Peter Clarke recounts an artist's life in the context of the social history of South Africa from the 1940s onwards. His images reflect the social disruption of the Cape Flats and the trauma of his community's forced removal from Simon's Town to the bleak apartheid township of Ocean View. Yet Clarke's images have avoided bitterness and his work is a perceptive scrutiny and celebration of life in all its aspects. Illustrated with over 200 reproductions and photographs, this book was researched and written by well-known South African art historians Philippa Hobbs and Elizabeth Rankin in close collaboration with the artist over almost seven years. Thirties, British Art and Design Before the War Arts Council of Great Britain, Hayward Gallery, 1979

Before & After Great Bardfield - The Artistic Memoirs of Lucie Aldridge: Lucie Aldridge, Robjn Cantus, 2021-08-09. It will have to wait until I'm dead or Laura will shoot me. Lucie Aldridge wrote of her autobiography referring to Robert Graves's long-term mistress and muse Laura Riding. A painter and rug weaver, Lucie Aldridge settled in the Essex village of Great Bardfield in 1933 with her husband, the painter John Aldridge. Also living there at that time were Eric Ravilious and his wife Tirzah Garwood, who were cohabiting with Charlotte and Edward Bawden. When Tirzah and John had an affair, it tarnished the Aldridge's marriage forever, something Garwood didn't acknowledge in her biography Long Live Great Bardfield. This is Lucie's newly discovered autobiography with a detailed biographical postscript by Robjn Cantus. The memoirs were written at the suggestion of the editor of Time magazine, T. S. Matthews. They describe her unorthodox childhood in Cambridgeshire, the involvement of her family in Women's Suffrage, her marriage during the First World War, and her experiences at Art School in London in the 1920s. A beautiful woman, she posed for several artists. She also observed the post-war era of the Bright Young Things and the painters she knew, including Robert Bevan, Cedric Morris, and Stanley Spencer. Through John Aldridge, she came to know Robert Graves when he was living in Dei with Riding and provides a fascinating account of her visits there while Graves was in self-imposed exile after writing Goodbye to All That. During these visits, she also met and wrote about poets and artists such as Norman Cameron and Len Lye. Lucie's memoir is illustrated by Edward Bawden. After Lucie's death in 1974, the memoir was lost but it recently surfaced in an American university archive. This is its first publication, with Lucie's text illustrated with linocuts by Edward Bawden. The postscript covers the other artists of Great Bardfield and their friends. Printed in a limited edition of 50 hardback copies and 250 paperbacks. The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library (London), Jim Emmett, 1979

Colours of War Alan Ross, 1983. Outstanding were the large-scale works dealing with aerial warfare of England by Paul Nash, a survivor of the Western Front. Three exceptionally talented war artists were killed: Eric Ravilious, whose subjects ranged from northern convoys and submarines to the Fleet Air Arm; Albert Richards, who painted paratroopers and tank battles during the advance into Germany; and Thomas Hennell, who began work in trawlers off Iceland and was last seen in Java. The war in Europe, the Middle East and Burma was recorded variously by Edward Bawden Anthony Gross Edward Ardizzone and William Coldstream Leonard Rosoman drew aircraft on the flight decks of carriers in Japanese waters Barnett Freedman produced studies of submarine and battleship crews Some of the most dramatic paintings of the war were those made by Richard Eurich of preparations for D Day In almost every case active service had a crucial effect on the subsequent work of war artists Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
