Golden Of America Stories From Our:

The Golden Book of AMERICA STORIES FROM OUR COUNTRY'S PAST ADAPTED FOR YOUNG READERS FROM AMERICAN HERITAGE, 1957 The Golden Book of America, 1957 A pictorial history of America from the age of discovery to the dawn of the air age Included are accounts of such topics as explorers Indians Famous men and women sailing ships country stores and dime novels The Golden Book of America Irwin editor Shapiro, 1957 The Golden Book of America, 1973 Syllabus for a Course in Literature for Children Detroit Teachers College, 1928 Stories of Our Living Ephemera Emily Legg, 2023-12-15 Stories of Our Living Ephemera recovers the history of the Cherokee National Seminaries from scattered archives and colonized research practices by critically weaving together pedagogy and archival artifacts with Cherokee traditional stories and Indigenous worldviews This unique text adds these voices to writing studies history and presents these stories as models of active rhetorical practices of assimilation resistance in colonized spaces Emily Legg turns to the Cherokee medicine wheel and cardinal directions as a Cherokee rhetorical discipline of knowledge making in the archives an embodied and material practice that steers knowledge through the four cardinal directions around all relations Going beyond historiography Legg delineates educational practices that are intertwined with multiple strands of traditional Cherokee stories that privilege Indigenous and matriarchal theoretical lenses Stories of Our Living Ephemera synthesizes the connections between contemporary and nineteenth century academic experiences to articulate the ways that colonial institutions and research can be Indigenized by centering Native American sovereignty By undoing the erasure of Cherokee literacy and educational practices Stories of Our Living Ephemera celebrates the importance of storytelling especially for those who are learning about Indigenous histories and rhetorics This book is of cultural importance and value to academics interested in composition and pedagogy the Cherokee Nation and a general audience seeking to learn about Indigenous rhetorical devices and Cherokee history The Buried Spitfires of Burma Andy Brockman, Tracy Spaight, 2020-06-01 Rumours of buried Spitfires from the Second World War have spread around the world for seventy five years In April 2012 the press reported that the UK had negotiated an agreement with Myanmar for the recovery of twenty crated Spitfires reportedly buried after WW2 Astonishingly the agreement came about through the single minded determination of a farmer David Cundall Armed with a high tech survey showing mysterious shapes under the surface of Yangon International Airport David s expedition is equipped with JCB excavators But instead of Spitfires the team unearths a tale of fake history The Buried Spitfires of Burma explores what happened next as David Cundall s dream unravelled over the course of a historical whodunnit that spans seven decades and three continents It follows one of the most bizarre stories since the sensational Hitler Diaries hoax The Gold of the Sunbeams and Other Stories Tito Rajarshi Mukhopadhyay, 2005 Two miracles underlie this work the author s age he is seventeen years old and the fact that he is severely autistic Both aspects enrich the substance of his narrative This talented young writer defying the general perception that autistic people imprisoned within themselves are unable to communicate with the outside world has been writing stories of poetic prose and literary eloquence since before he was eight Tito's stories range from beautiful to funny and touching In the title story the young protagonist whose father has been imprisoned for gambling in the park must assume overnight the mantle of responsibility for his family which he does with great heroism until that authority has to be returned to his father and new problems begin In The Showers when a cyclone wreaks devastation in rural India Tito imagines the survivor's plight from the sorrow of losing their homes to the politics of rebuilding their lives In Broken Mirror we learn the history of a room from a broken mirror that hangs on the wall and which Tito imbues with emotions and memories In Grey Apple Green and White he gives life and character to colors the way the French symbolist poet Rimbaud gave colors to vowels The stories connect through a rich and complex imagery of smiles dust motes and margossa trees BOOK JACKET With Thackeray in America Eyre Crowe,1893 The United Stories of America Rolf Lundén,2022-06-08 This book discusses the American short story composite or short story cycle a neglected form of writing consisting of autonomous stories interlocking into a whole The critical work done on this genre has so far focused on the closural strategies of the composites on how unity is accomplished in these texts This study takes into consideration to a greater degree than earlier criticism the short story composite as an open work emphasizing the tension between the independent stories and the unified work between the discontinuity and fragmentation on the one hand and the totalizing strategies on the other The discussion of the genre is illustrated with references to numerous American short story composites Our Sunday stories Our Sunday stories,1887

The Children's Ghost Story in America Sean Ferrier-Watson,2017-04-11 Ghost stories have played a prominent role in childhood Circulated around playgrounds and whispered in slumber parties their history in American literature is little known and seldom discussed by scholars This book explores the fascinating origins and development of these tales focusing on the social and historical factors that shaped them and gave birth to the genre Ghost stories have existed for centuries but have been published specifically for children for only about 200 years Early on supernatural ghost stories were rare authors and publishers fearing they might adversely affect young minds presented stories in which the ghost was always revealed as a fraud These tales dominated children's publishing in the 19th century but the 20th century saw a change in perspective and the supernatural ghost story flourished The American Bookseller,1882 Stories of Our Lives Frank de

Caro,2013-05-15 In Stories of Our Lives Frank de Caro demonstrates the value of personal narratives in enlightening our lives and our world We all live with legends family sagas and anecdotes that shape our selves and give meaning to our recollections Featuring an array of colorful stories from de Caro's personal life and years of field research as a folklorist the book is part memoir and part exploration of how the stories we tell listen to and learn play an integral role in shaping our sense of self De Caro's narrative includes stories within the story among them a near mythic capture of his golden haired grandmother by Plains Indians a quintessential Italian rags to riches grandfather and his own experiences growing up in culturally rich 1950s New York City living in India amid the fading glories of a former princely state conducting field research on Day of the Dead altars in Mexico and coming home to a battered New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina Stories of Our Lives shows that our lives are interesting and that the stories we tell however particular to our own circumstances or trivial they may seem to others reveal something about ourselves our societies our cultures and our larger human existence
