Kerry is studying to be an opera singer and never do well older son Vincent is a fledgling filmmaker. His new documentary focusing on five families caught in the torturous web of never knowing the fate of their abducted children shakes his parents to the core. As Vincent's film earns greater and greater acclaim and Beth tries to stave off a torrent of long submerged emotions the Cappadoras world is rocked as Beth's greatest fear becomes reality. The family is soon drawn precipitously into the past revisiting the worst moment of their lives this time with only hours to find the truth that can save a life. One Woman's Journey Deborah Kinisky, 2020-12-01 Deborah Kinisky is thriving. When you read her story you may at times wonder how Deborah's Purple Sky analogy which is presented in the first book Purple Sky Survivalist is interesting and thought provoking. It also lays a good groundwork for the story ahead. Deborah candidly shares her life with a matter of factness that takes you off guard. There are events that are at times disturbing and presented just as a day like any other demonstrating how normalizing atrocious behavior can lead children to grow up with a distorted view of the world. There are moments of humor that will make you laugh out loud. You will question your own view of normal. It's in these moments of questioning and self analysis that you'll find the truths of your life as well as the falsehoods. Only by sorting the truth from the lies you can find your own blue skies. Survivalist to Thrivalist One Woman's Journey shows you how Deborah finds her blue skies and became a thrivalist. Her stories will help lead you to your own truths and help you to thrive. The journey to blue skies is possible for us all and as Deborah shows us it's worth the trip.
