Written by a practicing professional. Covers breeds, choice of puppy, all phases of training, water work, shooting, days, field trials. Zip Zap Mike Gaddis, 2006. Mike Gaddis swore to be painfully selective in choosing the puppy that would accompany him on the horseback pointing dog trials he so badly wanted to participate in. He knew the smallest female born sixth in the litter of twelve English setters was special, but he didn't understand the power of her potential until he let her loose in the field. Her lightning speed earned her the name Zip Zap, and she grew to be the best bird dog Gaddis ever owned. In this memoir, Gaddis celebrates the dog's indomitable spirit and tells the story of training and developing superior pointers from their first unrefined runs in the amateur puppy stakes to winning major championships. Leisure, Plantations, and the Making of a New South Julia Brock, Daniel Vivian, 2015-10-01. Leisure Plantations and the Making of New South investigates the social, architectural, and environmental history of sporting plantations in the South Carolina lowcountry and the Red Hills region of southeast Georgia and northern Florida. Although plantations figure prominently in histories of the post-emancipation South, historians have paid little attention to the redevelopment of plantations for non-agricultural use. By examining the two largest concentrations of sporting plantations on the south Atlantic coast, this collection explores questions about historical memory of slavery, race relations, material culture, and the environment during the first half of the twentieth century. Gundog Training Made Easy (Hardback) Eric Begbie, 2008-07-06.
