The twentieth century American author was catapulted to fame after the publication of Renascence her first major work and a poem written while she was still a teenager. Millay's frank attitude toward sexuality along with immortal lines such as "My candle burns at both ends" solidified her reputation as the quintessential liberated woman of the Jazz Age. In this authoritative volume Timothy F. Jackson has compiled and annotated a new selection that represents the full range of her published work alongside previously unpublished manuscript excerpts, poems, prose and correspondence. The poems appearing as they were printed in their first editions are complemented by Jackson's extensive illuminating notes which draw on archival sources and help situate her work in its historical and literary context. Two introductory essays, one by Jackson and the other by Millay's literary executor Holly Pippenger, also help critically frame the poet's work. Edna St. Vincent Millay Edna St. Vincent Millay, 2006 This new addition to the elegant Library of Classic Poets series features selections from one of the best loved poets of the early twentieth century. Edna St Vincent Millay defined a generation as one of the most critically acclaimed poets of the Modernist era. Her work pushed boundaries within the literary canon for its lyrical expression of female embodiment and progressive feminist politics and she was honored as only the third woman to be awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry. The Selected Poetry of Edna St Vincent Millay demonstrates Millay's legacy and influence on contemporary poetry. Sometimes satirical, often sharp and always striking, the poems in this collection span Millay's remarkable career from the success of Renascence and Other Poems to the sting of "A Few Figs from Thistles" and "Second April" as well as "The Ballad of the Harp Weaver" and eight sonnets from the early twenties.
