Teaching Leaders to Lead Teachers Saran Donahoo, Richard C Hunter, 2007-08-20 TEACHING LEADERS TO LEAD TEACHERS EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION IN THE ERA OF CONSTANT CRISIS In the 21st century the perceived crisis in how schools educate students significantly influences the decision of teachers to move into administrative positions as well as their ability to succeed once they take on these positions Influenced by the media the community and the teacher's lounge many good educators are increasingly unwilling or simply unprepared to make the jump into school leadership and management This book addresses some of the issues that affect school leadership by providing insights into the current state of educational administration in the hope of demystifying or dismissing some of the popular assumptions regarding what really takes place in the administration office In doing so this text examines topics related to the preparation and training of prospective administrators factors that affect the process of leading in learning environments and perspectives on the state and structure of school leadership research and development Journal of School Leadership, 1999 An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education Even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony and many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree The Essentials of School Leadership Brent Davies, 2009-01-18 Building on the success of the first edition this book provides a focused up to date introduction to the current themes and dimensions of educational leadership through contributions from some of the leading authors in the field Each chapter introduces the reader to a key aspect of leadership This new edition has been fully updated to include recent developments new chapter summaries and further reading and a new chapter on Developing Leadership Written in an accessible style this book is essential reading for school leaders who wish to have a better understanding of their leadership role It is also suitable for Masters Doctoral students worldwide and will give those on professional development courses a valuable insight into school leadership

Leadership in Early Childhood Education Joce Nuttall,Linda Henderson,Elizabeth Wood,Jenny Martin,2024-06-12 The book presents a conceptual framework for understanding leadership for effective educator learning in early childhood settings The book describes how leaders can move centre practices from crisis to stabilization It argues that a core component of leaders work in early childhood settings is to construct and enact epistemological accounts of practice change The book includes case examples that bring to life the contexts early childhood services and services leaders who participated in the research The book also describes the application of cultural historical activity theory to the development of practice in early childhood education It describes how background theory literature and data can be synthesized to create new focal theory in education Readers will benefit from the theory that is presented establishing a sound basis for testing in future research in schools as well as in early childhood education Joce Nuttall and team are congratulated for their ground breaking scholarly endeavour in designing implementing validating findings and then writing a book that unambiguously connects theory policy practice in enacting leadership in early childhood settings This book is ambitious eloquent and inspirational The research was driven by a bold vision to build a new theorisation of early childhood leadership The writing style of the book makes the complex clear and easy to digest and thereby strengthening its readability and understanding The comparative lens adopted in the study underscores the neoliberal control of the working lives of early childhood leaders in both Australia and England The use of case study narratives to explain various aspects including the study design and methodology was refreshingly engaging Notes of encouragement addressed to novice researchers such as those embarking on higher degree studies also provide apt guidance about the messiness of conducting qualitative research The book is infused with lots of examples demonstrating the transformative power of learning especially when expertly scaffolded by the research team and thereby increasing practitioner agency and quality improvement across the early childhood setting If professional autonomy is the driver of reform and change then we must find ways to nurture strong educational leaders who can think outside the box Overall Nuttall and team succeed in arousing learning rich possibilities for reimagining early childhood leadership in theory and in practice and thereby making a magnificent contribution to the scholarship of educational leadership Professor Manjula Waniganayake PhD Macquarie University Sydney Australia

Navigating the Ubiquitous, Misunderstood, and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program Coordinator in Higher Education Noelle A. Paufler, Ellen H. Reames, 2023-11-01 Navigating the Ubiquitous Misunderstood and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program Coordinator in Higher Education is an edited volume of chapters focused on the role of the program coordinator PC in educational leadership The book is a recent addition to the book series Dimensions of Leadership and Institutional Success Exploring Connections and Partnerships edited by Ellen H Reames Noelle A Paufler and Ellen H Reames editors created this book to examine various aspects of the PC role because it has been largely ignored in the educational leadership preparation literature The book examines various aspects of the PC role to include responsibilities navigating the politics and policies of higher education and educational agencies internal and external problems and barriers related to the role and recommendations and possibilities for enhancing the PC role The book is divided into 3 sections Section 1 centers on the roles of the PC and also includes a model that can be used to structure PC responsibilities within programs Section 2 focuses the readers attention to present misunderstanding of the PC as a quasiadministrative role which appears to be gaining in clarity through present research Section 3 gives a glimpse to future trends which includes the growing use of clinical faculty as PCs The primary audience is higher education faculty and administrators The term program coordinator spans across all disciplines and is used in most higher education institutions across the United States Higher education institutions are also interested in sustaining partnerships within the university and the communities beyond This book can assist with nuances of partnership development for any higher education field of study The audience also includes faculty in higher educational leadership program development and school university partnership development and enhancement across public and private enterprises who are educating future leaders Other interested groups are university and school based professionals who are seeking to improve relationships partnerships and collaborations between educational leadership preparation programs and K 12 districts and related agencies The book would also be of value to those who conduct research in the areas of partnership creation and implementation and to those who conduct research which improves educational leadership preparation and development The role of the PC in educational leadership is critical to the success of higher education leadership preparation programs and is often very different than PCs in other higher education disciplines

School Leadership for Authentic Family and Community Partnerships Susan

Auerbach, 2012-05-22 School leaders are increasingly called upon to pursue meaningful partnerships with families and community groups yet many leaders are unprepared to meet the challenges of partnerships to cross cultural boundaries or to be accountable to the community Alliances are needed among educators families and community groups that value relationship building dialogue and power sharing as part of socially just democratic schools This book brings together research perspectives that intersect the fields of leadership and partnerships to inform and inspire more authentic collaboration Contributors from the fields of educational leadership family engagement school community partnerships and education for social justice come together to examine the role of educational leaders in promoting partnerships as a dimension of leadership for social justice The volume offers a mix of empirical conceptual and reflective chapters with research representing qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches in urban suburban and rural schools The chapter Conversations with Community Oriented Leaders includes candid advice from district and school level administrators on this under documented aspect of leadership Situating leadership for partnerships within the leadership literature this book proposes a model for addressing tensions embedded in home school relations and leading schools toward more authentic relationships with stakeholders This collection of original scholarly articles will be a unique resource for new and aspiring administrators and for researchers in both the fields of leadership and school family community partnerships
