Golden Age Of Burgundy:

The Golden Age of Burgundy Joseph Calmette, 1949      The Golden Age of Burgundy Joseph Calmette, 1962      The Golden Age of Burgundy Joseph Louis Antoine Calmette, 1963      The Golden Age of Burgundy: the Magnificent Dukes and Their Courts. Tr. from the French Joseph Calmette, 1949      The golden age of burgundy, by joseph calmette Joseph Calmette, 1962      The Golden Age of Burgundy; The Magnificent Dukes and Their Courts, by Joseph Calmette. Translated From the French by Doreen Weightman Joseph Calmette, 1963      Les Grands Ducs de Bourgogne. The Golden Age of Burgundy. The Magnificent Dukes and Their Courts ... Translated ... by Doreen Weightman. With Plates, Including Portraits. Joseph Louis Antoine CALMETTE, Doreen WEIGHTMAN, 1962      Wine Stefan K. Estreicher, 2006 There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story      France Roger Williams, Robin Gauldie, 2010 Spilling over with all sorts of useful information for the traveler Eyewitness Travel Guide France paints a complete picture of the country Readers will appreciate the hundreds of color photos of everything from ski towns to beaches to wine vineyards      Fifteenth Century England a Comprehensive Chronology WM. E. Baumgaertner, 2021-03-02 This is the first volume of what will likely be four volumes of a comprehensive chronological history of fifteenth century England It begins in 1397 a necessary prelude to the rise of Henry IV and carries through to 1509 and the death of Henry VII The series includes inter related chronologies of Scotland Wales Ireland France Burgundy and Brittany Volume I covers from 1397 and the last few years of the reign of Richard II through the entire reigns of Henry IV and Henry V and ends a few months into the reign of Henry VI 1422 In the process it covers wars usurpations land and naval battles parliaments and great council meetings and the lives and deaths of many hundreds of prominent English Welsh Scottish Irish French Burgundian and Breton persons      Dutch Neorealism, Cinema, and the Politics of Painting, 1927-1945 Stephanie Lebas Huber, 2024-08-12 This study offers a radically new perspective on Dutch Neorealism one that emphasizes the role of film as an apparatus the effects of which when emulated in painting can reproduce the affective experience of film watching More of a tendency than a tightly defined style or ism Neorealism is the Dutch variant of Magic Realism an uncanny mode of figurative painting identified with Neue Sachlichkeit in Germany and Novecento in Italy Best represented by the Dutch artists Pyke Koch Carel Willink Charley Toorop Raoul Hynckes Dick Ket and Wim Schuhmacher Neorealism as demonstrated in this book depicted societal disintegration and allegories of looming disaster in reaction to the rise of totalitarian regimes and eventually the Nazi Occupation of The Netherlands The degree to which these artists exhibited either revolutionary or reactionary sentiments usually corresponding with their political affiliation is one of the central problematics explored in this text The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history World War II history and film studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Material Culture and Queenship in 14th-century France Marguerite Keane, 2016-05-18 In Material Culture and Queenship in 14th century France The Testament of Blanche of Navarre 1331 1398 Marguerite Keane considers the object collection of the long lived fourteenth century French queen Blanche of Navarre the wife of Philip VI d 1350 This queen s ownership of works of art books jewelry reliquaries and textiles among others and her perceptions of these objects is well documented because she wrote detailed testaments in 1396 and 1398 in which she described her possessions and who she wished to receive them Keane connects the patronage of Blanche of Navarre to her interest in her status and reputation as a dowager queen as well as bringing to life the material adornment and devotional interests of a medieval queen and her household

Advance Banners Wm. E. Baumgaertner, 2025-05-23 This book and its companion volumes explore English Warfare in the fifteenth century As such it describes where possible the planning logistics preparation and execution for both individual battles and sieges as well as entire campaigns It involves both internal warfare within England itself civil war as well as the English fighting in Wales Scotland Ireland France Burgundy and Brittany The narrative begins in 1397 which is distinctly not part of the fifteenth century But in order to understand the Lancastrian revolution and what motivated the man who would become Henry IV it is necessary to understand a little about his predecessor and the tyranny that Richard II promoted So Volume I of this reference work starts in 1397 when Richard II's absolutism gained a full head of steam A little over two years later Richard II was deposed and the Lancastrian dynasty began Volume I includes the entire reigns of both Henry IV and Henry V and the first few years of the reign of the toddler king Henry VI It covers the suppression of the Welsh the Percy uprisings intermittent conflicts with the French and the Scots and the invasion of France Thus Volume I covers over 30 battles and over a dozen major sieges These include all of the iconic battles of that period Shrewsbury Agincourt Baug Cravant and Verneuil the naval battle of the Seine as well as dozens of other battles and sieges some virtually forgotten in most history books

Wine and Place Tim Patterson, John Buechsenstein, 2018-01-02 The concept of terroir is one of the most celebrated and controversial subjects in wine today Most will agree that well made wine has the capacity to express somewhere a set of consistent aromatics flavors or textures that amount to a signature expression of place But for every advocate there is a skeptic and for every writer singing praises related to terroir there is a study or a detractor seeking to debunk terroir as a myth Wine and Place examines terroir using a multitude of voices and multiple points of view from science to literature from winemakers to wine critics seeking not to prove its veracity but to explore its pros its cons and its other aspects This comprehensive anthology lets the reader come to one's own conclusion about terroir

History of the Low Countries J. C. H. Blom, E. Lamberts, 2006-06-01 The history of the smaller European countries is rather neglected in the teaching of European history at university level We are therefore pleased to announce the publication of the first comprehensive history of the Low Countries in English from Roman Times to the present Remaining politically and culturally fragmented with its inhabitants speaking Dutch French Frisian and German the Low Countries offer a fascinating picture of European history en miniature For historical reasons parts of northern France and western Germany also have to be included in the Low Countries a term that must remain both broad and fluid a convenient label for a region which has seldom if ever composed a unified whole In earlier ages it was even more difficult to the region set parameters again reflecting Europe as a whole when tribes and kingdoms stretched across expanses not limited to the present states of Belgium Luxembourg and the Netherlands Nevertheless its parts did demonstrate many common traits and similar developments that differentiated them from surrounding countries and lent them a distinct character Internationally the region often served both as a mediator for and a buffer to the surrounding great powers France Britain and Germany an important role still played today as Belgium and the Netherlands have increasingly become involved in the broader process of European integration in which they often share the same interest and follow parallel policies This highly illustrated volume serves as an ideal introduction to the rich history of the Low Countries for students and the generally interested reader alike

International Relations and Political Philosophy Martin Wight, 2022 This book collects works of fundamental importance by the late Professor Martin Wight about the theory

Jan van Eyck and Portugal's 'Illustrious Generation' Barbara von Barghahn, 2013-12-31 This book investigates Jan Van Eyck's patronage by the Crown of Portugal and his role as diplomat painter for the Duchy of Burgundy following his first voyage to Lisbon in 1428-1429 when he painted two portraits of Infanta Isabella who became the third wife of Philip the Good in 1430 New portrait identifications are provided for the Ghent Altarpiece 1432 and its iconographical prototype the lost Fountain of Life These altarpieces are analysed with regard to King Joao I's conquest of Ceuta achieved by his sons who were hailed as an illustrious generation Strong family ties between the dynastic houses of Avis and Lancaster explain Lusitania's sustained fascination with Arthurian lore and the Grail quest Several chapters of this book are overlaid with a chivalric veneer A second secret mission to Portugal in 1437 by Jan van Eyck is postulated and this diplomatic visit is related to Prince Henry the Navigator's expedition to Tangier and King Duarte's attempts to forge an alliance with Alfonso V of Aragon Late Eyckian commissions are reviewed in the light of this ill-fated crusade and additional new portraits are identified The most significant artist of Renaissance Flanders appears to have been patronized as much by the House of Avis as by the Duchy of Burgundy Barbara von Barghahn is Professor of Art History at George Washington University and a specialist in the art history of Portugal Spain and their colonial dominions as well as Flanders In 1993 she was conferred O Grao Comendador in the Portuguese Order of Prince Henry the Navigator She has spent nearly a decade completing research about Jan van Eyck's diplomatic visits to the Iberian Peninsula
