Going To The Dogs And Other Creatures:

Going to the Dogs and Other Creatures Paula Riker, 1990-03-01 The 100 Silliest Things People Say about Dogs Alexandra Semyonova, 2009 An internationally acclaimed animal behaviourist debunks 100 myths about dogs and replaces them with the truth about canine nature Books That Teach Kids to Write Marianne Saccardi, 2011-05-05 This book provides a wealth of read aloud titles and related activities that provide busy teachers with the tools to help students in grades K 12 become successful writers Teachers can always benefit from new techniques that allow them to teach writing in a more engaging and enjoyable manner and a resource that identifies a plethora of excellent children s books that help students become successful writers would also be helpful Books That Teach Kids to Write introduces busy educators to the finest in children s literature in all genres appropriate for readers in grades K through 12 and provides effective ideas for using those books to stimulate and improve student writing This book discusses language use and other critical components of good writing showcasing the children s books and specific activities that can help both primary and secondary school students Included reproducibles for the writing exercises make lesson planning simple while the sheer number of titles discussed and the extensive bibliographies provided minimize the time teachers must spend researching books to use with their students An appendix includes more writing instruction resources such as children s books websites and professional texts The World of Proverb and Parable Edwin Paxton Hood, 1885 Sexing the Animal in a Post-Humanist World Roslyn Appleby, 2019-05-15 This pioneering collection of essays unpacks the complex discursive and embodied relationships between humans and animals contributing to a more informed understanding of both human animal relations and the role of language in social processes Focusing on the example of shark human interactions the book draws on forms of analysis from multimodality and critical discourse studies to examine the representations of this relationship across visual arts popular media and the natural sciences each viewed through a critical feminist lens The combined effect highlights the significance of the emergent turn to post humanism in applied linguistics and its role in fostering more engaged discussions around broader contemporary social issues including environmental degradation and climate change on the one hand and resurgent feminism and challenges to normative heterosexuality on the other Paving the way for new forms of writing and language for a post anthropocentric age this volume is essential reading for students and scholars in applied linguistics gender studies sociolinguistics human animal studies and environmental humanities The Animal's Defender and Zoophilist , 1900 Field and Stream , 1925 Animals , 1906 What Is a Dog? Raymond Coppinger, Lorna Coppinger, 2016-04-27 Exploring the natural history of these creatures the Coppingers explain how the village dogs of Vietnam India Africa and Mexico are strikingly similar These feral dogs argue the Coppingers are in fact the real representative dogs nearly uniform in size and shape and incredibly self sufficient Drawing on nearly five decades of research they show how dogs actually domesticated themselves in order to become such sufficient scavengers of human refuse The Coppingers also examine the behavioral characteristics that enable dogs to live successfully and to reproduce unconstrained by humans in environments that we ordinarily do not think of as dog friendly From publisher description

Animal Ethics in the Age of Humans Bernice Bovenkerk, Jozef Keulartz, 2016-09-21 This book provides reflection on the increasingly blurry boundaries that characterize the human animal relationship In the Anthropocene humans and animals have come closer together and this asks for rethinking old divisions Firstly new scientific insights and technological advances lead to a blurring of the boundaries between animals and humans Secondly our increasing influence on nature leads to a rethinking of the old distinction between individual animal ethics and collectivist environmental ethics Thirdly ongoing urbanization and destruction of animal habitats leads to a blurring between the categories of wild and domesticated animals Finally globalization and global climate change have led to the fragmentation of natural habitats blurring the old distinction between in situ and ex situ conservation In this book researchers at the cutting edge of their fields systematically examine the broad field of human animal relations dealing with wild liminal and domestic animals with conservation and zoos and with technologies such as biomimicry This book is timely in that it explores the new directions in which our thinking about the human animal relationship are developing While the target audience primarily consists of animal studies scholars coming from a wide range of disciplines including philosophy sociology psychology ethology literature and film studies many of the topics that are discussed have relevance beyond a purely theoretical one as such the book also aims to inspire for example biologists conservationists and zoo keepers to reflect on their relationship with animals

Posthumanist Perspectives on Literary and Cultural Animals Krishanu Maiti, 2021-09-11 This book offers Posthumanist readings of animal centric literary and cultural texts The contributors put the precepts and premises of humanism into question by seriously considering the animal presence in texts The essays collected here focus primarily on literary and cultural texts from varied theoretically informed interdisciplinary perspectives advanced by critical approaches such as Critical Animal Studies and Posthumanism Contributors select texts that cut across geographical and period boundaries and demonstrate how practices of close reading give rise to new ways of thinking about animals By implicating the animal turn in the field of literary and cultural studies this book urges us to problematize the separation of the human from other animals and rethink the hierarchical order of beings through close readings of select texts It offers fresh perspectives on Posthumanist theory inviting readers to revisit those criteria that created species difference from the early ages of human civilization This book constitutes a rich and thorough scholarly resource on the politics of representation of animals in literature and culture The essays in this book are empirically and theoretically informed and explore a range of dynamic captivating and highly relevant topics Comprising over 15 chapters by a team of international contributors this book is divided into four parts Contestation over Species Hierarchy and Categorization Animal Re constructions Interspecies Relationalities Intersectionality Animal and Gender This book will be essential reading for students and researchers of Critical Animal Studies and Environmental Studies
