My soul is a nest of pain her soul lies undead in the Arabian dunes

Long tomorrow is passed, weaved like the palm

I envy paradise where serpents dines with Eve

Heaven is an illusion, vicious like visions of Cain

Eden Dennis Schmitz, 1989      Eden Brenda Loew Tatelbaum, 1982-09-01      Photographing Eden Jason Gray, 2008
Winner of the 2008 Hollis Summers Poetry Prize Photographing Eden presents the first full length collection of poems by a major new talent The work meditates on several ideas the crux of which is Eden spirituality environmentalism and the relationships between men and women Observing often through the lens of a camera our state in the world the poems try to focus sharply on what often seems a blur The poems are always attentive to artistic mediums and the craft behind them because our struggle is to make something perfect in the imperfect world in which we live while acknowledging the impossibility of that quest Gray's poems range all over from adventures in Egyptian ruins with machine gun toting tourist police to the western edge of the foggy Irish coastline and to the mythic past where Adam and Eve visit a zoo and Eden has become a nature preserve      Taking Eden Robert Clinton, 1998 A haunting new voice echoing Robert Frost Garcia Lorca and a dash of the Brothers Grimm      Eden's Last Horizon Philip Lee Williams, 2022-02      No Second Eden Turner Cassity, 2002-10-31 If you think that Turner Cassity has mellowed or slowed down since the 1998 release of his selected poems The Destructive Element think again In No Second Eden Cassity is back more Swiftian than ever Among the targets reduced to ruin are countertenors parole boards the French Symbolists calendar reformers the Yale Divinity School and the cult of Elvis Without turning a blind eye he even extends a toast to Wernher von Braun Surprisingly there is a poem about the Mississippi in which Cassity grew up Unsurprisingly it is a vision quite unlike others of that state Its chilly and amusing precision is about as far from Southern Gothic as you can get although elsewhere there are faint hints of a failed Good Ole Boy Indeed the final poems in the collection are a bit more personal than one expects of this writer As rigorous in form as they are in feeling the poems of No Second Eden are not for those with preconceived ideas of poetry or its purpose Early in Cassity's career James Merrill described Cassity's work as an opera house in the jungle True so far as it goes but he might also have called it the jungle in the opera house a glimpse at the savagery behind every fa ade      Remembering Eden Michael S. Glaser, 2008      Milton's Late Poems Lee Morrissey, 2022-08-25 Upending conventional scholarship on Milton and modernity Lee Morrissey recasts Paradise Lost Paradise Regained and Samson Agonistes as narrating three alternative responses to a world in upheaval adjustment avoidance and antagonism Through incisive engagement with narrative form and genre Morrissey shows how each work considered specifically as a fiction grapples with the vicissitudes of a modern world characterised more by paradoxes ambiguities subversions and shifting temporalities than by any rigid historical periodization The interpretations made possible by this book are as invaluable as they are counterintuitive opening new definitions and stimulating avenues of research for Milton students and specialists as well as for those working in the broader field of early modern studies Morrissey invites us to rethink where Milton stands in relation to the greatest products of modernity and in particular to that most modern of genres the novel      Becoming Eden Eden Aurelia Thorpe, 2024-05

Amidst the inherent darkness of the human experience Becoming Eden seeks to shed light on the path of hope resilience healing and transformation that is available to all people Each poem highlights a moment along the healing journey illuminating the ever present contrasts of despair and joy anguish and wonder Particular attention is given to themes of recovery from religious and interpersonal trauma and the possibilities for spiritual awakening that lie dormant like seeds within the spiritually traumatized heart Carefully crafted in order to convey the complexity and beauty of all things Becoming Eden is an offering of truth love and empowerment for spiritual seekers longing to find their own unique voice in the world

Still Searching for Eden John A. Murray, 2017-05-30 What happens if you combine history with the personal thoughts from a couples lifelong diary and journal entries and the creative writings of a modern day author This is exactly what you will discover within the pages of this story Come and take a trip through a combination of songs poetry personal thoughts and a small expedition through a few historical events that you may not have learned about in school It all begins with the renovation of an old Victorian house built in 1904 in Paris Texas This is book number 2 in the Still Searching series currently underway by Mr Murray Eden Maggie Helwig, 1987 Leaving Eden Nadya Aisenberg, 1995 Nadya Aisenberg is a well known U S writer and critic whose new volume of poetry is acclaimed as her finest The City of Eden Fred Moramarco, 2010-12-16 A collection of poems from the 1970s to the present 100 Poems by 100 Poets Harold Pinter, Geoffrey Godbert, Anthony Astbury, 1986 A collection of one hundred poems that the editors believe represent the finest English poetry ever written The Poems of W.B. Yeats Peter McDonald, 2023-05-31 In this multi volume edition the poetry of W B Yeats 1865 1939 is presented in full with newly established texts and detailed wide ranging commentary Yeats began to write verse in the nineteenth century and over time his own arrangements of poems repeatedly revised and rearranged both texts and canon This edition of Yeats s poetry presents all his verse both published and unpublished including a generous selection of textual variants from the many manuscript and printed sources The edition also supplies the most extensive commentary on Yeats s poetry to date explaining specific references and setting poems in their contexts it also gives an account of the vast range of both literary and historical influences at work on the verse The poems are presented in order of composition and major revisions or rewritings of poems result in separate inclusions in chronological sequence for these writings as they were subsequently reconceived by the poet In this third volume Yeats s poetry of the first decade of the twentieth century is brought into sharp focus revealing the extent of his efforts to re fashion a style that had already made him a well known poet All of the major modes in Yeats s earlier work are subject to radical re imagining in these years from poetic narrative founded in Irish myth in poems such as Baile and Aillinn and The Old Age of Queen Maeve to the symbolist drama poetry of The Shadowy Waters here edited in its two completely different versions of 1900 and 1906 In a decade when the theatre was one of Yeats s principal concerns his lyric poems which were becoming increasingly explicit in personal terms began to discover new intensities of conversational pitch and mythic resonance Poems such as The Folly of Being Comforted Adam's Curse No Second Troy and The Fascination of What's Difficult are given close attention in this new edition alongside topical and epigrammatic pieces that are often passed over in accounts of Yeats's development. The evolving complexities of Yeats's personal and political lives are crucial to his artistic growth in these years and the commentary gives these generous attention showing how the poetry both feeds upon and often transcends the circumstances of its composition. The volume offers strong evidence for this decade as a crucial one in Yeats's poetic life in which the poet created wholly new registers for his verse as well as new dimensions for his imaginative vision. The Ghost of Eden Chase Twichell, 1995 Vividly realized emotionally gripping these poems of Chase Twichell's confront the crucial issue of our times the death of nature as we have known it. The Adirondacks with their beauties and dangers are the setting for many of the poems. They are inhabited by the fox the bear the fisher cat. One is rabid another dead the third a life sustaining dream. The ghost is both the shadow of the paradise we have so carelessly ruined and the poet herself from whom the elegy for it is wrenched. These are dark poems frontal and unflinching but they are illuminated by the poet's powerful love for the earth and by the heightened surprising joys forced from a new intimacy with her own mortality.
