Gold In Them Hills The Story Of The We:

California Poems: Gold In Them Hills Stephanie Mood, 2010-05-05 These stories and poems are no fairy tale but real ones singing songs of the sleeping promise of the West its blinding sunsets and pricked finger its strange looking dwarfs and puckered kiss The sun is the dominant image throughout but its rays illuminate with dense anger or delightful humor Death Valley and Hearst Castle transients and friends the rich and the cops all searching for the promise From the opening prose we learn that this quest is personal including a nasty divorce and perplexed children But always the sun and the sea beckon us Yet death looms though like the elusiveness of the West itself it is not a bad thing Our bones decay smiling atoms wave where we've been Our heat waves love lingering under the sky For finally This is the West The land stops here The urge curls in the sand and laughs here
