

SECURING OUR COMMON FUTURE

Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Education

The objective of Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Education (DNPE) and training is to impart knowledge and skills to individuals. This empowers people to make their contribution, as national and world citizens, to the achievement of concrete disarmament and non-proliferation measures. It also helps us all to contribute to the ultimate goal of general and complete disarmament under effective international control.

It offers an opportunity for deeper analysis of conflict and conflict resolution, the causes of war and the interaction between technology and warfare, emphasizing approaches to reducing and eliminating violent conflicts of all kinds.

UN Resolutions and Recommendations

In October 2002, the United Nations Study on Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Education (A/57/124) was submitted to the First Committee of the General Assembly to revitalize past disarmament education efforts. It provided 34 recommendations for action to be undertaken by Member States, the UN Office for Disarmament Affairs and its regional centres, academia, civil society, media and others.

In 2017, these 34 recommendations were reaffirmed by the Secretary-General's Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters (A/72/185). In its report, the Board called again for a reinvigoration of disarmament education activities.

Collective Action

Civil society organizations and the media have often taken a leading role in providing both formal and informal disarmament and non-proliferation education and training.

By joining together Member States, the UN System and other international organizations can collectively prepare, adapt and disseminate a wide range of targeted, user-friendly educational materials on disarmament.

New technologies

New technologies, especially the Internet and social media, create unprecedented opportunities in disarmament and non-proliferation education for both academic audiences and the general public.

The European Union Munir Hussain, 2016-12-17 This book outlines the foreign and security policy of the European Union as envisaged under the Common Foreign and Security Policy CFSP Since establishing the CFSP in the 1990s the European Union EU has showed its enthusiasm for global leadership empowering European citizenship and developing its international standing as an economic and political supranational organization In particular the book examines the EU s peacekeeping and conflict resolution dynamics in order to analyze the political and security dimensions of the EU It argues that due to the loose collective foreign policy and inter bloc dilemmas the EU has failed to perform as an actor of substance in international politics However at the regional level the EU s peacekeeping efforts have enjoyed considerable success The book further explains the dynamics of successful regional and unsuccessful extra regional peacekeeping and conflict resolution efforts on the part of the EU with the help of a case study The case study assesses two key hypotheses that the stronger an EU member state s collective Europeanization approach is the higher the success of the EU is in inter bloc disputes and that the weaker an EU member state s execution of the CFSP on international disputes is the less successful the EU is in the context of international peacekeeping
