Debating Religion and Forced Migration Entanglements Elżbieta M. Goździak, Izabella Main, 2023-03-11 This open access book brings into dialogue emerging and seasoned migration and religion scholars with spiritual leaders and representatives of faith based organizations assisting refugees Violent conflicts social unrest and other humanitarian crises around the world have led to growing numbers of people seeking refuge both in the North and in the South Migrating and seeking refuge have always been part and parcel of spiritual development However the current refugee crisis in Europe and elsewhere in the world has brought to the fore fervent discussions regarding the role of religion in defining difference linking the refugee crisis with Islam and fear of the Other Many religious institutions spiritual leaders and politicians invoke religious values and call for strict border controls to resolve the refugee crisis However equally many humanitarian organizations and refugee advocates use religious values to inform their call to action to welcome refugees and migrants provide them with assistance and facilitate integration processes This book includes three distinct but inter related parts focusing respectively on politics values and discourses mobilized by religious beliefs lived experiences of religion with a particular emphasis on identity and belonging among various refugee groups and faith and faith actors and their responses to forced migration

Malawian Migration to Zimbabwe, 1900-1965 Zoë R. Groves, 2020-11-24 This book explores the culture of migration that emerged in Malawi in the early twentieth century as the British colony became central to labour migration in southern Africa Migrants who travelled to Zimbabwe stayed for years or decades and those who never returned became known as machona the lost ones Through an analysis of colonial archives and oral histories this book captures a range of migrant experiences during a period of enormous political change including the rise of nationalist politics and the creation and demise of the Central African Federation Following migrants from origin to destination and in some cases back again this book explores gender generation ethnicity and class and highlights life beyond the workplace in a racially segregated city Malawian men and women shaped the culture and politics of urban Zimbabwe in ways that remain visible today Ultimately the voluntary movement of Africans within the African continent raises important questions about the history of diaspora communities and the politics of belonging in post colonial Africa
