Yellow Shoe Poets George Garrett, 1999-10-01 Since 1964 when Louisiana State University Press published its inaugural book of verse Miller Williams's A Circle of Stone its poetry list has grown exponentially 191 books by 93 poets into a program that inspires understandable pride in those associated with it Two collections have won the Pulitzer Prize The Flying Change 1986 by Henry Taylor and Alive Together 1996 by Lisel Mueller Another book by Mueller The Need to Hold Still 1980 won the National Book Award while several other LSU titles have been finalists for that distinction most recently The Fields of Praise 1997 by Marilyn Nelson and The Vigil 1993 by Margaret Gibson Dozens more have been recognized for their excellence through a host of various honors The Press publishes the winner of the annual Walt Whitman Award given by The Academy of American Poets for a first collection and in 1996 it launched the Southern Messenger series in collaboration with Dave Smith bringing two shining works into the fold each year The appearance of The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren in 1998 meant for the Press the realization of a long dearly held dream To mark this thirty five year old tradition as the century and millennium turn and to offer a sampling of its richness The Yellow Shoe Poets a retrospective anthology was compiled under the editorship of George Garrett a longtime colleague of the Press and the author of eight poetry volumes Say the LSU poets real fast with a southern drawl and you get the ridiculously wonderful moniker that poet Elizabeth Seydel Morgan's young friend innocently mistook for this noble band It's an image Brendan Galvin has appropriated to a perfect fit in his poem Yellow Shoe Poet written on behalf of his fellow yellow shoes across the years All 173 poems are taken from LSU Press books and were selected by the poets themselves if living Arranged alphabetically by author they consist of at least one poem from every poet published by the Press Goethe's admonition that one ought every day at least to read a good poem can find no better starting point than in The Yellow Shoe Poets

From leaf to leaf, a volume of poems, selected and arranged by R.E. Mack Robert Ellice Mack, 1890 Denver Quarterly, 1979 S.S.S.L. Society for the Study of Southern Literature, 1978 Willow Springs, 2001 Fossil Poetry Chris Jones, 2018-08-09 Fossil Poetry provides the first book length overview of the place of Anglo Saxon in nineteenth century poetry in English It addresses the use and role of Anglo Saxon as a resource by Romantic and Victorian poets in their own compositions as well as the construction and invention of Anglo Saxon in and by nineteenth century poetry Fossil Poetry takes its title from a famous passage on early language in the essays of Ralph Waldo Emerson and uses the metaphor of the fossil to contextualize poetic Anglo Saxonism within the developments that had been taking place in the fields of geology palaeontology and the evolutionary life sciences since James Hutton's apprehension of deep time in his 1788 Theory of the Earth Fossil Poetry argues that two roughly consecutive phases of poetic Anglo Saxonism took place over the course of the nineteenth century firstly a phase of constant roots whereby Anglo Saxon is constructed to resemble and so to legitimize a tradition of English Romanticism conceived as essential and unchanging secondly a phase in which the strangeness of many of the extinct philological forms of early English is acknowledged and becomes concurrent with a desire to recover and recuperate the fossils of Anglo Saxon within contemporary English poetry The volume advances new readings of work by a variety of poets including Walter Scott Henry Longfellow William Wordsworth William Barnes Walt Whitman Ralph Waldo Emerson William Morris Alfred Tennyson and Gerard Hopkins The Life of William Morris John William Mackail, 1901 The Poetry of Everyday Life Steve Zeitlin, 2016-09-02 This is a book of encounters Part memoir part essay and partly a guide to maximizing your capacity for fulfillment and expression The Poetry of Everyday Life taps into the artistic side of what we often take for granted the stories we tell the people we love the metaphors used by scientists even our sex lives A folklorist writer and cultural activist Steve Zeitlin explores how poems serve us in daily life and how they are used in times of personal and national crisis In the first book to bring together the perspectives of folklore and creative writing Zeitlin explores meaning and experience covering topics ranging from poetry in the life cycle to the contemporary uses of ancient myths This convergence of poetry and folklore he suggests gives birth to something new a new way of seeing ourselves and a new way of being in the world Written with humor and insight the book introduces readers to the many eccentric and visionary characters Zeitlin has met in his career as a folklorist Covering topics from Ping Pong to cave paintings from family poetry nights to delectable dishes at his favorite ethnic restaurants The Poetry of Everyday Life will inspire readers to expand their consciousness of the beauty that resides in everyday things and to use creative expression to engage and animate that beauty toward living a more fulfilling awakened life full of laughter To live a creative life is the best way to engage with the beauty of the everyday The Southern Review, 2007 Choice, 1980 The Poetry of Compliment and Courtship; Selected and Arranged by J.
