining characteristics of these postwar periods and integrates the changes that followed 1989 into a more substantial historical perspective The author team address the crucial themes in recent European history on a chapter by chapter basis that gives comprehensive coverage to the whole of the European region for topics such as borders states empires democracy justice markets and futures The volume highlights the fact that Europe was made less by wars than is commonly thought and more by the nature of the settlements international national political economic and social that followed the two World Wars and the Cold War It is an important innovative text for all students and scholars of 20th century European history Verdict on Vichy Michael Curtis, 2015-01-27 This masterful book is the first comprehensive reappraisal of the Vichy France regime for over 20 years France was occupied by Nazi Germany between 1940 and 1944 and the exact nature of France's role in the Vichy years is only now beginning to come to light One of the main reasons that the Vichy history is difficult to tell is that some of France's most prominent politicians including President Mitterrand have been implicated in the regime This has meant that public access to key documents has been denied and it is only now that an objective analysis is possible The fate of France as an occupied country could easily have been shared by Britain and it is this background element which enhances our fascination with Vichy France How would we have acted under similar circumstances The divisions and repercussions of the Vichy years still resonate in France today and whether you view the regime as a fascist dictatorship an authoritarian offshoot of the Third Reich or an embodiment of heightened French nationalism Curtis's rounded incisive book will be seen as the standard work on its subject for many years Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II the Third Reich Hitler and his henchmen the JFK assassination conspiracies the American Civil War the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Bakhtin Between East and West Karine Zbinden, 2017-12-02 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory Bakhtin between East and West Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory

Les Parisiennes Anne Sebba, 2016-10-18 The New York Times bestselling author explores WWII Paris history and tells the stories of how women survived or didn't during the Nazi occupation Paris in the 1940s was a place of fear power aggression courage deprivation and secrets During the occupation the swastika flew from the Eiffel Tower and danger lurked on every corner While Parisian men were either fighting at the front or captured and forced to work in German factories the women of Paris were left behind where they would come face to face with the German conquerors on a daily basis as waitresses shop assistants or wives and mothers increasingly desperate to find food to feed their families as hunger became part of everyday life When the Nazis and the puppet Vichy regime began rounding up Jews to ship east to concentration camps the full horror of the war was brought home and the choice between collaboration and resistance became unavoidable Sebba focuses on the role of women many of whom faced life and death decisions every day After the war ended there would be a fierce settling of accounts between those who made peace with or worse helped the occupiers and those who fought the Nazis in any way they could Anne Sebba has the nearly miraculous gift of combining the vivid intimacy of the lives of women during The Occupation with the history of the time This is a remarkable book Edmund de Waal New York Times bestselling author Wonderfully researched puts women's stories and the complications of their lives under Occupation centre stage Kate Mosse New York Times bestselling author

Paramilitarism and European Society in the 1940s Gareth Pritchard, 2025-01-29 This book explores the social roots character and consequences of paramilitary violence in Europe in the 1940s Paramilitarism had an impact on the lives of millions of Europeans yet knowledge about this important topic is partial and fragmented The general perception of European paramilitary violence in the 1940s derives almost entirely from the resistance collaboration paradigm This dichotomous analytical framework makes a clear distinction between politically motivated violence and social violence such as sexual criminal and structural violence By contrast in this book Gareth Pritchard and Vesna Drapac recognise the mutual dependence of all kinds of violence Their interpretative model the Regimes of Violence paradigm which takes account of the changing relationship between state society and organised violence allows us to observe paramilitarism in the round The Regimes of Violence framework reveals the interconnectedness of paramilitarism with other forms of violence during this period of unprecedented brutality Today paramilitary violence is a global phenomenon It has resulted in the undermining of the rule of law and the erosion of civil society in many different countries on different continents while at the same time traumatising the countless numbers of innocent people who are caught in its crossfire With their compelling and timely study Pritchard and Drapac provide an historical context and present a novel approach for understanding why paramilitarism shows no sign of abating

What Happens to History Howard Marchitello, 2014-06-11 While the questions of ethics have become increasingly important in recent years for many fields within the humanities there has been no single volume that seeks to address the emergence of this concern with ethics across the disciplinary spectrum Given this lack in currently available critical and secondary texts and also the urgency of the issues addressed by the critics assembled here the time is right for a collection of this nature

Facing The Extreme Tzvetan Todorov, 1997-04-15 Studies the moral practices in concentration camps uncovering the virtues that persevered throughout inhuman living conditions

Liberalism in Dark Times Joshua L. Cherniss, 2023-02-21 Today liberals face a predicament how to defend liberal principles when adherence to them seems to constitute a fatal disadvantage against unprincipled opponents The challenge is not new In the early years of the twentieth century liberalism was attacked by critics on both the right and especially the left for being hypocritical naïve irresponsible and impotent It couldn't for example anti-liberalists thought address the acute inequality of imperial rule racial segregation and socio-economic poverty These issues of social justice it was claimed by critics required a politics marked by an uncompromising commitment to ultimate ends and an unrelenting use of power Faced with such sentiments and the practical successes of anti-liberal ideologies i.e. Fascism Nazism and Communism liberals felt pressure to silence their scruples and doubts and embrace the confidence ruthlessness and intransigence exhibited by their opponents But doing so seemed tantamount to abandoning liberal hopes for and commitments to human freedom and all they valued in the first place In Liberalism for Dark Times Cherniss tells the story of the liberal response to this challenge in the twentieth century Through a close study of five leading intellectuals engaged in these debates Max Weber Raymond Aron Albert Camus Reinhold Niebuhr and Isaiah Berlin Cherniss reconstructs a distinctive neglected strand of liberal thought This strand defines and defends liberalism as a political ethos a complex of dispositions temperament and sensibility and style which include skepticism openness to experience and careful discriminating judgment that shape how individuals make choices meet challenges understand and pursue possibilities and conduct themselves toward others in the course of political struggle In reconstructing the history of what he calls a tempered liberalism and formulating it as a distinctive political perspective

Cherniss offers an alternative to the prevalent ways of thinking about both liberalism's history and the intellectual resources available to it today

Marianne in Chains Robert Gildea, 2024-03-26 A startling and original view of the occupation of the French heartland based on a new investigation of everyday life under Nazi rule In France the German occupation is called simply the dark years There were only the good French who resisted and the bad French who collaborated Marianne in Chains a broad and provocative history uncovers a rather different story one in which the truth is more complex and humane Drawing on previously unseen archives firsthand interviews diaries and eyewitness accounts Robert Gildea reveals everyday life in the heart of occupied France He describes the pressing imperatives of work food transportation and family obligations that led to unavoidable compromise and negotiation with the army of occupation In the process he sheds light on such subjects as forced labor the role of the Catholic Church the horizontal collaboration between French women and German soldiers and most surprisingly the ambivalent attitude of ordinary people toward the Resistance A great work of reconstruction Marianne in Chains provides a clear view unobscured by romance or polemics of the painful ambiguities of living under tyranny

Casablanca's Conscience Robert Weldon Whalen, 2024-02-06 A new look at a beloved classic film that explores the philosophical dynamics of Casablanca Celebrating its eightieth anniversary this year Casablanca remains one of the world's most enduringly favorite movies It won three Academy Awards for Best Picture Best Director and Best Adapted Screenplay It is still commonly quoted We'll always have Paris and Here's looking at you kid And who can forget You must remember this a kiss is just a kiss Yet no one expected much to come of this little film certainly not its blockbuster stars or even the studio producing it So how did this hastily cranked out 1940s film despite its many limitations become one of the greatest films ever made How is it that year after year decade after decade it continues to appear in the lists of the greatest movies ever produced And why do audiences still weep when Rick and Ilsa part The answer according to Casablanca's Conscience is to paraphrase Rick It's true Much has already been written about the film and the career defining performances of Bogart and Bergman Casablanca is an epic tale of love betrayal and sacrifice set against the backdrop of World War II Yet decades later it continues to capture the imagination of filmgoers In Casablanca's Conscience author Robert Weldon Whalen explains why it still resonates so deeply Applying a new lens to an old classic Whalen focuses on the film's timeless themes Exile Purgatory Irony Love Resistance and Memory He then engages the fictional characters Rick Ilsa and the others against the philosophical and theological discourse of their real contemporaries Hannah Arendt Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Albert Camus The relationships between fictional and historical persons illuminate both the film's era as well as perennial human concerns Both the film and the work of the philosophers explore dimensions of the human experience which while extreme are familiar to everyone It's the themes that resonate with the viewer that have sustained it as an evergreen classic all these years

Tzvetan Todorov Henk de Berg, Karine Zbinden, 2020 The first ever comprehensive examination of Tzvetan Todorov's cultural theory and his place in European thought Blueprints for a House Divided Robert M. Hayden, 2000 Argues that international diplomatic activities to resolve the Yugoslav conflicts have been misconceived A Journey of Hope Oscar Mann, 2005-12-14 In this touching and courageous memoir Oscar Mann recounts his boyhood in France the onset of World War II and the Holocaust his immigration to America and his years in the military and as a doctor Mann's honest narrative offers us a glimpse into his past and a critical time in 20th century history and reminds us all of the power of hope Visit the author's website for more information along with many unique images that help to visually support the author's story Jews in France During World War II Renée Poznanski, 2001 Now in English the authoritative work on ordinary Jews in France during World War II The Future of a Negation Alain Finkielkraut, 1998-01-01 The Future of a Negation is a crucial statement on the Holocaust and on Holocaust denial from Alain Finkielkraut one of the most acclaimed and influential intellectuals in contemporary Europe The book examines the Holocaust its origins in modern European thought and politics and recent revisionist attempts to deny its full dimensions and in some cases its very existence as historical fact Finkielkraut's central topic is the impulse toward negation of the Nazi horrors the arguments made by many people of varying political orientations that the gas chambers are a hoax or in any case an unverifiable rumor In addition Finkielkraut looks at other instances of twentieth century mass murder and at arguments made by contemporary politicians and intellectuals that similarly deny the full extent of these other atrocities An original fearless book The Future of a Negation is an essential contribution to our understanding of the Holocaust and of genocidal politics and thought in our century Applied Linguistics Review. 2010 1 Li Wei, 2010 The Applied Linguistics Review is a peer reviewed annual publication It aims to serve as a testing ground for the articulation of original ideas and approaches in the study of real world issues in which language plays a crucial role by bringing together new empirical and theoretical research and critical reflections of current debates The issues dealt with in the Review range from aspects of the linguistic and communicative competence of the individual such as bilingualism and multilingualism first or second language acquisition literacy language disorders to language and communication related problems in and between societies such as linguistic discrimination language conflict communication in the workplace language policy and language planning and language ideology Book Jacket Living with the Enemy Sandra Ott, 2017-06-26 In post liberation France the French courts judged the cases of more than one hundred thousand people accused of aiding and abetting the enemy during the Second World War In this fascinating book Sandra Ott uncovers the hidden history of collaboration in the Pyrenean borderlands of the Basques and the Bearnais in southwestern France through nine stories of human folly uncertainty ambiguity ambivalence desire vengeance duplicity greed self interest opportunism and betrayal Covering both the occupation and liberation periods she reveals how the book's characters became involved with the occupiers for a variety of reasons ranging from a desire to settle scores and to gain access to power money and material rewards to love friendship fear and desperation These wartime lives and subsequent postwar reckonings provide us with a new lens through which to understand human behavior under the difficult conditions of occupation and the subsequent search for retribution and justice
