Gumdrops School Adventure:

Gumdrop's School Adventure Val Biro, 2001 Mr Oldcastle is judging a fancy dress competition at a local school The prize is a ride in his beautiful vintage car but Gumdrop's been stolen And Horace too Who are the thieves and will Mr Oldcastle ever catch up with them The School Librarian, 2001 Spinning Tops & Gumdrops Edwin Barnard, 2018-03-01 Spinning Tops and Gumdrops takes us back to childhood in colonial Australia The delight of children at play is universal but the pleasure these children experience as depicted through the book's photographs is through their imagination skill and daring rather than through possessions Children play quoits and jacks hide and seek cricket with a kerosene tin for a wicket dress ups and charades They climb trees run races and build rafts to sail on the local waterhole The photographs show children happily absorbed in the play of their own making Being a child in colonial Australia was also tough It was a time when school yard disagreements were sorted out with fists and the loss of a little claret A time when children could view public hangings and premature death was frequent especially taking the very young and vulnerable though dysentery whooping cough or diphtheria The lasting impression left by the contemporary accounts photographs etchings and paintings of colonial children in Spinning Tops and Gumdrops is their possession of qualities of resilience self sufficiency and acceptance of their lot Perhaps it was through lack of choice or of knowing no other Nevertheless these were qualities that put them in good stead for the challenges many faced in their adulthood Interestingly these are qualities on which contemporary society still places a high value but which today seem a little more elusive School Life, 1936
