Bam Boys Gregory A. Freeman,2011-05-24 Before the famed Nuremberg Tribunal there was R sselsheim a small German town where ordinary civilians were tried in the first War Crimes Trial of World War II As the tide of World War II turned a hitherto unknown incident set a precedent for how we would bring wartime crimes to justice In August 1944 the 9 man crew of an American bomber was forced to bail out over Germany As their captors marched them into R sselsheim a small town recently bombed to smithereens by Allies they were attacked by an angry mob of civilians farmers shopkeepers railroad workers women and children With a local Nazi chief at the helm they assaulted the young Americans with stones bricks and wooden clubs They beat them viciously and left them for dead at the nearby cemetery It could have been another forgotten tragedy of the war But when the lynching was briefly mentioned in a London paper a few months later it caught the eye of two Army majors Luke Rogers and Leon Jaworski Their investigation uncovered the real human cost of the war the parents and a newlywed wife who agonized over the fate of the men and the devastating effect of modern warfare on civilian populations Rogers and Jaworski put the city of R sselsheim on trial insisting on the rule of law even amidst the horrors of war Drawing from trial records government archives interviews with family members and personal letters highly acclaimed military historian Gregory A Freeman brings to life for the first time the dramatic story Taking the reader to the scene of the crime and into the homes of the crew he exposes the stark realities of war to show how ordinary citizens could be drawn to commit horrific acts of wartime atrocities and the far reaching effects on generations      Combat Gunner Pete

Larsen,2011-05-13 Between 1965 and 1973 Strategic Air Command B 52 gunners flew an unprecedented number of combat hours in the Vietnam War Gunners with three and four hundred missions were not uncommon Most did their job with bravery and uncommon valor during a time when arrays of SAM missiles were being launched at them from sites in North Vietnam At times some of them got a little rowdy and their antics often surprised and perplexed the zeroes the officers they flew with This exciting and sometimes hilarious story about them closely resembles the truth      The boy's own sea stories; the adventures of a sailor, narrated by himself Boy,1880      Shipboard Life and Organisation, 1731-1815 B.

Lavery,2020-07-26 The idea behind this volume according to its editor Brian Lavery was to give a rounded picture of life at sea during the age of sail It concentrates on the daily routine of shipboard life rather than more dramatic events such as battles and mutiny It supplements other volumes produced by the Navy Records Society notably Five Naval Journals 1789 1817 vol 91 1951 ed H G Thursfield and The Health of Seamen vol 107 1965 ed C C Lloyd The selection begins in the second quarter of the eighteenth century because stated Brian Lavery there are no suitable documents from earlier periods and closes in 1815 when the navy entered a new era with the advent of steam and a long period of peace One of the most important aspects of shipboard life was that it was intensely self contained especially in the later part of the age of sail After the conquest of scurvy ships were able to stay at sea for many months at a time and the world wide battle for empire caused them to make very long voyages often away from their home bases over a period of years Even in port seamen often stayed on board and shore leave was not in any sense a right This volume throws a spotlight on the way in which a crew of up to 850 men could be crammed into a small space for many months at a time and the ways in which they were fed clothed allocated space for eating and sleeping at the same time as they were organised for sailing and battle duties It contains separate sections dealing with Admiralty Regulations Captain s Orders Medical Journals discipline and punishment It also includes an extensive glossary of the nautical terms and descriptions of the time     The Boy's Manual of Seamanship and Gunnery C. Burney (Captain.),1867     The Boy's Own Magazine ,1863     Annual Report of the United States Life-Saving Service United States.
