John of the Cross Sam Hole, 2020-11-19

Through the dark night of the soul to the depiction of the erotically charged union of the soul and God the poetry and prose works of the Spanish friar John of the Cross 1542 1591 offer a striking account of the transformation of the individual in the course of the Christian life John of the Cross Desire Transformation and Selfhood argues that these writings are animated by John's own creative and subtly conceptualized notion of erotic desire John's understanding of desire has the potential to enrich recent theological discussion of the subject but it has been curiously neglected in past scholarship To correct this lacuna this study undertakes a detailed historical analysis in three parts Firstly it attends to the patristic medieval and sixteenth century Spanish influences on John's writings showing how John reworks a long tradition of biblical Christian and Platonic reflection on the concept Secondly it traces the importance of desire through John's writings demonstrating how he develops the theme through his poetry his anthropology of the soul and his account of the spiritual ascent Thirdly it explores the reception of his writings in the twentieth century demonstrating how particular modern philosophical and theological commitments have prevented scholars from recognising the rich and distinctive shape of John's theological vision John's account of the transformation of the self with its hopeful vision of the graced transformation of the soul's desires has significance beyond the constrained modern categories of systematic theology Christian spirituality pastoral theology and mysticism it is a vision that is worthy of recovery today

Christian Mysticism's Queer Flame
Michael Bernard Kelly,2018-09-03 Is the Christian mystical tradition a relic of another time shaped by celibates for celibates unable to engage meaningfully with people of our time who embrace their corporeality and sexuality as crucial aspects of their journey towards union with God This book reflects in serious theological depth and detail on the spiritual and sexual journeys of gay men of mature and committed Christian faith employing the Christian mystical tradition as the lens and the interlocutor in this process This study examines the major themes and stages of the mystical tradition as outlined by Evelyn Underhill but also including more recent work by Ruth Burrows Thomas Merton and Constance Fitzgerald Using methods of qualitative research it then considers the texts of in depth interviews conducted with men most of whom are theologians or spiritual leaders with a deep Catholic faith and all of whom are openly self affirmingly gay Finally it employs Ricoeur s hermeneutical theory to engage in a creative theological conversation between the traditional mystical stages and themes and these men s lives as described in their interviews This is a unique study that brings together ancient spirituality with contemporary lived religion As such it will be of interest to scholars of religious studies theology Christian mysticism and spirituality and queer studies It will be of particular interest to those teach spiritual direction and to all who seek new ways to engage with the spiritual lives of LGBTIQ people

Effort and Grace Simone Kotva, 2020-06-25 Philosophy and theology have long harboured contradictory views on spiritual practice While philosophy advocates the therapeutic benefits of daily meditation the theology of grace promotes an ideal of happiness bestowed with little effort As such the historical juxtaposition of effort and grace grounding modern spiritual exercise can be seen as the essential tension between the secular and sacred In Effort and Grace Simone Kotva explores an exciting new theory of spiritual endeavour from the tradition of French spiritualist philosophy Spiritual exercise has largely been studied in relation to ancient philosophy and the Ignatian tradition yet Kotva's new engagement with its more recent forms has alerted her to an understanding of contemplative practice as rife with critical potential Here she offers an interdisciplinary text tracing the narrative of spiritual exertion through the work of seminal French thinkers such as Maine de Biran Félix Ravaisson Henri Bergson Alain mile Chartier Simone Weil and Gilles Deleuze Her findings allow both secular philosophers and theologians to understand how the spiritual life can participate in the contemporary philosophical conversation
