Going Through The Motions A Novel:

Going Through the Motions Katherine Govier, 1982 I Drink Rat's Milk: A Novel James Murphy, 2008-07-03 From a chance meeting to an interview to a journey of self discovery all because someone drank rat s milk Anthony Mazon s life was nothing but routine Every Sunday he sat in his neighborhood coffee shop examining the world around him and writing down anything and everything that popped into his mind It had been this way for years However one Sunday he finds his usual seat taken by a stranger no one in the small town community had ever seen before All Anthony wanted was to have his seat yet four words became engraved into his mind and set in motion events that would drastically alter his life for the next fifteen years From juvenile detention in Florida to the middle of nowhere in Kentucky an obsession and even a romance keeps Anthony digging not just for the truth behind this stranger but for meaning in his own existence For everyone that chose to follow the well beaten path through life there are always a few that embark on the road not taken Books in Motion Mireia Aragay, 2005 Books in Motion addresses the hybrid interstitial field of film adaptation The introductory essay integrates a retrospective survey of the development of adaptation studies with a forceful argument about their centrality to any history of culture any discussion that is of the transformation and transmission of texts and meanings in and across cultures The thirteen especially composed essays that follow organised into four sections headed Paradoxes of Fidelity Authors Auteurs Adaptation Contexts Intertexts Adaptation and Beyond Adaptation variously illustrate that claim by problematising the notion of fidelity highlighting the role played by adaptation in relation to changing concepts of authorship and auteurism exploring the extent to which the intelligibility of film adaptations is dependent on contextual and intertextual factors and making a claim for the need to transcend any narrowly defined concept of adaptation in the study of adaptation Discussion ranges from adaptations of established classics like A Tale of Two Cities Frankenstein Henry V Le temps retrouvé Mansfield Park Pride and Prejudice The Dead or Wuthering Heights to contemporary popular texts films like Bridget Jones s Diary Fools The Governess High Fidelity The Hours The Orchid Thief Adaptation the work of Doris D rrie the first Harry Potter novel film or the adaptations made by Alfred Hitchcock Stanley Kubrick and Walt Disney This book will appeal to both a specialised readership and to those accessing the dynamic field of adaptation studies for the first time The Novel in Motion Richard Pearce, 1983 Also includes material on Raymond Federman Walter Abish and Ronald Sukenick The Saturday Evening Post , 1924 The Novels and Other Works of Lyof N. Tolstoï graf Leo Tolstoy, 1902 Story World and Photodramatist , 1924 How We Think, but not in School Patrick J. Lewis, 2007-01-01 If story is the basic principle of mind then what are we doing in elementary schools In this provocative exploration of narrative the author writes from the idea that story is integral to the generation of meaning in human experience Indeed story plays a significant role in the formation of identity and the development of greater empathic understanding The text begins with a discussion of the epistemological and ontological nature of narrative in human understanding and then travels across the narrative landscape of the school setting Through an examination of the impact of standards and accountability emphasis on curriculum the author suggests current practice may be undermining student learning and engagement Further the author places oracy in temporary opposition to literacy challenging us to rethink our assumptions about the role of literacy ies learning Without negating the importance of literacy attention is drawn to what is lost in chasing the assumed inherent good ness of a text based literacy and how this might hinder the growth of our children The value of narrative in developing teaching practice and promoting significant learning is brought to the foreground of the discussion which naturally journeys into an exploration of curriculum raising serious questions about developmental approaches to curriculum construction How we think but not in school will appeal to elementary teachers early literacy teachers teacher educators and those interested in narrative The National Magazine ,1923 Communicational Criticism Roger D. Sell,2011 Further developing the line of argument put forward in his Literature as Communication 2000 and Mediating Criticism 2001 Roger D Sell now suggests that when so called literary texts stand the test of time and appeal to a large and heterogeneous circle of admirers this is because they are genuinely dialogical in spirit Their writers rather than telling other people what to do or think or feel invite them to compare notes and about topics which take on different nuances as seen from different points of view So while such texts obviously reflect the taste and values of their widely various provenances they also channel a certain respect for the human other to whom they are addressed So much so that they win a reciprocal respect from members of their audience In Sell s new book this ethical interplay becomes the focus of a post postmodern critique which sees literary dialogicality as a possible catalyst to new non hegemonic kinds of globalization The argument is illustrated with major reassessments of Shakespeare Pope Wordsworth Dickens Churchill Orwell and Pinter and there are also studies of trauma literature for children and of ethically oriented criticism itself Book Review Digest ,1919 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal ,1924 The Literary Digest International Book Review Clifford Smyth,1923 The Literary Digest International Book Review ,1923 National Board of Review Magazine ,1926 Author and Composer ,1922 The Judge ,1920 S.A. Pictorial ,1926 The Century ,1929 Motion Picture Herald ,1927
