Chica Lit Tace Hedrick, 2015-06-18 Winner 2016 ALA Choice Outstanding Academic Title In Chicanita Lit Popular Latina Fiction and Americanization in the Twenty-First Century Tace

Hedrick illuminates how discourses of Americanization ethnicity gender class and commodification shape the genre of chicanita popular fiction written by Latina authors with Latina characters She argues that chicanita lit is produced and marketed in the same ways as contemporary romance and chick lit fiction and aimed at an audience of twenty to thirty something upwardly mobile Latina readers Its stories about young women s ethnic class mobility and gendered romantic success tend to celebrate twenty first century neoliberal narratives about Americanization hard work and individual success However Hedrick emphasizes its focus on Latina characters necessarily inflects this celebratory mode the elusiveness of meaning in its use of the very term Latina empties out the differences among and between Latina o and Chicano a groups in the United States Of necessity chicanita lit also struggles with questions about the actual social and economic place of Latinas and Chicanas in this same neoliberal landscape these questions unsettle its reliance on the tried and true formulas of chick lit and romance writing Looking at chicanita lit s market driven representations of difference poverty and Americanization Hedrick shows how this writing functions within the larger arena of struggles over popular representation of Latinas and Chicanas
