Morgan Currie, Melisa Miranda Correa, 2022-01-01 This book describes three years of work by the Culture and Communities Mapping Project a research project based in Edinburgh that uses maps as an object of study and also a means to facilitate research Taking a self reflexive approach the book draws on a variety of iterative mapping procedures and visual methodologies from online virtual tours to photo elicitation to capture the voices of inhabitants and their distinctive perspectives on the city The book argues that practices of cultural mapping consist of a research field in and of itself and it situates this work in relation to other areas of research and practice including critical cartography cultural geography critical

GIS activist mapping and artist maps The book also offers a range of practical approaches towards using print and web based maps to give visibility to spaces traditionally left out of city representations but that are important to the local communities that use them Throughout the authors reflect critically on how through the processes of mapping we create knowledge about space place community and culture Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani,2013-09-05 First Published in 1987 this volume offers a bibliography of biographies autobiographies and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th century figures on the topic of Iran The Physical Atlas: a Series of Maps Illustrating the Geographical Distribution of Natural Phenomena Alexander Keith Johnston,Heinrich Karl Wilhelm Berghaus,2024-04-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1845
