Chan,1983 New World Orderings Lisa Rofel,Carlos Rojas,2022-11-09 The contributors to New World Orderings demonstrate that China s twenty first century rise occurs not only through economics and state politics but equally through the mutual entanglements of overlapping social economic and cultural worlds in Southeast Asia Africa and Latin America They show how the Chinese state has sought to reconfigure the nation s position in the world and the centrality of trade labor religion migration gender race and literature to this reconfiguration Among other topics the contributors examine China s post Bandung cultural diplomacy with African nations how West African pastor entrepreneurs in China interpreted and preached the prosperity doctrine the diversity of Chinese Argentine social relations in the soy supply chain and the ties between China and India within the complex history of inter Asian exchange and Chinese migration to Southeast Asia By examining China s long historical relationship with the Global South this volume presents a non state centric history of China that foregrounds the importance of transnational communicative and imaginative worldmaking processes and interactions Contributors Andrea Bachner Luciano Dami n Bolinaga Nellie Chu Rachel Cypher Mingwei Huang T Tu Huynh Yu lin Lee Ng Kim Chew Lisa Rofel Carlos Rojas Shuang Shen Derek Sheridan Nicolai Volland The Chinese in Vancouver, 1945-80 Wing Chung Ng,2011-11-01 In The Chinese in Vancouver Wing Chung Ng captures the fascinating story of the city s Chinese in their search for identity He juxtaposes the cultural positions of different generations of Chinese immigrants and their Canadian born descendants and unveils the ongoing struggle over the definition of being Chinese It is an engrossing story about cultural identity in the context of migration and settlement where the influence of the native land and the appeal of the host city continued to impinge on the consciousness of the ethnic Chinese The Chinese in Canada is long overdue in view of the many previous studies that tend to describe Chinese people as victims of racial prejudice and discrimination and Chinese identity a matter of Western cultural hegemony Ng s account gives the Chinese people their own voice and shows that the Chinese in Vancouver had much to say and often disagreed about the meaning of being Chinese In his concluding chapter Ng looks beyond the Canadian context by engaging in a comparative discussion of the experiences of ethnic Chinese elsewhere in the diaspora References to the Chinese in various Southeast Asian countries and the U S force a rethinking of Chineseness He ends with reflections about Vancouver s Chinese community since 1980 Being Chinese, Becoming Chinese American Shehong Chen,2023-03-20 The 1911 revolution in China sparked debates that politicized and divided Chinese communities in the United States People in these communities affirmed traditional Chinese values and expressed their visions of a modern China while nationalist feelings emboldened them to stand up for their rights as an integral part of American society When Japan threatened the China s young republic the Chinese response in the United States revealed the limits of Chinese nationalism and the emergence of a Chinese American identity Shehong Chen investigates how Chinese immigrants to the United States transformed themselves into Chinese Americans during the crucial period between 1911 and 1927 Chen focuses on four essential elements of a distinct Chinese American identity support for republicanism over the restoration of monarchy a wish to preserve Confucianism and traditional Chinese culture support for Christianity despite a strong anti Christian movement in China and opposition to the Nationalist party s alliance with the Soviet Union and cooperation with the Chinese Communist Party Sensitive and enlightening Being Chinese Becoming Chinese American documents how Chinese immigrants survived exclusion and discrimination envisioned and maintained Chineseness and adapted to American society Gold Mountain Turned to Dust John R.
