GOLDEN TREASURY OF SCOTTISH POETRY

HUGH MACDIARMID

The main difference between this and all previous anthologies of Scottish poetry is that some effort has been made to present the "all-in view" of Scottish poetry, and in particular to give some representation to its Gaelic and Latin elements.

There are poems by Burns, William Drummond, Dunbar, Walter Scott, Stevenson and others whose poetry has made the name and beauty of Scotland loved by thousands who have never seen her. But not only the work of the best-known poets is here, Hugh MacDiarmid, a distinguished Scottish poet himself, has ranged widely over the field of Scottish verse, and has brought into this 'Treasury' some lovely lyrics and ballads, known by name and sound to many Scots, but never before printed in book form.
