influenced to that vote by those arguments In particular I do most exceedingly condemn all such arguments as involve any kind of reflection on the personal character of the gentlemen who have brought in a petition so decent in the style of it and so constitutional in the mode Besides the unimpeachable integrity and piety of many of the promoters of this petition which render those aspersions as idle as they are unjust such a way of treating the subject can have no other effect than to turn the attention of the House from the merits of the petition the only thing properly before us and which we are sufficiently competent to decide upon to the motives of the petitioners which belong exclusively to the Great Searcher of Hearts We all know that those who loll at their ease in high dignities whether of the Church or of the State are commonly averse to all reformation It is hard to persuade them that there can be anything amiss in establishments which by feeling experience they find to be so very comfortable It is as true that from the same selfish motives those who are struggling upwards are apt to find everything wrong and out of order These are truths upon one side and on the other and neither on the one side or the other in argument are they worth a single farthing I wish therefore so much had not been said upon these ill chosen and worse than ill chosen these very invidious topics I wish still more that the dissensions and animosities which had slept for a century had not been just now most unseasonably revived But if we must be driven whether we will or not to recollect these unhappy transactions let our memory be complete and equitable let us recollect the whole of them together If the Dissenters as an honorable gentleman has described them have formerly risen from a whining canting snivelling generation to be a body dreadful and ruinous to all our establishments let him call to mind the follies the violences the outrages and persecutions that conjured up very blamably but very naturally that same spirit of retaliation We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
