The Psychology of Skin Bleaching Christopher A.D. Charles,2025-04-29 This book examines the controversial global phenomenon of skin bleaching It uses a social psychological approach to explain the motivations behavior and medical consequences of the practice considering why some people use products to lighten their complexion Written by a world leading expert in skin bleaching the book takes a nuanced approach to understanding skin bleaching that looks further than the standard claims of low self esteem a form of self hatred It goes beyond looking at individual personality traits to consider the cultural norms values shared social meanings and practices about race and skin color showing how shared meanings from social representation guide people's behavior in their culture. The book draws predominantly on research from Jamaica but considers how skin bleaching is practised in different cultural contexts across the Americas, Europe, Asia, and Africa. Chapters consider the history of race and skin color, how skin color and race are portrayed in popular culture, how skin color and race form two of some people's social identities, and how skin bleaching has become an established social practice in many settings. It also looks at the consequences of skin bleaching and suggests policy responses that could help curb the practice. The Psychology of Skin Bleaching will be highly relevant reading for students and scholars in the fields of psychology, Black and Caribbean studies, sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, and health. Vertical Judicial Dialogues in Asylum Cases Dana Baldinger, 2015-05-12

What do international and EU law require from the national asylum judge with regard to the intensity of judicial scrutiny to be applied and evidentiary issues? To answer that question, an analysis is made of the provisions on national judicial proceedings contained in the Refugee Convention, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), the UN Convention against Torture (CAT), the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights. In addition, the assessment as performed by the UN Human Rights Committee, the UN Committee against Torture, and the European Court of Human Rights in cases concerning the expulsion of asylum seekers is analysed.

Times Without Number John Brunner, 2011-09-29

If the past is tampered with, the present might be totally transformed. So the whole fabric of reality depends on the watchful efforts of the Society of Time. Don Miguel Navarro is a junior officer in this force dedicated to defending the Spanish Empire and the mother church from the results of meddling in history by time travellers. But he begins to wonder just how dedicated the Society really is when he has to deal with a case of corruption involving fellow officers. After he has to rescue the entire court from death at the hands of Amazon warriors brought through time, his greatest trial becomes unavoidable. Facing a threat to the most vulnerable event in his world's history, can the young Don prevent catastrophe? Or will the glorious triumph of the Spanish Armada never have occurred?
