The Shadow in the Cave Anthony Smith, 2022-05-29 First published in 1973 The Shadow in the Cave explores the history of broadcasting conflicts and shows how they are built into the very roots of broadcasting Every nation has built into its radio and television system a coded version of anxieties about the nature and effects of mass communication The whole of the culture of broadcasting its genres and its style is an expression of the dilemmas which have bedevilled broadcasting from the moment of its invention Anthony Smith's book provides for the first time a connected and carefully researched picture of the real issues involved in the debate about broadcasting This book shows how the argument about levels of taste in broadcasting about balance and fairness about trivialisation control and freedom of access are elements of a gigantic problem which threatens the whole structure of democratic freedom The book shows some of the path to be taken if broadcasting is not to undermine the basic notion of freedom of expression Topical subtle and revealing this is an important historical document a must read for scholars and researchers of media studies news media media history mass communication and political studies Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1999, 1999 The Golden Bough James

George Frazer, 1890 Herald of the Golden Age, 1897 Queer God de Amor Miguel H. Díaz, 2022-09-13 Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan's mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God's erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John's own words as un no s qu an I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology
