Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer s Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet s relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements

Radical Visions Vicente F. Gotera, 1994 Although poets have written about warfare since at least the time of Homer the Vietnam war has struck many observers as being immune to the interpretations of poetry and myth Lyric poetry of a traditional kind writes one critic has proved inappropriate to communicate the character of the Vietnam war its remoteness its jargonized recapitulations its seeming imperviousness to aesthetics Nonetheless the past two decades have seen an unprecedented outpouring of poetry that seeks to describe and come to terms with that bitterly divisive conflict In Radical Visions Vince Gotera argues that poetry written by Vietnam veterans underlines the failure of traditional American myths to help Americans understand the war and its aftermath The book blends sociohistorical commentary with close readings of individual works by such poets as Michael Casey Walter McDonald and W D Ehrhart In the book's first section The Nam Gotera examines several key mythic structures the Wild West a violent extension of the mythic virgin land the machine in the garden the city on the hill regeneration through violence all of which helped delude Americans about Vietnam and the war being fought there In the second part The World Gotera shows how another myth the American Adam as an exemplar of ahistorical innocence proved unusable for returning veterans attempting to readjust to American life In addition to exposing these failed myths Gotera argues the poetry by Vietnam veterans reflects an effort to construct new myths most notably that of the warrior against war an oxymoronic structure arising from the difficulties faced by returning veterans In the book's final chapters Gotera examines the work of Bruce Weigl and Yusef Komunyakaa two poets whom the author considers most successful at portraying the moral absurdity of the Vietnam war without sacrificing lyrical aesthetics The first comprehensive study devoted exclusively to poetry by Vietnam veterans Radical Visions argues that this body of writing registers an important advance in the aesthetics and poetics of war literature and offers a cogent antiwar statement rooted in personal experience Pacifism and English Literature R. White, 2008-02-21 This timely book traces ideas of pacifism in English literature particularly poetry Early chapters drawing on religious and secular traditions provide intellectual contexts There follows a chronological analysis of literature which rejects war and celebrates peace from the Middle Ages to the present day Equipment Anthony Aiello, 2014-09 Equipment is the story of a young soldier and his comrades during the Gulf War and the battles that followed them home Tony Harrison Sandie Byrne, 1997-05-29 Tony Harrison Loiner is published to celebrate the poet and playwright Tony Harrison's sixtieth birthday through an exploration of his work including his best known poem v Harrison 1937 has been called our best English poet and has been awarded a number of prizes for his poetry including the Geoffrey Faber Memorial Prize the Royal Television Society Award the Prix Italia and the Whitbread Prize for Poetry This book gives his work the serious critical attention it merits with essays from a number of prominent contributors including Richard Eyre and Melvyn Bragg and a foreword by Grey Gowrie The collection ranges from personal recollections of working with Tony Harrison and personal responses to his poems to detailed critical analyses of his techniques and themes covering Harrison's short poems and sonnet sequence his plays his television poem films and his libretti spanning the years 1955 1997 A loiner is a native of Leeds where Tony Harrison was born and spent the early part of his life and from which he was dispossessed by the enforced translation
