A Guide to the European Community Programmes in the Fields of Education, Training and Youth DIANE Publishing Company,1995-11 Guide to the European Community Programmes in the Fields of Education, Training, Youth Commission of the European Communities. Task Force Human Resources, Education, Training, and Youth,1993 This guide was first published in 1989 was acclaimed a great success and was considered to be a concise and reliable source of information on Community programmes and the ways and means of accessing information on such programmes In the rrfean time the range of fields of Community activities has been considerably extended and the Commission s Task Force for Human Resources has therefore decided to publish this second revised edition of the guide A general feeling now exists throughout the European Community that the future of Europe will be determined largely by the creativity talent and resolve of its citizens The development of the Community s human resources will depend essentially on measures implemented in the field of education and training by the Member States supplemented and supported by action on the part of the European Community The aim must be to make full use of the wealth of diversity in the systems and practices followed in the Community so that the quality of education and training can be enhanced by active cooperation and the institutions and individual citizens in the Member States can be placed in a position where they can visualize their future in terms of a European dimension Guide to the European Community Programmes in the Fields of Education, Training, Youth ,1993 Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa Rees,2006-06-19 Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union provides a critical overview and evaluation of the potential role of the EU in perpetuating or breaking down gender segregation in the EU labour force Teresa Rees draws upon feminist theoretical frameworks in assessing Equal Opportunitues policies and the role of training in the labour market The same economic imperatives which put women s training on the agenda have heightened interest in designing training which attracts women into mainstream provision Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union addresses the urgent need for academics education and training providers as well as policy makers to be aware of current thinking at EU level on training policy The Routledge Encyclopaedia of UK Education, Training and Employment John P. Wilson,2013-12-16 A comprehensive guide to all the main labour market initiatives and agencies combining education and employment in the UK this encyclopaedia presents an historical progression from the Guilds and Statute of Artifices in 1563 through to present day initiatives and changes Fully cross referenced throughout with a full list of acronyms bibliographic and internet resources the encyclopaedia includes Detailed descriptions of all major government initiatives connecting education training and employment Documentation covering England Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales and initiatives in Ireland up to Irish independence A brief history of education and employment in the UK Chronological history of Government Departments Outlines of all major public agencies and qualifications An extensive glossary of acronyms Information on rarely recorded and inaccessible historical documents With over 1500 entries this encyclopaedia crosses knowledge boundaries providing for the first time an integrated map of national human capital development It addresses preschool initiatives primary secondary further and higher education vocational education and training labour market interventions including those designed to return people to employment and government strategies designed to enhance economic and technological competitiveness The cross referenced structure provides connections to associated items and a chronological tracing of agencies and initiatives This encyclopaedia will appeal to those involved in all aspects of education training employment careers information advice and guidance and policy making     Resources in Education ,1998     Power and Responsibility in Education Keith Watson,Celia Modgil,Sohan Modgil,1997-01-01 This study by more than 130 contributors assesses the moves to decentralize educational administration The text contains overviews by individual authors and joint papers forming dialogues between different academic contenders It provides a survey of educational policies and planning and an analysis of the changes in England and Wales Curriculum control privatization and leadership issues are also debated This book is one of four volumes which consider the educational dilemmas facing governments professional educators and practising administrators in the current educational climate The issues are addressed from international and comparative perspectives     The Learning Society: Challenges and Trends Richard Edwards,Peter Raggatt,Nick Small,2013-12-16 The learning society is not a new idea although its popularity has grown in recent years with the suggestion that lifelong learning is a condition for economic competitiveness in a global economy replacing the earlier conception of it as a condition for democratic citizenship This reader designed to accompany Module E827 of the MA in Education critically examines the demographic technological economic and cultural challenges which have led to interest in the idea of a learning society and explores their policy and practical implications for lifelong learning It also explores and evaluates trends in education and training which support the development of a learning society Overall the book provides readers with a range of opinions on the learning society within which broad context they can place their own practice     Research Handbook on EU Sports Law and Policy Jack Anderson,Richard Parrish,Borja García,2018-07-27 The EU s influence on sport has traditionally focused on the socio economic and cultural impact This Research Handbook on EU Sports Law explores the development of the European dimension in sport and the concomitant legal issues including competition law state aid and free movement of persons The application of such areas of EU law to sport and the influence of EU law on key policy issues such as doping match fixing and governance are detailed in this comprehensive collection The topical chapters by experts in their field also touch upon the future evolution of EU sports law     The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations Thomas Hoerber,Gabriel Weber,Ignazio Cabras,2022-02-27 The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations fills a significant gap in the European studies literature by providing crucial and groundbreaking coverage of several key areas that are usually neglected or excluded in European integration collections Whilst still examining the largest and most influential institutions bodies and highly funded policy areas as acknowledged dominant topics in European studies it crucially does so with much greater balance by devoting equal billing to areas such as culture in European integration or new technologies and their impact on the EU Organised around three main sections culture technology and tangibles the book offers an authoritative encyclopaedia to alternative areas in European integration from media football Erasmus and tourism to transport space AI and energy retains coverage of the dominant topics in European studies such as the Eurozone the Common Internal Market or European law but in balance with other areas of interest and provides an essential companion to existing scholarship in European studies The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations is essential reading and an authoritative reference for scholars students researchers and practitioners involved in and actively concerned about research in the study of European integration studies The Open Access version of Chapter 14 in this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
