Guillaume Apollinaire Athlone French Poets:

Guillaume Apollinaire Roger Little, 1976 An Anthology of Modern French Poetry (1850-1950) Peter Broome, Graham Chesters, 1976-07-15 This anthology is the companion volume to The Appreciation of Modern French Poetry the aim of which was to give detailed preliminary help with the problems of poetic appreciation The fourteen poets represented here provide a varied and exciting introduction to what is probably the richest century of French poetry from 1850 to 1950 Hugo the colossus of the nineteenth century whose work gives new resonance and vitality to imaginative vision opens the anthology and Michaux the most individual and modern of twentieth century poets in that he bridges the gap between poetry and contemporary science closes it Almost all the major poets of the period are included Nerval Baudelaire Mallarmé Verlaine Rimbaud and Laforgue from the second half of the nineteenth century Valéry Apollinaire Supervielle and Eluard in the twentieth The lesser known Cros and Desnos fresh and spontaneous poets with an immediate appeal invite a new look at the lyric traditions of French verse and offer an attractive new avenue for study The choice of poems dictated above all by their individual poetic value reflects also the trends of recent criticism and the tastes of present day readers The texts are all accompanied by full notes which not only explain local difficulties of vocabulary syntax and expression but lead the reader directly into the heart of the richness of theme style and interpretation These will prove of value not only to the student who is grappling with the basics of French verse or is anxious to give depth to his familiarity but to the general reader seeking to rekindle his enjoyment of French poetry In addition there are introductions to each poet summarizing the essence of his art useful suggestions for further reading and groups of discussion topics to stimulate comparative insights and a wider responsiveness Reading Apollinaire Timothy Mathews, 1987 Sensibility and Creation Roger Cardinal, 2025-05-01 Sensibility and Creation 1977 comprises a dozen critical studies by different contributors on a selection of major French poets of the twentieth century These range from poets of long established reputation such as Paul Valéry Pierre Reverdy Saint John Perse and Paul Eluard to contemporary poets such as Yves Bonnefoy and Jacques Dupin The guiding theme is that of the characteristic sensibility which informs the creative work of each poet the way he has of selecting and patterning the elements which make up the world he inhabits and which in a sense he is also creating In some instances the poetry is examined for its selective textures and shapes and in others the critical focus is more closely directed to the linguistic and stylistic strategies adopted by the writer Guillaume Apollinaire Mark W. Waggoner, 1994 Alcools Guillaume Apollinaire, 2000-12-01 Guillaume Apollinaire a leading figure amongst the young writers and artists in France until his death in 1918 published Alcools his first book of poems in 1913 With its wide range of verse forms and contrasting registers of style Alcools had a considerable influence on Surrealist poetry The poems provide a splendid example of the lyrical art in which the paradoxes of Apollinaire are held in high poetic tension The editor's introduction and notes take place in the 20th Century and explain allusion and difficulties in the text Modern French Poets Jean-François Leroux, 2002 Essays on

French poets of the twentieth century discusses collective creations open ended storytelling Cubism surrealism avant garde poetry symbolism as well as reflections on the various creative processes employed by these French poets The Cambridge Introduction to French Literature Brian Nelson, 2015-06-05 In this highly accessible introduction Brian Nelson provides an overview of French literature its themes and forms traditions and transformations from the Middle Ages to the present Major writers including Francophone authors writing from areas other than France are discussed chronologically in the context of their times to provide a sense of the development of the French literary tradition and the strengths of some of the most influential writers within it Nelson offers close readings of exemplary passages from key works presented in English translation and with the original French The exploration of the work of important writers including Villon Racine Molière Voltaire Balzac Flaubert Zola Proust Sartre and Beckett highlights the richness and diversity of French literature

Selected Poems Guillaume Apollinaire, 2015-11-12 In the end you are tired of this antiquated world Guillaume Apollinaire 1880-1918 is the most significant French poet of early modernism and the most colourful His exuberant adventurous poetry matched the eventful times through which he lived and his experimentalism heralded a new artistic order In the Paris of the belle époque Apollinaire's prolific writing poems short stories erotic novels art criticism as well as his magnetic personality brought him fame and even some notoriety His two great collections of poetry Alcools and Calligrammes made his reputation and they include love poems as well as the war poetry for which he is best known Apollinaire coined the word surrealism and he led the literary and artistic avant garde right up to his death two days before the Armistice weakened by injuries received earlier in the War This new selection by Martin Sorrell covers the full range of Apollinaire's career and includes some of the poet's inventive pictorial calligrams The introduction and notes explore his seminal role in the culture of the twentieth century ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Australian Journal of French Studies, 1978 Spatiality and Subjecthood in Mallarmé, Apollinaire, Maeterlinck, and Jarry Leo Shtutin, 2019-02-07 This study explores the interrelationship between spatiality and subjecthood in the work of Stéphane Mallarmé Guillaume Apollinaire Maurice Maeterlinck and Alfred Jarry Concerned with various modes of poetry and drama it also examines the cross pollination that can occur between these modes focusing on a range of core texts including Mallarmé's Un Coup de Dés Apollinaire's Zone and various of his calligrammes Maeterlinck's early one act plays L'Intruse Les Aveugles and Intérieur and Jarry's Ubu Roi and César Antechrist The poetic and dramatic practices of these four authors are assessed against the broader cultural and philosophical contexts of the fin de siècle The fin de siècle witnessed a profound epistemological shift the Newtonian Cartesian paradigm increasingly challenged throughout the nineteenth century was largely dismantled with ramifications beyond physics philosophy and psychology Chapter 1 introduces three foundational notions Newtonian absolute space the unitary Cartesian subject and subject object dualism that were challenged and ultimately overthrown in turn of the century science and art Developments in theatre architecture and typographic design are examined against this philosophical backdrop with a view to establishing a diachronic and interdisciplinary framework of the authors in question Chapter 2 focuses on the spatial dimension of Mallarmé's Un Coup de dés and Apollinaire's calligrammes works which defamiliarise page space by undermining various naturalised conventions of paginal configuration In Chapter 3 the notion of liminality is implemented in an analysis of character and diegetic space as constructed in Jarry's Ubu roi and Maeterlinck's one acts Chapters 4 and Chapter 5 undertake a more abstract investigation of parallel inverse processes the subjectivisation of space and the spatialisation of the subject manifest not only in the works of Mallarmé Maeterlinck Apollinaire and Jarry but in the period's poetry and drama more generally

The Poetry of Miklós Radnóti Emery Edward George, 1986 Three

Pre-surrealist Plays Maya Slater, 1997 The landmark plays from the French theatre included in this edition embody the transition from the old to the modern in dramatic experimentation precursors of surrealism they are innovative outrageous and highly enjoyable Consisting of Maeterlinck's The Blind Jarry's Ubu the King and Apollinaire's The Mammaries of Tiresias this edition provides new translations sensitive to crucial linguistic features such as rhyme and pun and contains the only editions of Maeterlinck and Apollinaire's plays in print These three plays written between 1890 and 1917 surprised and shocked their first audiences and still continue to do so today

Moy Qui Me Voy George Craig, Margaret M. McGowan, 1989 Montaigne's phrase Moi qui me voy concerns a problem that many writers must face the discovery that somewhere between the intention and the act of writing the author has to deal with the question of the self a seductive and tiresome voice clamoring to be heard This book presents twelve essays on poetry prose fiction the essay and other forms of discourse from the Renaissance to the 20th century that examine this problem a problem that has a crucial bearing on the continuing debate about autobiography and the author text relationship Together the essays emphasize the rich French tradition of introspective writing as exemplified by Montaigne Pascal Rousseau Hugo Flaubert Sartre Camus Frénaud and Leiris

Twentieth-century French Dramatists Mary Anne O'Neil, 2006 Essays on twentieth century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid 1700s French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan experimental and eclectic and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium
