Who Is a Muslim? Maryam Wasif Khan, 2021-01-19 Who Is a Muslim argues that modern Urdu literature from its inception in colonial institutions such as Fort William College Calcutta to its dominant iterations in contemporary Pakistan popular novels short stories television serials is formed around a question that is and historically has been at the core of early modern and modern Western literatures The question Who is a Muslim a constant concern within eighteenth century literary and scholarly orientalist texts the English oriental tale chief among them takes on new and dangerous meanings once it travels to the North Indian colony and later to the newly formed Pakistan A literary historical study spanning some three centuries this book argues that the idea of an Urdu canon far from secular or progressive has been shaped as the authority designate around the intertwined questions of piety national identity and citizenship

Empire of Diamonds Adrienne Munich, 2020-05-19 In 1850 the legendary Koh i noor diamond gem of Eastern potentates was transferred from the Punjab in India and in an elaborate ceremony placed into Queen Victoria s outstretched hands This act inaugurated what author Adrienne Munich recognizes in her engaging new book as the empire of diamonds Diamonds were a symbol of political power only for the very rich and influential But in a development that also reflected the British Empire s prosperity the idea of owning a diamond came to be marketed to the middle class In all kinds of writings diamonds began to take on an affordable romance Considering many of the era s most iconic voices from Dickens and Tennyson to Kipling and Stevenson as well as grand entertainments such as The Moonstone King Solomon s Mines and the tales of Sherlock Holmes Munich explores diamonds as fetishes that seem to contain a living spirit exerting powerful effects and shows how they scintillated the literary and cultural imagination Based on close textual attention and rare archival material and drawing on ideas from material culture fashion theory economic criticism and fetishism Empire of Diamonds interprets the various meanings of diamonds revealing a trajectory including Indian celebrity named diamonds reserved for Asian princes such as the Great Mogul and the Hope Diamond their adoption by British royal and aristocratic families and their discovery in South Africa the mining of which devastated the area even as it opened the gem up to the middle classes The story Munich tells eventually finds its way to America as power and influence cross the Atlantic bringing diamonds to a wide consumer culture Social Patterns in

Tales and Novels — Volume 2 Maria Edgeworth,2018-04-18 Excerpt PREFACE Some author says that a good book needs no apology and as a preface is usually an apology a book enters into the world with a better grace without one I however appeal to those readers who are not gluttons but epicures in literature whether they do not wish to see the bill of fare I appeal to monthly critics whether a preface that gives a view of the pretensions of the writer is not a good thing The author may overvalue his subject and very naturally may overrate the manner in which it is treated but still he will explain his views and facilitate the useful and necessary art which the French call reading with the thumb We call this hunting a book a term certainly invented by a sportsman I leave the reader to choose which he pleases whilst I lay before him the contents and design of these volumes The Novels of Maria Edgeworth Maria Edgeworth,1893
