Non governmental organizations NGOs play an increasingly prominent role in addressing complex environmental issues such as climate change persistent bio accumulative pollutants and the conservation of biodiversity At the same time the landscape in which they operate is changing rapidly Markets and direct engagement with industry rather than traditional government regulation are often the tools of choice for NGOs seeking to change corporate behavior today Yet these new strategies are poorly understood by business academics and NGOs themselves How will NGOs choose which battles to fight differentiate themselves from one another in order to attract membership and funding and decide when to form alliances and when to work separately In Good Cop Bad Cop Thomas P Lyon brings together perspectives on environmental NGOs from leading social scientists as well as leaders from within the NGO and corporate worlds to assess the state of knowledge on the tactics and the effectiveness of environmental groups Contributions from Greenpeace Rainforest Action Network the Environmental Defense Fund and the World Wildlife Fund describe each organization s structure and key objectives and present case studies that illustrate how each organization makes a difference especially with regard to its strategies toward corporate engagement To provide additional perspective high level executives from BP and Ford share their views on what causes

these relationships between companies and NGOs to either succeed or fail For students of the social sciences and NGO practitioners this book takes an important step in addressing an urgent need for objective study of NGO operations and their effectiveness
