Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information, 2001 Elenchus of Biblica, 2000 Religious Education as Encounter. A Tribute to John M. Hull Siebren Miedema, 2009 This volume is a tribute to our esteemed colleague Professor John Martin Hull for his exceptional academic achievements in the field of religious education Especially worth mentioning are his worldwide continuous efforts in trying to realize interreligious education and interreligious learning in public schools In his approach there is a strong emphasis on openness dialogue and encounter When we are looking for an adequate vignette to characterize the contribution of this famous religious educator a good one might be religious education as encounter That is why this volume is systematically focusing on this topic It brings together contributions from leading researchers in the international field of religious education adhering to a great variety of religious or worldview traditions and it addresses a wide range of perspectives regarding the concept of encounter in religious education Saint Paul and the Education Encounter Michael Victory, 2022-11-11 This book connects the Biblical Paul s work as an educator with the revival of interest in Paul s impact on contemporary social and cultural experience sometimes referred to as Paul s new moment It presents

Paul's letters as being the testament of an educator who brought a radical emancipatory approach to the communities with whom he lived and worked. The book draws on history, philosophy, New Testament studies and social theory to present the case for Paul as the initiator of a pedagogy of the event. This book explores the concept of a pedagogy of the event and provides a case study of success in its implementation. Theological Education and Christian Scholarship for Human Flourishing Celucien L. Joseph, 2022-09-14. This book explores the interconnection of theological education and Christian scholarship, cultural and theological hermeneutics, pedagogy and community knowledge, democracy and citizenship. Yet the three major disciplines or discourses covered in this work include multicultural education, theology and hermeneutics through the lens of human flourishing and the concept of the good life. From this angle, this project is written from three different methods and approaches that intersect with each other: a theology of contextualization, a hermeneutics of interculturality and a pedagogy of cultural literacy and transformative community knowledge. The book advances the idea that theological education should be the starting point to foster candid conversations about the importance of democracy and human rights, civic engagement and the political life, inclusion and diversity and pluralism and difference in our multicultural society. The book uses the tools of multicultural education and cultural knowledge to enhance democracy and promote fundamental human virtues that would sustain the good life and human flourishing in the world in the Aristotelian sense and in the Socratic idea of local and world citizenship. Finally, this text offers an alternative vision to contemporary theological education to deconstruct the white male and Eurocentric narratives of theological education and Christian scholarship.

Sharing Diversity in Missiological Research and Education International Association of Catholic Missiologists. General Assembly, 2006. Contributed papers presented at 2nd General Assembly of the International Association of Catholic Missiologists IACM held in Cochabamba, Bolivia from 30th Sept to 3rd Oct 2004. The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature Roy Gibson, Christopher Whitton, 2024-01-18. The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature offers a critical overview of work on Latin literature. Where are we? How did we get here? Where to next? Fifteen commissioned chapters along with an extensive introduction and Mary Beard's postscript approach these questions from a range of angles. They aim not to codify the field but to give snapshots of the discipline from different perspectives and to offer provocations for future development. The Critical Guide aims to stimulate reflection on how we engage with Latin literature. Texts, tools and territories are the three areas of focus. The Guide situates the study of classical Latin literature within its global context from late antiquity to Neo Latin, moving away from an exclusive focus on the pre-200 CE corpus. It recalibrates links with adjoining disciplines: history, philosophy, material culture, linguistics, political thought, Greek and takes a fresh look at key tools: editing, reception, intertextuality, theory. Encountering the Book of Romans Douglas J. Moo, 2002-12. An engaging and user-friendly survey of the Book of Romans. American Book Publishing Record, 2000. Ecumenical Encounters with Desmond Mpilo Tutu Sarojini Nadar, Tinyiko Maluleke, Dietrich Werner, Vicentia Kgabe, Rudolf Hinz, 2021-10-07. This inspiring collection of 72 critical and creative contributions honouring the life and work of Desmond Mpilo Tutu comprises a rich and diverse array of reflections on the ecumenical global struggle against Apartheid and Archbishop Tutu's role therein as a political priest prophet and intellectual. The encounters with the Arch and his work has shaped ongoing faith based activist and academic pursuits for justice peace and dignity. Anyone familiar with his outstanding contributions to the promotion of justice dignity and peace will know that a hallmark of Desmond Tutu's celebrated style is his use of narrative and real life stories. In honour of his unique and remarkable example the contributions in this book combine oral history and written history paradigms as well as sociological philosophical and theological approaches. While the book is meant to be a memorial recollection of encounters with the Arch the hope is that these recollections will continue to inspire collective struggles and hopes for justice peace and dignity.

An Old Testament Theology Bruce K. Waltke, 2011-04-19 The Old Testament is more than a religious history of the nation of Israel. It is more than a portrait gallery of heroes of the faith. It is even more than a theological and prophetic backdrop to the New Testament. Beyond these the Old Testament is inspired revelation of the very nature character and works of God. As renowned Old Testament scholar Bruce Waltke writes in the preface of this book the Old Testament's every sentence is fraught with theology worthy of reflection. This book is the result of decades of reflection informed by an extensive knowledge of the Hebrew language the best of critical scholarship a deep understanding of both the content and spirit of the Old Testament and a thoroughly evangelical conviction. Taking a narrative chronological approach to the text Waltke employs rhetorical criticism to illuminate the theologies of the biblical narrators. Through careful study he shows that the unifying theme of the Old Testament is the breaking in of the kingdom of God. This theme helps the reader better understand not only the Old Testament but also the New Testament the continuity of the entire Bible and ultimately God himself.

a critical dictionary of english literature and british and american authors s. austin allibone, 1876 The Magazine of Christian Literature , 1890 Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter Peter C. Phan, Anh Q. Tran, 2024-05-15 Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter underscores the urgency of interreligious dialogue for contemporary society aiming to foster interfaith understanding justice and peace. The initial section focuses on novel approaches to engaging with the religious Other through non-Christian sacred texts. Contributors explore the Jewish-Christian relationship offer Christian interpretations of Hindu Buddhist and Confucian scriptures and discuss the Qur'an's potential to refine Christian theology. The dangers of comparative theology are warned against and alternative perspectives such as Asian liberation theology are proposed for situating religion critically as well as share the insights on Christian engagement with Zen practice. The second part explores the transformation of key Christian doctrines through interreligious encounters. Contributors delve into topics such as the conditions for faith and divine revelation formulating a Christology in dialogue with Asian traditions and understanding the Spirit as a source of questioning. They investigate the communitarian dimension of religious faith discuss the Catholic Church's stance on interreligious dialogue examine the role of biblical hermeneutics in decolonizing theology and reflect on the existential threat of ecological destruction The third part pays tribute to Leo Lefebure emphasizing his impact on Catholic theology and comparative theology and concludes with Lefebure s epilogue providing him with the last word The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc ,1829 Legacies of Christian Language and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik,Jennifer C. Stone,Kevin J. Burke,Denise Dávila,2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes language and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian language and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others New Outlook ,1896
