Organ and Harpsichord Music by Women Composers Adel Heinrich, 1991-06-30 This reference work catalogs music for organ and harpsichord written by more than 700 women composers from 40 countries Compiler Adel Heinrich has expanded the organ and harpsichord repertoire to include choir and instruments accompanying organ and harpsichord She provides more detailed information about each work than can be found in any other reference book on women composers In addition to biographies for each woman Heinrich supplies listings of individual compositions and includes descriptions and sources whenever possible Each composition is listed in both the Instrumentation Index and the Title Index Publishers library sources and recording companies with their addresses are also provided There is also a chronological listing of composers by country Two appendices list a large number of women who have either written music for organ and harpsichord with no specific titles known or have performed on one or both instruments This reference book is a valuable resource for organists harpsichordists teachers choral and instrumental conductors and planners of festivals and recitals

Choral Arrangements of the African-American Spirituals Patricia J. Trice, 1998-02-12 Although the choral arrangements of the African American spirituals constitute the largest group of folk song arrangements in western literature they have received little scholarly attention This book provides the needed historical and stylistic information about the spirituals and the arrangements It traces the history and cultural roots of the genre through its inception and delineates the African and European characteristics common to the original folk songs and arrangements Ensembles that have perpetuated the growth of the spiritual arrangements from Fisk Jubilee Singers of the 1870s through those currently active are chronicled as well Musicians choral directors and scholars will welcome this first complete text on the African American spiritual genre Annotated listings of titles provide information choral directors need to make ensemble appropriate performance choices Arrangements indexed by title arranger and subject complement the accompanying biographies and repertoire information Well organized and thoroughly researched this text is a valuable addition to music choral multicultural and African American libraries

A Guide to Piano Music by Women Composers: Women born after 1900 Pamela Youngdahl Dees, 2002

The New Guitarscape in Critical Theory, Cultural Practice and Musical Performance Kevin Dawe, 2017-07-05 In The New Guitarscape Kevin Dawe argues for a re assessment of guitar studies in the light of more recent musical social cultural and technological developments that have taken place around the instrument The author considers that a detailed study of the guitar in both contemporary and cross cultural perspectives is now absolutely essential and that such a study must also include discussion of a wide range of theoretical issues literature musical cultures and technologies as they come to bear upon the instrument Dawe presents a synthesis of previous work on the guitar but also expands the terms by which the guitar might be studied Moreover in order to understand the properties and potential of the guitar as an agent of music culture and society the author draws from studies in science and technology design theory material culture cognition sensual culture gender and sexuality power and agency ethnography real and virtual and globalization Dawe presents the guitar as an instrument of scientific investigation and part of the technology of globalization created and disseminated through corporate culture and cottage industry held close to the body but taken away from the body in cyberspace and involved in an enormous variety of cultural interactions and political exchanges in many different contexts around the world In an effort to understand the significance and meaning of the guitar in the lives of those who may be seen to be closest to it as well as providing a critically informed discussion of various approaches to guitar performance technologies and techniques the book includes discussion of the work of a wide range of guitarists including Robert Fripp Kamala Shankar Newton Faulkner Lionel Loueke Sharon Isbin Steve Vai Bob Brozman Kaki King Fred Frith John 5 Jennifer Batten Guthrie Govan Dominic Frasca I Wayan Balawan Vicki Genfan and Hasan Cihatter

Emma Lou Diemer Ellen G. Grolman, 2001-06-30 Emma Lou Diemer a composer who successfully combines a classicist's interest in form with a fresh contemporary harmonic vocabulary has produced a diverse sophisticated and largely unheralded opus including 350 works composed for orchestra symphonic band chamber ensemble keyboard chorus voices and solo and electronic instruments This complete guide to her extensive work examines her influences and her unique musical style reveals her philosophy of composing and offers the reader access to detailed information about her work Though her organ psalm settings and hymn preludes are considered standard repertoire as are a number of her choral compositions Diemer has not received her due attention or acclaim an oversight fully corrected by this valuable addition to music scholarship Beginning with a brief biography that outlines Diemer's life and art this thoroughly cross referenced book goes on to enumerate the composer's many works and performances in a section divided by style and instrument A complete discography and bibliography round out the volume along with alphabetical chronological and genre specific indexes The
