From Silver Screen to Spanish Stage Stuart Nishan Green, 2011-05-31 This is the first book length English language study of a group of five artists closely linked with the Spanish avant garde in the 1920s and 1930s now known as the Other Generation of 27 In the same way that their contemporaries of the celebrated Generation of 27 which included Federico Garcia Lorca attempted a revolution of the arts through poetry inspired by European modernism the Other Generation of 27 attempted to renovate Spanish humour first in prose and then in the theatre and cinema This book demonstrates how these humorists drew on the humour of Chaplin Keaton Lubitsch and the Marx Brothers for their stage comedy and how they stretched the limits of the stage at the time by incorporating cinematic techniques such as flashback voice overs and montage in their search for new dramatic forms

La censura y el nuevo cine espa ol Luis Vaquerizo Garc a, 2014-07-15 La dictadura franquista coincidi con el desarrollo del cinemat grafo en Espa a por lo que su popularidad origin un control exhaustivo de las im genes proyectadas La institucionalización de la censura se convierte en un medio de subsistencia para el régimen. En los años sesenta las circunstancias políticas propiciaron el nacimiento del Nuevo Cine Español. El movimiento irrumpió como un islote de intelectualidad en un medio constreído y forzado a la huida de compromiso. Autores como Saura, Camus, Martín Patino o Summers filmaron sus primeras películas. El carácter efímero de la corriente creativa devino de un aperturismo calculado inducido por factores estratégicos perfectamente calibrados por la dictadura. Sin embargo quedaron establecidas algunas bases para una diferente práctica a la hora de crear un discurso cinematográfico que reflejara la realidad de los españoles. Luis Vaquerizo García es licenciado y doctor en Comunicación Audiovisual, Publicidad y Literatura y licenciado y doctor en Antropología Social y Cultural por la Universidad de Sevilla. Licenciado en Derecho por la Universidad Complutense de Madrid. Docente en Enseñanzas Medias desde 1993.

Cuatro pasos por la historia y la estética del cine español Rafael Utrera Macías, 2009

A New Gaze Concepción Cascajosa Virino, 2015-10-05. This book deepens the understanding of the work carried out by professional women in Spanish film and television since the arrival of democracy, a period of radical changes that saw an emergence of female talent. Although most of the literature on women and media deals with female film directors, this book also addresses television, a medium where the presence of women was significant throughout this period. This book makes an important contribution to the study of the history of women in Spanish media, focusing on the work of some well-known names while also rescuing from oblivion others now forgotten. It brings together scholars from Spain, the United States and Ireland to analyze films and television programs written or directed by female professionals such as Pilar Miró, Josefina Molina, Cecilia Bartolomé, Rosa Montero, Carmen Martín Gaité, Cristina Andreu, Isabel Coixet and Paloma Chamorro. The book also includes four interviews with screenwriter Esmeralda Adam, television executive Carmen Caffarel, filmmaker Ana Díez and television director Matilde Fernández. Their reflections on personal and professional experiences shed light on the changes that took place in Spanish society during this period and the challenges they have faced in their careers.

Emisora Films, studio system en el primer franquismo Ángel Comas, 2016-11-09. Emisora Films fue la gran alternativa a Cifesa en los años del primer franquismo. Con un sistema de producción inspirado en el studio system norteamericano, Ignacio F. Iquino y Francisco Ariza llegaron a controlar de forma inédita en España los tres sectores: producción, distribución y exhibición, con lo que consiguieron una actividad estable y un tipo de cine más cercano al europeo que al que se hacía entonces en España franquista. Este libro habla de Emisora a través de los testimonios de quienes trabajaron en la empresa, incluso del propio Iquino. El autor es doctor en Ciencias de la Comunicación, periodista e historiador, autor de más de treinta libros sobre cine y cinco novelas, entre los que destacan Iquino, hombre de cine; Josep Maria Forn, la aventura del cine; Jean Gabin; Anthony Mann; Clint Eastwood tras las huellas de Harry; o De Hitchcock a Tarantino, enciclopedia del neo noir norteamericano o El destino de Moira.
