Education on Trial William J. Johnston, 1985 Resources in Education ,2001-10 The Transformation of the American Democratic Republic Stephen M. Krason, 2017-09-08 In this stimulating volume Stephen M Krason considers whether the Founding Fathers vision of the American democratic republic has been transformed and if so in what ways He looks to the basic principles of the Founding Fathers then discusses the changes that resulted from evolving contemporary expectations about government Referencing philosophical principles and the work of great Western thinkers Krason then explores a variety of proposals that could forge a foundation for restoration Acknowledging that any attempt to revive the Founders views on a democratic republic must start in the public sphere Krason focuses on concerned citizens who are aware of the extent to which our current political structures deviate from the Founders vision and want to take action Ultimately a democratic republic can exist be sustained and flourish only when there is a deep commitment to it in the minds and norms of its people Written by a foremost authority in the field of US Constitutional law this book will appeal to those interested in American history society and politics Education for Hope John E Hull, 2023-01-28 This book traces the little known history of an alternative school system erected in Canada by post WWII Dutch Neo Calvinist immigrants In less than four decades this community established a kindergarten to university education system that extended from Ottawa Ontario to Victoria BC This remarkable tradition of education imagines the school as a dissident and transformational social institution While this book offers the narrative of faith based tradition of education the author makes a strong case that educators from diverse ideological backgrounds can learn important lessons from it about the implementation of an alternative educational vision teacher led curriculum reform and a self formative pedagogy To supplement this narrative the author also provides a separate set of theoretical discussions on key issues in school reform as well as his memoir as an educator and curriculum designer within this tradition Future Survey Annual 1986 Michael Marien, 1987-01-01 Ed School Geraldine Jon ich Clifford, James W. Guthrie, 1990-07-02 Although schools of law medicine and business are now highly respected schools of education and the professionals they produce continue to be held in low regard In Ed School Geraldine Jon ich Clifford and James W Guthrie attribute this phenomenon to issues of academic politics and gender bias as they trace the origins and development of the school of education in the United States Drawing on case studies of leading schools of education the authors offer a bold controversial agenda for reform ed schools must reorient themselves toward teachers and away from the quest for prestige in academe they must also adhere to national professional standards abandon the undergraduate education major and reject the Ph D in education in favor of the Ed D Teachers Can be Fired! Hans A. Andrews, 1995 What if excellent teaching were guaranteed in every classroom Teachers Can Be Fired is an essential guide for anyone who is serious about making that possibility a reality Dr Andrews explains how the Total Quality Management movement so successful in business and industry can be applied to the most important element in the schools teachers He argues persuasively for heavy reliance on supervisory administrative evaluation practices as the most legally defensible and helpful system

The American Experiment James MacGregor Burns, 2013-05-21 The Pulitzer Prize winning author's stunning trilogy of American history spanning the birth of the Constitution to the final days of the Cold War. In these three volumes Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner James MacGregor Burns chronicles with depth and narrative panache the most significant cultural, economic and political events of American history. In The Vineyard of Liberty he combines the color and texture of early American life with meticulous scholarship. Focusing on the tensions leading up to the Civil War, Burns brilliantly shows how Americans became divided over the meaning of Liberty. In The Workshop of Democracy Burns explores more than a half century of dramatic growth and transformation of the American landscape through the addition of dozens of new states, the shattering tragedy of the First World War, the explosion of industry and in the end the emergence of the United States as a new global power. And in The Crosswinds of Freedom Burns offers an articulate and incisive examination of the US during its rise to become the world's sole superpower through the Great Depression, the Second World War, the Cold War and the rapid pace of technological change that gave rise to the American Century.

Education and Justice Edmund W. Gordon, 1999 As a renowned humanist, psychologist and educator, Dr. Gordon is an African American who has spent most of his life in racially integrated sections of society, but he has never completely lost the sense that he is representing those who have been relegated to the back of the bus. Both scholarly and accessible, this book examines many of the most important issues of educational theory and practice and places them in the context of the social justice imperative. Each section of essays, including two new essays prepared especially for this book, is introduced with commentaries in which the author contextualizes and explains the continuing relevance of the issues for today's educator.

Accountability, Assessment, and Teacher Commitment Betty Lou Whitford, Ken Jones, 2000-01-06 Accountability, Assessment, and Teacher Commitment offers a vantage point to draw lessons from and ponder alternatives to the Kentucky Education Reform Act (KERA), a state school reform effort based on a system of statewide student assessment and high stakes accountability for teachers. It documents classroom realities and probes the consequences of this type of reform through case studies, comparisons to alternative models, and thought-provoking responses from national experts. Richardson Love, Jr., Christy D. McGee, Lynne Miller, Beverly D. Moore, Cynthia A. Reeves, David Ruff, Gordon Ruscoe, Linda Shelor, Debra Smith, John Snyder, Patricia A.
