A succinct narrative of Iranian history from the time of Cyrus the Great in 560 BC to the present day. Private takkiyyas built by social elites were a phenomenon of the Qajar period with their construction motivated by a political quest for legitimacy. This book examines the intersection of art and architecture, popular piety and the politics of legitimation. Through an examination of the building and its decorative programme, it addresses issues of patronage, Shi'i iconography and popular religious practices during the early 20th century in Iran. It further argues for the role of takkiyyas in the creation of a sense of community and group identity, the formative stage of the emergent idea of nationhood at the time amongst those who frequented them. Formation of a Religious Landscape: Shi'i Higher Learning in Safavid Iran Maryam Moazzen, 2017-11-20 In Formation of a Religious Landscape: Shi'i Higher Learning in Safavid Iran, Maryam Moazzen offers the first systematic examination of Shi'i educational institutions and practices by exploring the ways in which religious knowledge was produced, authenticated and transmitted in the second half of Safavid rule (1588-1722). By analyzing the deeds of endowment of the Madrasa-yi Sulaymaniyya and other mosque madrasas built by the Safavid elite, this study sheds light on the organizing mechanisms and structures utilized by such educational foundations. Based on the large number of ijazas and other primary sources, including waqfiyyas, biographical dictionaries and autobiographies, this study also reconstructs the Safavid madrasas curriculum and describes the pedagogical methods used to transmit religious knowledge, as well as issues that faced Shi'i higher learning in early modern times. The Art and Material Culture of Iranian Shi'ism Pedram
