associated with the public private distinction working with the notions of public and private spheres while testing their currency and exploring their blurred edges The essays cover and uncover a rich variety of spaces from the slums and court rooms of London to the American wilderness from the Victorian drawing room and sick room to out of the ordinary places like Turkish baths and the trenches of the First World War Where previous studies have tended to focus on a single aspect of women s engagement with space this edited book reveals a plethora of subtle and tenacious strategies found in a variety of discourses that include fiction poetry diaries letters essays and journalism Inside Out goes beyond the early work on artistic explorations of gendered space to explore the breadth of the field and its theoretical implications Feminist Readings of Edith Wharton D. close readings of a number of familiar and unfamiliar works and an overarching account of the importance of this form of writing suggesting new ways of looking at style as a medium through which gender can be signified and reshaped Style Gender and Fantasy in Nineteenth Century American Women's Writing redefines our understanding of women's relation to aesthetics and their contribution to both American literary romanticism and feminist reform This illuminating account provides valuable new insights for scholars of American literature and women's writing Styling Texts Cynthia G. Kuhn, Cindy L. Carlson, 2007 Covering a variety of genres and periods from medieval epic to contemporary speculative fiction Styling Texts explores the fascinating ways in which dress performs in literature Numerous authors have made powerful even radical use of clothing and its implications and the essays collected here demonstrate how scholarly attention to literary fashioning can contribute to a deeper understanding of texts their contexts and their innovations These generative and engaging discussions focus on issues such as fashion and anti fashion clothing reform transvestism sartorial economics style and the gaze transgressive modes and class gender or race passing This is the first academic volume to address such an extensive range of texts inviting consideration of how fashionable desires and concerns not only articulate the aesthetics subjectivities and controversies of a given culture but also communicate across temporal and spatial divisions Styling Texts is an essential resource for anyone interested in the artistic representations and significations of dress The Portable Edith Wharton Edith Wharton, 2003 This unique collection is a rich representation of the works of one of the greatest 20th century American writers best known for her novels depicting the stifling conformity and ceremoniousness of the upper class New York society into which she was born Modern Character Julian Murphet, 2024-03-05 In this groundbreaking and comprehensive study Julian Murphet examines how dramatists and prose writers at the turn of the twentieth century experimented with new forms of modern character Old truisms of character such as consistency depth and verisimilitude are eschewed in favour of inconsistency bad faith and fragmentation Echoes of Emerson Diana Hope Polley, 2017-10-17 Probes the ways in which two major periods in nineteenth century American literature Romanticism and Realism have come to be understood and defined Sacramental Shopping Sarah Way Sherman, 2013-10-01 Illuminates modern consumer culture and its challenges to American identity and values in two classic novels Wharton, Hemingway, and the Advent of Modernism Lisa Tyler, 2019-04-17 Wharton Hemingway and the Advent of Modernism is the first book to examine the connections linking two major American writers of the twentieth century Edith Wharton and Ernest Hemingway In twelve critical essays accompanied by a foreword from Wharton scholar Laura Rattray and a critical introduction by volume editor Lisa Tyler contributors reveal the writers overlapping contexts interests and aesthetic techniques Thematic sections highlight modernist trends found in each author's works To begin Peter Hays and Ellen Andrews Knodt argue for reading Wharton as a modernist writer noting how her works feature characteristics that critics customarily credit to a younger generation of writers including Hemingway Since Wharton and Hemingway each volunteered for humanitarian medical service in World

War I then drew upon their experiences in subsequent literary works Jennifer Haytock and Milena Radeva Costello analyze their powerful perspectives on the cataclysmic conflict traditionally viewed as marking the advent of modernism in literature In turn Cecilia Macheski and Sirpa Salenius consider the authors passionate representations of Italy informed by personal sojourns there in which they observed its beautiful landscapes and culture its liberating contrast with the United States and its period of fascist politics Linda Wagner Martin Lisa Tyler and Anna Green focus on the complicated gender politics embedded in the works of Wharton and Hemingway as evidenced in their ideas about female agency sexual liberation architecture and modes of transportation In the collection s final section Dustin Faulstick Caroline Chamberlin Hellman and Parley Ann Boswell address suggestive intertextualities between the two authors with respect to the biblical book of Ecclesiastes their serialized publications in Scribner s Magazine and their affinities with the literary and cinematic tradition of noir Together the essays in this engaging collection prove that comparative studies of Wharton and Hemingway open new avenues for understanding the pivotal aesthetic and cultural movements central to the development of American literary modernism
